The good book said,
"Honor thy father and mother."
I smiled and said aloud,
"I have never done anything with your name of which you need be ashamed"

NOTICE

It will aid our readers greatly in the full understanding of the material in this book, if they will first study the code on page 9. The lineage described in each Chapter is based on this code.

We also urge readers to refer often to and study the pedigree charts on pages 287 to 298 as they are the key to all family relationships mentioned in this book.

"The man who is content to get by is the man who will be passed by."

TO OUR READERS

As we read and re-read this manuscript, we come to the realization that there are some slight errors as to dates and names.

Some of these have been brought about due to the inability to find exact proof of dates, often it has been confusing to tie names to proper families.

We might cite repetition of some given names for several generations of the same family. Some of these repetitions overlapped for as much as three generations. Often a man would own a farm and later his son by the same name would take possession of that farm, and still a third person would later inherit the farm, and he could be the third generation by the same name.

These facts made for extreme difficulty in separating families and proving, without a doubt, who a person was, and where he fit into the family.

This entire picture was added to by the fact that often women would have the same given name. It is astounding that in early pioneer times there were so many Marys, Elizabeths, Anns and Priscillas. It is a further fact that there were many Johns, James, Josephs, Georges and Williams.

We apologize for these errors. It is imperative that there be an end to our geneological research, although we realize that such research has no finish.

We sincerely hope that this work will be of interest and value to those who read it and that they will be encouraged to use this book as a trunk for their own future study and pleasure.

We also realize many people who might have been included in this book were not because of the inability to obtain information, so we again apologize for the ommision and invite anyone who would care to, to send us information concerning themselves for our records.

We wish, at this point, to thank all who have sent information and pictures to be used in the book.

THE TAYLORS

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Thomas A. TAYLOR and Edna Cardon TAYLOR are the co-authors of this book. They both came from pioneer heritage of which they were extremely proud. They have made great efforts to promote the ideals set forth by their ancestors.

They have been in the field of Education for the greater part of their productive lives. Thomas A. has taught at the Elementary, Secondary and University levels. Edna has taught at the Elementary School level.

During their lives they have taken many leading rolls in their society, schools and church.

Edna Cardon Taylor

Thomas Alva Taylor

Thomas "Tom" was active in high school athletics and was salutatorian of his graduating class. He was president of the A.F. of L. Teamsters of the Loggers of Bates, Oregon.

He and his wife, Edna, were co-presidents of the Varsity Dance Club in Logan, Utah. He was a member of three different Lions Clubs and was elected to every office in Lionism up to and including Zone Chairman.

Edna was in the Spur Organization in College. She was also a member of, Secretary and President of the Lady Lions in Logan, Utah. She was vice-president of the Logan Education Association for three years, and was a member of the Board of Directors of the Logan, Cache, Rich Credit Union for three years. She also served two years in the House of Delegates to the Utah Education Association.

The TAYLORS are at present members of the Logan Golf and Country Club. Tom was on the Board of Directors for three years for that organization. He was a member of the Logan-Cache Chamber of Commerce, and served as membership chairman for one term.

They are members of the President's Club, the Big Blue Club and the Century Club at Utah State University, as well as members of the Emerti Association of the same University at Logan, Utah.

For many years Tom was a member of Phi Delta Kappa, a professional fraternity at the University level. Edna was a member of the Delta Kappa Gamma, also a professional sorority, and the Business and Professional Women's Club and the American Association of University Women.

Tom spent three years on the retirement committee for the Utah Teachers Association and two terms on the Faculty Senate at the University.

They are faithful members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints and were married in the Logan Temple in 1938.

At present (1980) Edna is in the Relief Society and teaches a class in Research, Organization and Recording Genealogy for her church. Tom is the Ward Historian, and is a High Priest in the Melchizedek Priesthood.

INTRODUCTION

This book is a combination of Geneological Research and a study of historical events.

In attempting to trace our geneology, we were faced with a real need for understandable and accurate information. On the other hand we found many records of historical events which should be preserved.

It is always possible that some of these events have been exaggerated, added to, or deleted from over the generations who have told and retold them.

The geneological records also have often met with destructive tragedies. They have often been completely destroyed or rendered almost unrecognizable by fires, floods, earthquakes, tornadoes, rebuilding, or the sheer disinterest in caretakers.

At times, it has seemed almost impossible to gather information upon which to write a book. Our realization of the need for preserving the information at the cost of any time or financial expense has taken preference over any obstacle.

We have not attempted to do the impossible, that of including everyone's family tree. Instead we believe we have formed the roots and trunks by which researchers might tie their branches to the trunk or mainline.

In doing this, we have searched marriage records, birth records, court records, probate records, wills, land grants, family bibles, deaths and cemetery records, tombstone inscriptions, school records, and many church records.

We have traveled in Utah, Idaho, Nevada, Colorado, Washington, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Arizona, Montana, Michigan, New Mexico, Hawaii, Maryland, California, Kansas, Nebraska, South Dakota, Iowa, Missouri, Arkansas, Ohio, West Virginia, Tennessee, Kentucky, South Carolina, Virginia, North Carolina, New York, New Jersey and Illinois, and yet the uncertainty of what is yet to come has driven us on.

It is important that at this time, the code for this book is explained. The I, A, 1, a, designations refer to the progeny of the direct line ancestors, and the code is repeated after each line ancestor as follows:

MAIN LINE ANCESTOR

I, II, III etc. first generation
A, B, C, etc. second generation
1,2,3, etc. third generation a,b,c, etc. fourth generation a1, a2, a3, etc. fifth generation

THE TAYLORS

The earliest history of the TAYLOR Clan shows that they came from Tay River area of Scotland, City Perth.

They were not "tailors", but were scribes for the Chieftans. They were of the Cameron Clan which is next in size to the Stewart Clan. They moved to Carlisle, England and one was a scribe for King James.

It is a known fact that most the TAYLOR women came from Virginia. They then came through Kentucky and into Missouri. Because of this, it has been supposed that the TAYLORS also came through Virginia. This may be an erroneous conclusion.

James "Old Corn" TAYLOR was born, married and had his children in Georgia. This information came from the Missouri Census. There are records of passports issued in Georgia to James TAYLOR.

We have located the name of James TAYLOR. He was the father of James "Old Corn" TAYLOR and married Elizabeth BARRIE who was a widow, evidentally at the time they were married.

"I follow a noble father, and him I must keep in mind,
Though his form is gone, I must carry on
The name that he left behind.
It was mine on the day he gave it;
It shone as a monarch's crown; and as fair to see
As it came to me,
It must be, when I put it down."

CHAPTER I

WILLIAM ARCHER TAYLOR

Born: 31 Jan. 1867, Henderson, Henderson Co., Kentucky
Father: James Archer TAYLOR
Mother: Mary Isabell KEYSER
Married: 28 Mar. 1894, Henry County, Missouri to Nancy Ellen OWENS
Died: 26 Apr. 1953, Fayette, Howard Co., Missouri
Buried: 28 Apr. 1953, Walnut Ridge Cemetery, Fayette, Howard Co., Missouri

William Archer TAYLOR was born in Henderson, Henderson Co., Kentucky. He moved to Clinton, Henry Co., Missouri about 1874. Since the records show that his younger brother, Robert Aubrey TAYLOR, was born in Henderson, Kentucky in 1873, and that the next brother, Henry Cake TAYLOR was born in Clinton, Henry Co., Missouri in 1875, this leaves a time span of two years, (1873-1875) during which William Archer and his family moved to Clinton, Henry Co., Missouri.

William Archer TAYLOR attended school in Fayette and Calhoun, Missouri. His father, James Archer TAYLOR, died on 26 Feb. 1878. This made William only eleven years old when his father died. His mother, Mary Isabell, lived until 15 Mar. 1886, at which time William Archer was about 18 years old.

There is no record of who raised him and it is supposed that he lived with his mother and other members of the family until he was able to make his own way, or until his mother died.

Since William Archer TAYLOR had very little education and a rather difficult time in his early life, he always worked at farm labor. Most of this time he spent in Howard Co. and Henry Co., Missouri.

William Archer TAYLOR married Nancy Ellen OWENS on 28 Mar. 1894. At this time he was 27 years old and Nancy Ellen OWENS was 24 years old.

In about 1903 the TAYLORS bought a small farm near Almon, Camden Co., Missouri. They moved to the farm and their last four children were born there.

About 1911 William and Nancy sold the little farm at Almon, Missouri and moved back to Henry Co., near Thrush, Missouri.

In 1913 or 1914, William and Nancy moved to Kansas, where William rented a farm. This venture did not prove to be advantageous and William bought the Rozell Dray Service in Rozel, Kansas. The family later moved to Alexander, Kansas and back to Rozel, Kansas in about 1919.

In late 1919 or early 1920, William Archer and Nancy Ellen were divorced. William continued to work at farm labor and other labor jobs until he died 26 Apr. 1953 at the age of 86 years. He is buried in the Walnut Ridge Cemetery at Fayette, Howard Co., Missouri, in the same lot as his brother, Sterling Price TAYLOR, Sterling's two wives, Ida and Mayme and the son of Sterling, James TAYLOR.

NANCY ELLEN OWENS
(Wife of William Archer TAYLOR)

Born: 6 July 1870, Henry Co., Missouri
Father: Robert Cross OWENS
Mother: Mary Elizabeth GEORGE
Died: 11 Oct. 1941, Council Bluffs, Iowa
Buried: 13 Oct. 1941, Macedonia, Iowa

Nancy Ellen OWENS, like most of the young people of that country at that period of time, had a sixth grade education. Her family were staunch Baptists and were Democrats. She being the eldest of a rather large family, became adept at housekeeping. She raised nine of ten children born to them, five girls and five boys.

The depression of 1918 and 1919 caused her to go to work at various jobs outside of the home in order to feed and clothe the family.

In 1919 or 1920 she and William were divorced, at which time she and the two youngest girls, Beulah and Eulah, returned to Missouri. Nancy later went to Iowa where she died at Council Bluffs, Iowa on 11 Oct. 1941 at the age of 71 years. She is buried at the Macedonia Cemetery, Iowa. Neither she nor William ever re-married.

Children of William A. TAYLOR and Nancy E. OWENS, 10, listed below:

I. Geneva May TAYLOR
Born: 10 Jan. 1895, Thrush, Henry Co., Missouri
Married: 22 Dec. 1912 to Frederick Alonzo PLAINS, b. 23 Feb. 1889
Divorced: 1933

Geneva May started school at the George School near Thrush, Missouri and finished school near Almon, Missouri. She was married at the age of 18 to Frederick Alonzo PLAINS. He was a carpenter by trade. They lived most of their married life at Fayette, Howard Co., Missouri.

For a short time they went to Kansas where her parents lived. This venture did not prove advantageous, and after about a year they returned to Fayette, Missouri.

In 1933 Fred and Geneva were divorced. Geneva got custody of the children. There were six children, five boys and one William Alonzo PLAINS attended elementary school and high school at Fayette, Missouri. He played basketball in high school at Fayette. As a boy he worked at various jobs. He went to Norwalk, California to be with his uncle Bill PLAINS, 11 Oct. 1934. He stayed with his uncle for two or three years.

William married Inez LUCAS on 5 Mar. 1937. Two years later, Sept. 1939 he started a service station on Rosecrans Avenue in Norwalk, California. Soon after he started the service station he was drafted into the army in the Infantry. At this time he sub-leased the service station. He served in the U. S. Army for the duration of the World War II.

When he was released from active duty he returned and took over the service station again, which he operated until he sold it in June 1969 at which time he obtained a position with the Norwalk City Parks and Recreation Department. He retired from that position in July 1980.

He is an ardent fisherman and loves most outdoor sports.

Married: 11 Aug. 1950, Norwalk, L.A. Co., California, to Barbara Jean HUITT, b. 11 Dec. 1930, Norwalk, California, dau. of William Edward HUITT and Zada Rebecca GALLAMORE

Vernon PLAINS was born in Fayette, Howard Co., Missouri in 1929. Very soon after his birth his mother, Geneva, and father, Frederick, were divorced.

He received all of his education in Norwalk, California. After he was old enough to work, he went to work for his older brother William, in a service station on Rosecrans Avenue in Norwalk, California. Vernon worked for several years for his brother.

When Vernon was in high school he became quite a good basketball player, but he had quite a lot of trouble with his legs at that time, and has ever since.

After he graduated from high school he entered a trade school where he took up accounting and bookkeeping. After graduating in that field, he got a position with Frederick's Development Company. This was a very large land development company for whom he became head accountant. He worked for this company until he was retired for illness. Soon after his retirement he had open heart surgery.

James Robert TAYLOR started school at the George School and finished somewhere near Almon, Camden Co., Missouri.

All of his early life he did farm labor. While at Almon, Missouri he met Lula RASH whom he later married. When his father, William Archer TAYLOR and his family moved to Kansas, James was about 17 or 18 years old. He was in charge of the moving from Clinton, Missouri to Larned, Kansas for his family.

After the First World War broke out, James was drafted. He was sent to Fort Lewis, Washington where he was in training at the time of the armistice. Soon after he returned from the army he and his younger brother, Vernon, went to North Dakota to work.

The two young men began to farm near Oakes, North Dakota. It was all wheat country and crops were extremely poor. During their second year in North Dakota, Lula May RASH went to North Dakota and James and Lula were married 19 Feb. 1920 at Aberdeen, South Dakota. This was only a distance of approximately 55 miles from Oakes, North Dakota.

In the fall of 1920 they gave up farming in North Dakota and moved to Fayette, Missouri where James' older sister, Geneva PLAINS lived. James' and Lula's first child, Curtis, was born at Fayette, Howard Co., Missouri 23 Feb. 1921.

During the next year they moved to Coburg, Iowa where James had a job on a large hog ranch. While James and Lula lived at Coburg, a son, Gomer Vinton was born on 15 Oct. 1922, and a daughter, Velma Lillian was born 9 Sept. 1924. Between 1924 and 1926 James and Lula moved to Macedonia, Iowa, where a daughter, Vera Clata was born 28 June 1926.

Sometime in about 1927 James and Lula returned to Oakes, North Dakota for a year or two where Minnie Wilda TAYLOR was born 30 Jan. 1928, then they returned to Macedonia, Iowa in 1930 and bought a small farm near Macedonia and lived there until Lula passed away 10 Dec. 1978. At this time James sold the farm at Macedonia and bought a home in Council Bluffs, Iowa, where he still lives.

VI. Theresa Rhodelia TAYLOR
Born: 24 May 1902, Calhoun, Henry Co., Missouri
Married: 28 Aug. 1919, Larned, Kansas to Herman Dewey MERKEL, b. 19 June 1898, Reno Co., Kansas. d. 13 Apr. 1959, Larned, Kansas, s. of William Henry MERKEL and Minnie Caroline FREISE (FREIZE).
Died: 17 Aug. 1976, Central Kansas Medical Center, Great Bend, Kansas. Buried 20 Aug. 1976, Larned, Kansas.

Theresa Rhodelia TAYLOR was born at Calhoun, Henry Co., Missouri. Very soon after she was born the family moved to Almon, Camden Co., Missouri. It was at Almon where Theresa started to school.

Later the family moved back to Henry Co., Missouri near Calhoun. Theresa then attended the George School near Thrush.

In 1913 or 1914 the family moved to Ash Valley, Kansas near Larned. At this time Theresa was still in elementary school. When later the family moved to Rozel, Kansas, Theresa entered high school there. She got her high school education at Rozel.

On 28 Aug. 1919 Theresa was married to Herman Dewey MERKEL. He was a wheat farmer in that area and continued to farm successfully until he became ill a while before he died on 13 Apr. 1959.

Theresa then sold the farm on which they had lived for several years, and bought a small home in Larned, Kansas where she lived until her death 17 Aug. 1976.

Children of Theresa R. TAYLOR and Herman D. MERKEL, 3, listed below:

A. Vera MERKEL
Stillborn, Rozel, Pawnee Co., Kansas

B. Mildred Marie MERKEL
Born: 24 Oct. 1920, Rozel, Pawnee Co., Kansas
Married: 9 Apr. 1939 to Weldon Gene HOWELL, b. 6 June 1917, Nickerson, Reno Co., Kansas, s. of Fred Mansfield HOWELL and Myrtle Lovetta FAHRNEY

Mildred spent the first 6 grades in Lone Star School, District 59 in Pawnee Co., and attended Radium schools from 1931 through 1934 then Larned High School graduating in 1937. She graduated from Stafford County grade schools in May 1933. Attended Radium High School during freshman year.

In August, 1934 she moved to Larned and attended high school there. When she graduated in 1937 it was the largest graduating class from the High School. Mildred was the youngest in the class and ranked 11th out of the 76 graduates.

Weldon was the 9th child of Fred Mansfield and Myrtle Lovetta Fahrney HOWELL. He was born in Nickerson, Reno Co., Kansas, 6 June 1917. They moved to a farm southwest of Larned in 1921 and he started to school in District 49; in 1928 they moved to Larned (Parish Place) and he attended Larned schools. While in the grade school and junior high Weldon "Bud" played the violin but as athletics was more interesting he gave it up for football, which he played throughout his high school years.

Weldon has farmed all his life -- so farming was the way of life for he and Mildred. Both of them grew up on farms except for six years that Mildred lived in Larned before marriage.

They started housekeeping south of Larned and lived in Pleasant Grove township from 1939 until 1957 except for 1 year (1940) west of Larned and 1952 in Larned. On 3 June 1957 they moved to their present home in Douglas township, Stafford County, Route 1, St. John, Kansas.

They became associated with Abner Zook in 1952 and learned about sheep and for 24 years that was their livestock enterprise from a small flock at the beginning to about 500 ewe flock before they sold them and eliminated the livestock project.

In 1951 they rented 160 acres of farmland from Ruth ROGERS. She became a very personal friend, one the entire family loved very much. In 1979 after farming her land for 25 years, she sold it to them, and in 1979 it produced 50-bushel wheat; several times it had gone over 40 or 45 but never over the 50 mark. It was Newton wheat. 1979 was the best farming year they ever had up to the present (1980).

In 1963 a new venture was irrigation. They drilled a well and used "hand move" pipe. But one winter "Bud" converted all that hand move pipe to a "drag line" moving $\frac{1}{4}$ mile of pipe at a time with the tractor.

Progress again in 1974 eliminating all the pipe moving and putting in a center pivot system. This was the year they sold the sheep and strictly from then on Bud has been a crop farmer -- those being mainly wheat, alfalfa, grain sorghum and soybeans.

Four children, Veneta, Nolan, Norman and Janice grew up in this home. All graduated from high school and McPherson College. All their mates graduated from McPherson College also, except JoAnn who is a graduate nurse from Garden City Community College, Garden City, Kansas.

Early in their married life they chose the Church of the Brethren, south of Larned, as their fellowship. All of their children were also baptized into this church. In 1957 when they moved to Stafford Co. their membership was transferred to the Eden Valley Church of the Brethren, St. John.

During the years Weldon has been on the trustee commission, the Church Board, the deacon commission and is the first lay moderator of the Eden Valley Church (1980). He has also been Sunday School superintendent, president and secretary of the Men's Fellowship and assistant Sunday School teacher.

Mildred was the Church clerk for 15 years, has been an adult Sunday School teacher most of the time and a member of the ministerial commission.

Weldon also was the chairman of the church remodeling committee and in 1968 and 1969 supervised the remodeling and enlarging of the church sanctuary and fellowship hall, increasing classrooms, etc.

One member said recently, "If you want to get a job done, put Weldon in charge, he'll see that it gets done." Weldon has always been mechanically inclined, and during his high school years his folks ran a dairy and "Bud" delivered milk in Larned.

When Mildred and "Bud" were married he began to work at Doerr's Sheet Metal Factory. This was one of the best places in Larned for employment. Shortly after that, on June 3, he was milking, and a cow kicked him and broke both bones in his right leg. He spent 10 weeks in bed and had a cast on his leg for 5 months -- even planted wheat that fall with the cast on his leg.

They harvested their first wheat crop in 1940. That fall Bud's mother became ill - pernicious anemia - spent 10 weeks in Halstead, Kansas hospital, had 23 blood transfusions. She was moved home the last week in January and passed away Jan. 30, 1941.

tornado experience was one we will never forget. The radio reported the developing of a possible tornado cloud about 12 miles east of us. Seeing no clouds in the sky, Mildred started looking around. Straight south of us one was developing and moving toward us. Mildred called Bud who was watching clouds from a stack of bales southwest of the house, in a road through the trees. He didn't move. (Later found out he did not see the cloud that was moving directly over us.) But Mildred did. She took Veneta and Janice, showed them what a tornado cloud was like then went to the cave. About that time Norman ran to the house and he joined us. (Found out later Nolan was milking in the barn. Haymow was full of baled hay.)

The cave door blew shut behind us. A hinge was broken and it left small space through which we could look. We could see the leaves swirling directly above us and everything got very quiet.

Soon, though, Bud, Nolan and a woman from Larned came to the cave. The storm had fishtailed through the trees and crossed the road about 300 yards south of us. We stood in our front yard and watched that tornado pick up a house northeast of Larned and we also listened on the radio until the tornado was reported within 6 miles of Great Bend.

Another tornado that evening (23 were sighted in south central Kansas that evening) hit Uncle Cecil Merkel's place one mile west of Garfield and damaged every building on their farm. They had made it to the cave though. Their 3 story home had but the ground floor left. They had to rebuild all but the garage."

Mildred says: "Our life has not been easy, but the Good Lord has been good to us."

Died: 18 Apr. 1969, Larned Kansas. Buried at Larned, Kansas

The following information was furnished to us by Dorothy's sister, Mildred Merkel HOWELL, who said that Dorothy had written the information for Mildred and Weldon's 30th anniversary booklet.

"I came to Larned to stay with Bud and Mildred during my sophomore year. I was baby sitter for Veneta and she was always a good baby. When I began to date Fred, we would take her with us quite a bit, especially on Sundays.

Fred and I were married that summer (Aug. 1942) and I moved to an apartment after he entered the service. When he came home on furlough I traveled back to Oregon with him (spring 1943) and I stayed there until he was transferred to another camp and I came home."

Mildred reported that Dorothy had appendicitis and was operated on in the spring of her senior year in high school. She had a beautiful formal for the dance, but did not get to go to the Jr-Sr Banquet, but wore that dress for her wedding.

They chose to get married after Fred had been drafted and sent home 4-F. They did not think he would go, so he took a job as a mechanic for John Deere at Ulysses, Kansas. Within 2 months they had called the 4-F draftees and put them in limited service. Fred was a cook in a hospital unit and after Karen was born (March 1944) Fred saw service in Guadalcanal, the Phillipines and then spent almost 6 months in the occupation of Japan.

Karen was 2½ years old before Fred came home to stay. Karen was always "mother's girl". Linda came in March 1948 and Fred Allen was born in July 1965.

They always lived in Larned, Kansas except for about a year in Macksville. They found driving the extra distance to work was too expensive. Fred worked first at a filling station, then he worked for Marlett Mobile Homes in Great Bend for over 10 years.

Dorothy worked too. She tried a baby sitting job, but children crying really upset her, so she chose other work, especially after the children were in school, mostly as a clerk in some stores. She worked at Wards and also a grocery store.

Dorothy was never the healthy one, as I remember, she seemed, at least, to have more sickness than I. But, when I graduated from high school, Dorothy was starting the 7th grade, so those years we were not together.

Dorothy passed away very young - 45 - from major surgery. She'd had lots of problems, and had a hysterectomy. She never came home.

Fred was 56 and had had 3 blood clots on the brain - so did not recover, but had been in failing health for at least 6 months.

Linda who was 24 or 25 when Fred died has been both mother and sister to Fred Allen, and he lives with her and her husband Larry Homolka and Lora, at Ellsworth, Kansas.

Born: 17 Nov. 1958, Iola, Kansas

The following are two newspaper articles from Iola, Kansas concerning Greta Reeder:

Dec. 23, 1975: "Miss Reeder, a senior at Iola High School is the only girl enrolled this semester in the vo-ag class. Her project for the semester has been a livestock feeder, made of pipe and barrels.

Miss Reeder thought of the idea, after helping her father and brothers feed their herd of Black Angus cattle. Miss Reeder finished the livestock feeder last week, leaving one problem unsolved.... how to get the feeder out of the shop and home. It's her dad's feeder now, and "I guess that's part of the bargain," she said."

Iola High School senior Greta Reeder was awarded third place in the Agriculture Feature Story contest sponsored by the Farm Talk Newspaper.

Miss Reeder wrote on "The Horse" and represented Iola at the Southeast District public speaking school held in Fredonia.

The award was presented to Miss Reeder at the annual FFA banquet in Columbus on April 24.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Reeder, also attended the banquet.

VIII. Beulah Lane TAYLOR
Born: 11 Dec. 1906, Almon, Camden Co., Missouri
Unmarried

Beulah Lane TAYLOR attended elementary and high school in Rozel, Kansas and graduated from high school there. In 1926 and 1927 she attended Salt City Business College in Hutchinson, Kansas.

Beulah writes: "We went into Iowa, Missouri (from home base, Kansas), Oklahoma, Texas, Colorado, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, and New Mexico, preaching and singing." She entered the Holmes Theological Seminary in Greenville, South Carolina in 1944, and studied under the late Dr. Paul Franklin Beacham.

"After graduating from the seminary in 1947 we again entered the field. Then in 1954 we returned to the Seminary where we taught for approximately 23 years, until failing health forced us into retirement.

Our lives have been checkered with gladness and sorrow. It goes like the words to a song that I (Beulah) composed:

Chorus: Come wind, come rain,
Come sorrow, come pain;
Come sunshine in between
Come planting, come reaping
Come laughter, come weeping;
Come harvest that fruit may be gleaned."

IX. Eulah Irene TAYLOR
Unmarried

Eulah Irene TAYLOR attended elementary and high school in Rozel, Kansas and graduated from high school there. In 1926 and 1927 she attended Salt City Business College in Hutchinson, Kansas. After graduation from that school she began a church career in 1929 when called into the ministry.

She went to Holmes Theological Seminary at Greenville, South Carolina in 1944 and graduated in 1947. She left for about seven years and did church work around Gunnison, Colorado and returned to Holmes at Greenville in 1954 to teach in the school there from which she retired about 1978.

She and her twin sister, Beulah, belonged to the Pentecostal Holiness Church. At the present time (1980) they are still living at Greenville, South Carolina.

The following is a copy of a tribute given to Beulah and Eulah Taylor by the Holmes Theological Seminary at Greenville, South Carolina.

"As a symbol of our sincere appreciation for your lives and service these six years at Holmes Theological Seminary, we dedicate this 1960 HOLMES ECHO to you: MISS BEULAH AND MISS EULAH TAYLOR.

Your quiet, consistent consecration, unfailing patience and cherry disposition, plus your untiring, faithful labor in behalf of our School, we both admire and appreciate.

Through willingness to serve, Miss Beulah, you have made the world a better place in which to live and blessed many lives.

Your devotion to duty, kindness and understanding of the problems of today's youth, Miss Eulah, bespeaks the will of God as the law of your life.

Though your work often places you in the background, we find that you both are a vital asset to Holmes, and we are grateful for your loyalty in doing your work as a ministry from God. How true in your lives is the Scripture Col. 3:23 "Whatsoever ye do, do it heartily as to the Lord...."

X. Thomas Alva TAYLOR

Born: 21 Sept. 1908, Almon, Camden Co., Missouri
Married: 1 Apr. 1938, Logan, Cache Co., Utah to Edna CARDON, b. 16 Apr. 1915, Logan, Cache Co., Utah, dau. of Louis Samuel CARDON and Rebecca Ann BALLARD

Thomas Alva TAYLOR was born 21 Sept. 1908 at Almon, Camden Co., Missouri, north of Macks Creek. Moved with his family to Henry Co., Missouri at the age of three. He started school at the old George School near Thrush, Missouri.

In 1914 the family moved to Ash Valley, Kansas. In 1915 the family rented a farm near Rozel, Kansas and in 1916 Tom's father bought a dray and delivery service in Rozel. At that time they moved into Rozel.

In 1918 the family moved to Alexander, Kansas and lived there for nearly two years but returned to Rozel in the late fall of 1919.

In 1920 his father and mother were divorced. He finished elementary school at Rozel, Kansas in 1922. At that time Thomas A. TAYLOR was just fourteen years old. Already he was behind in school for his age.

In March of 1923 his brother, Vernon, took him to Coburg, Iowa where their oldest brother, James, and wife Lula, lived. Tom and Vernon worked near Coburg and Macedonia, Iowa for four months, or until July, that year. The two then returned to Rozel, Kansas to work in the wheat harvest there.

The Wheat Harvest

At that time wheat was cut with a horse-drawn header. From the header it was elevated into what was called a header barge. The header barge was also horse drawn.

After all the wheat in the vicinity was cut and stacked, the threshing started. This was before the day of the combine. In late July and during August, the threshing machine came. This machine included the separator and the engine.

The threshing crew consisted of the engineer, the separator tender, a crew of six men to pitch wheat to the conveyor and a man to haul wheat away from the machine to the bin. If the power was a coal and steam operation, there was a water man to haul water to the engine and there was nearly always a boy to carry water for the workmen to drink.

If the wheat had been bound and shocked, instead of headed and stacked, there were usually four bundle wagons to haul the wheat from the field, where it had been shocked, to the separator. This operation called for a little different crew. Instead of the six men mentioned in the previous paragraph as pitchers, there were usually four barge haulers. These barge men drove a team with a barge to the field where two pitchers pitched the bundles into the barge. After the pitchers filled the barge by hand, the driver drove to the separator and pitched the bundles into the separator. The crew usually consisted of 12 to 20 men, and a cook's crew, to operate the cook shack.

High School and College

Thomas A. TAYLOR started high school in Sharon Springs, Wallace Co., Kansas. He went to Fruitland, Idaho in 1928 and finished high school in May 1930. He attended the University of Washington at Seattle, Washington in the fall and winter of 1930-31. He attended McPherson College at McPherson, Kansas in 1931 and 1932, and returned to Idaho in 1932.

He then went to Unity, Oregon and worked at ranch work until 1934. In 1934-35 and 1935-36 he attended the University of Idaho at Moscow, Idaho. He worked for the U.S. Forest Service on summer work from 1934 to 1937 as a fire guard and dispatcher.

In 1936 he attended the Utah State University at Logan, Utah where he studied Forestry and Wildlife.

On Apr. 1, 1938 Thomas Alva TAYLOR and Edna CARDON were married at Logan, Cache Co., Utah.

He graduated in 1939 from Utah State University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Forestry and Wildlife. He then returned to the Whitman National Forest at Baker, Oregon in the summer of 1939, but during that summer he changed employers and went to work for the Oregon Lumber Company at Baker, Oregon as a cruiser and scaler.

In December 1940 he returned to Utah State University and enrolled in January 1941 in the College of Education. He graduated in 1941 with a B.S. degree in Secondary Education. His teaching certificate was in Science: Chemistry, Physics and Biology, with a minor in Physical Education and Coaching.

In the fall of 1941 he began teaching high school at Payette, Idaho. Here he taught sciences and assisted coaching in football, wrestling, boxing and track. In 1943 he went to Woodland, Washington where he taught Chemistry, Physics, Biology and coached football, basketball and baseball. In 1945 he went to Toppenish, Washington where he took over the district's instructional media program.

On Mar. 15, 1942 a son Thomas Ronald TAYLOR was born to Thomas Alva TAYLOR and Edna CARDON at Ontario, Malheur Co., Oregon, and on Apr. 3, 1945 a daughter, Nancy Louis TAYLOR was born to them at Vancouver, Clark Co., Washington.

After five years teaching at Toppenish, Washington, he and his wife purchased the Credit Bureau of Logan, at Logan, Utah. In the fall of 1951 he began teaching at Utah State University and his wife continued to manage the Credit Bureau. He completed work for his Master of Science Degree in Educational Administration in 1955 at Utah State University. He taught in the College of Education at Utah State University for twenty-three years.

He retired from Utah State University in June of 1974 at the age of 65.

EDNA CARDON
(Wife of Thomas A. TAYLOR)

Born: 16 Apr. 1915 at Logan, Cache Co., Utah
Father: Louis Samuel CARDON
Mother: Rebecca Ann BALLARD
Married: 1 Apr. 1938, Logan, Cache Co., Utah to Thomas Alva TAYLOR

Edna CARDON was born and lived in the home at 330 W. 1st N. Logan, Utah until she married. She began school at the Woodruff School in September 1921 at the age of six. She skipped the third grade and completed the sixth grade in 1926. She attended the seventh grade in 1926-27 at the old Brigham Young College building which was recently purchased by the Logan School District. She then attended the eighth and ninth grades at the Junior High School from 1928 to 1929, and the Logan High School from which she graduated in June 1932. She then attended Utah State University from 1932-1936 and graduated with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Secretarial Science in 1936.

During the four years at U.S.U. she worked part time at U.S.U., at W.F. Woolworth Store and at the Capitol Theater as a ticket taker and usher. Her father died in December of 1930.

Following graduation from U.S.U. she worked as Secretary to the Dean of Agriculture at U.S.U. until she left with her husband and moved to Baker, Oregon in June 1939. While in Baker she worked for the U.S. Forest Service and J. C. Penney Company.

In December 1940 she and her husband returned to U.S.U. in Logan, Utah where she was employed by the U.S. Government in the Agricultural Adjustment Administration Office while her husband attended school, and in August 1941 they moved to Payette, Idaho where her husband taught at Payette High School.

While living at Payette, their son, Thomas Ronald TAYLOR, was born at Ontario, Oregon (only across the state line) on 15 Mar. 1942.

She and her husband and their son moved to Woodland, Washington in 1943 where Thomas A. taught at Woodland High School, and in 1945 on Apr. 3, their daughter Nancy Louise TAYLOR was born at Vancouver, Clark Co., Washington. In June of 1946 they moved to Toppenish, Washington to a teaching position there.

From August 1941 until July 1947 Edna did not work out of their home, and was a full time homemaker, but on 1 July 1947 she became employed as Secretary to the Principal of Toppenish High School. This employment lasted until they moved back to Logan, Utah in 1951 when they purchased the Credit Bureau of Logan. She worked at, and managed, the Credit Bureau while her husband taught at U.S.U., but in 1954 they sold the Credit Bureau at which time she returned to Utah State University to complete work for an Elementary Education Teaching Certificate. She began teaching first grade at the Adams School in Logan, Utah in September 1955. In 1960 she transferred to the newly constructed Hillcrest School as head teacher.

In September 1974 she returned to the Adams School from which she retired in June 1977 after having taught first grade for 22 years.

At U.S.U. he worked toward a degree in Elementary Education. He received a Bachelor of Science degree in Elementary Education in June 1965. During his career at U.S.U. he succeeded in R.O.T.C. and upon graduating he earned the rank of 2nd Lieutenant in the United States Army and also an Elementary Teaching Certificate.

He was married to Shawna PURCELL of Layton, Utah on 16 July 1965, and in August of that year he reported to the Aberdeen Proving Grounds at Aberdeen, Maryland to serve with the United States Army.

In Oct. 1965 Tom was transferred to Fort Lee, Virginia. His first child, Matthew Justin, was born 2 Mar. 1966 at the U.S. Army General Hospital at Fort Lee, Virginia.

In April 1966 Tom was sent to Missile Support Center 30th Artillery Brigade (Air Defense) Okinawa as Supply Officer. Shawna and Matthew stayed with Shawna's parents in Layton, Utah. They joined Tom in Okinawa in August 1966. Tom's assignment was with the 30th Brigade at Machinato Service Area. He was promoted to 1st Lieutenant in October 1966.

Tom took command of the 526th Maintenance Company (Heavy Equipment General Support) at Machinato Service Area, Okinawa. There were 286 men, officers and warrant officers under his command at that time in June 1967.

During his free time, he and his wife Shawna, both raced sport cars. Tom also wrote a column for the local magazine there.

In January 1968, Tom was promoted to Captain. Angela Rae was born 24 May 1968 at U. S. Army General Hospital, Camp Kue, Okinawa. In June 1968 Tom and his family returned home and Tom entered school in Aberdeen, Maryland. Shawna and the children lived at Roy, Utah.

August 1968 Tom went to Maintenance Battalion as Ordnance Staff Supply Officer, 69th located at Cam Rahn Bay, South Vietnam. Here he earned a Bronze Star Medal for meritorious service against Hostile Forces.

In August 1969 he was discharged from service and returned to Utah. He taught 6th grade at Mountain View Elementary School, Brigham City, Utah until May 1970. He moved his family to Pekin, Illinois and worked at Caterpillar Tractor Co., at Morton, Illinois in 1970. He then quit Caterpillar and worked at Koscot Interplanetary, a cosmetic firm.

From June 1971 to June 1972 he managed Ponderosa Steak House in Peoria, Illinois, and from June 1972 to Nov. 1972 he worked at Brown's Sporting Goods.

Tom joined the U. S. Marines as Staff Sergeant. They then moved to Paris Island, South Carolina, and the family lived at Laurel Bay, South Carolina. In 1973 he went to Quantico, Virginia for M.S.M.C. Staff N.C.O. Academy. In April 1973 he went to Montford Point Camp Lejeune, S.C. for U.S.M.D. Supply School and in May 1973 he returned to Paris Island to operate Uniform Cash Sale Store for Marine Recruits. He was then assigned to W.E.R.S. 17, 1st Marine Aircraft Wing, Iwakuni, Japan. He taught conversational English to Japanese business people in Hiroshima, Japan on a part time basis.

Tom was sent to Company Support Facility, Camp Sukiran, Okinawa in Sept. 1974 and in Dec. 1974 he returned to Iwakuni, Japan and then rotated back to the United States.

In Jan. 1975 he went to the U.S.M.C. Recruiting School, U.S.M.C. Recruiting Center,San Diego, California, and then was re-assigned to Marine Security Barricks, U.S. Naval Weapons Station, Seal Beach, Calif. as Supply Chief. He worked part time at Flint Lock Gun Shop at Anaheim, California. In October 1975 he was promoted to Gunnery Sergeant at Seal Beach Facility.

Shawna and Tom were divorced in 1975. They were re-married in June 1976 at Layton, Utah and then moved to Westchester, California. In 1977 they bought a home in Ontario, California.

Tom is a life member in the National Rifle Association. In March 1978 Tom received his discharge from the U.S. Marines and worked at several jobs, including campaign assistant for David Drier for Congressional Candidate in November 1978 in the California 35th District.

In July 1979 he began working as Tool Crib Attendant at McDonnell Douglas Aircraft Co., and has been promoted to Senior Personnel Representative for the Company. He wrote their Tool Control Training Manual for 200 hourly and salaried employees.

SHAWNA PURCELL

Shawna PURCELL began school at the age of 5 at Layton Elementary School, and attended there until 3rd grade where she was transferred to E. M. Whitesides School, and then attended Central Davis Jr. High School and Davis High School in Kaysville, graduating in top 1/3 of the class of 1964 (May 24, 1964). She enrolled at Utah State University in Logan, Utah for one year, then stopped to get married.

In 1955 she was a "polio pioneer", being in the select group taking the original vaccine.

She was baptised a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in 1956 in the Layton, Utah Stake by Gerald King.

While in High School she was vice president of the Pep Club and was a member of the Jr. Chorus Acappella, and was in the school operatta "The King and I".

She worked as a car-hop at the Dairy Queen while in high school. After her marriage in 1965 they moved to Maryland, then to Virginia where on 2 Mar. 1966 their son, Matthew, was born. Then she moved to Utah until she was able to join her husband, Tom in Okinawa. Thomas Ronald TAYLOR was serving in the Army during World War II.

Shawna and Matthew arrived in Okinawa on 28 Aug. 1967. On 24 May 1968 Angela was born in Okinawa. Shortly after Angela's birth, Shawna and the children moved back to Utah while Tom served a year in Viet Nam.

In 1970 they moved to Illinois where Shawna found it was necessary to return to the work forces and began working part time selling Beeline Clothing. In 1970 she returned to full time work at a V. W. Auto Sales in the repair service shop as a clerk. She quit and then worked at an Insurance Company as a Secretary-Clerk and finding the personality of her employer was not campatable with hers, she left and began working at a Cadillac Agency as a Secretary until they moved to South Carolina.

After arriving in South Carolina she became ill and did not return to work until July 1973 when she went to work for the County Counsel of Beufort County as a Secretary-Clerk. She worked there until Tom was assigned to go to Japan and she and the children moved back to Utah while he was gone.

After a short period of unemployment in Utah she went back to work as a Secretary-Clerk for Robert Raminsky Inc. in Clinton, Utah and she worked there until she moved to California.

In California in 1976 she began working for V.H. Hahns Auto Accessories in the accounting dept. in Los Angeles. Upon buying a home and moving to Ontario, she went to work for the Affiliated Credit Bureau and worked there for one year. In July 1978 she began working for Arthur Jaffee where she is still employed in his law office.

CHAPTER II

JAMES ARCHER TAYLOR

Born: 28 Feb. 1837, Liberty, Cooper Co., Missouri
Father: William M. TAYLOR, b. 1806, Georgia
Mother: Susan Kavannaugh BRISCOE, b. Oct. 1817, Luray, Page Co., Virginia
Married: 5 Feb. 1857, New Franklin, Howard Co., Missouri to Mary Isabell KEYSER by Thomas N. Gaines of the Reformed Church.
Died: 26 Feb. 1878, Calhoun, Henry Co., Missouri
(Proof: Census of 1870, Henderson County, Hebbersville Precinct, Kentucky, taken in October 1870. James TAYLOR listed his age as 34, occupation farmer, born in Missouri. However, according to a letter from Jennie KEYSER to Beulah TAYLOR, she writes that James TAYLOR was 19 when he married Mary Isabell KEYSER on Feb. 5, 1857 in New Franklin, Howard County, Missouri. Services were performed by Elder Thomas N. Gaines of the Reform Church. But she also states that she does not know when he was born, so the Census date is probably the acceptable date.)

James Archer TAYLOR was the third child of William M. TAYLOR and Susannah (Susan) Kavannaugh BRISCOE. During his early childhood, James worked at farm labor. When he was only 19 years old he was married to Mary Isabell KEYSER. At the time of their marriage, Mary Isabell KEYSER was only 18 years old.

About 1861 James Archer TAYLOR joined the Confederate Army in the Civil War. He served under General Sterling Price as a non-commissioned officer, Scout and Recruiter. He was wounded in action. For the remainder of his life he had poor circulation in his legs. He died at the young age of 41 of pneumonia. He died near Calhoun, Missouri and is buried in the Beattie Cemetery, six miles south of Calhoun, Missouri. He died six months before his last son was born. (From the Hottel Family History, DAR Library, Washington, D.C.)

After the Civil War he went to Kentucky where he worked as an overseer of Tobacco farming, continuing with the agricultural life he had before he entered the war.

This sequence of activities indicate he entered the war after his third son, John Keyser TAYLOR, was born, and before his fourth son, William Archer TAYLOR, was born. After he left the army, and while he was still in Kentucky he and Mary had four more children, William Archer, Sterling Price, Joseph Linn, and Robert Aubrey.

At this time, James Archer TAYLOR and Mary Isabell TAYLOR moved back to Clinton, Henry Co., Missouri where four more children were born: Henry Cake, James and Jennie, twins who died at birth, and Leland Burner.

The Beattie Cemetery where he and Isabell are both buried has long been off limits to burials. It is a dense overgrowth of briars and brambles and the grave sites are obliterated. The cemetery is surrounded by a stone wall, and the wrought iron gate and some of the stones are still there. This is one of many family-type cemeteries to be found in that part of the country.

MARY ISABELL (ISOBEL) KEYSER
(Wife of James Archer TAYLOR)

Born: 29 Nov. 1839, Cooper Co., Missouri
Father: Jacob KEYSER
Mother: Susan Francis BURNER
Married: 5 Feb. 1857 to James Archer TAYLOR, Fayette, Howard Co., Missouri
Died: 15 Mar. 1886, Calhoun, Henry Co., Missouri

(Proof: Howard County Court House records, Fayette, Missouri Missouri Book 3, page 280)

Mary Isabell (Isobel) KEYSER was married when she was just 18 years old. They were married in Fayette, Howard Co., Missouri. She was the daughter of Jacob KEYSER and Susan Francis BURNER.

Just after her third son was born, her husband, James Archer TAYLOR, joined the Confederate Army of the Civil War. She spent nearly four years on their farm at Henderson, Kentucky. They owned several slaves who took care of the farm. Some of the slaves stayed with the TAYLORS after they had been offered their freedom. They were a big help to Isabell after the death of James Archer because the older sons had already left home to make their own way. One slave couple stayed on as long as Isabell lived.

Earl was a steamfitter and Rose was a Nurse. She was one of 8 children, dau. of John Henry STRETZ, a brick building contractor. John was the s. of Frank and Magelyn STRETZ. Rose's mother, "Mittie" Cecilia Edwards was the dau. of O. B. EDWARDS, b.and reared in Boonville, Missouri.

The following is a letter received by the authors from Rose Stretz TAYLOR, dated 21 July 1980.

Dear Tom:

So very nice hearing from you and I am happy about the book of the Taylor family. I hope to have one of them, just let me know how and what to do to get one. Certainly nice of you to do that.

Yes, I do remember your Dad. I was there to his funeral and met the two sisters that were at the funeral. Surely was a very sad affair.

Just now I can hardly see. I have had cataract surgery of my eye and can hardly see the paper I am writing on.

The picture is of Earl and I taken in front of the house we just had built. We both have worked hard together. Earl a steamfitter and I a nurse. We were saving to own our own home, after going to Washington to work in the Bomb plant, saving all of Earl's wages while I furnished all of our expenses and the car. We saved all Earl's wages to build us a home, a nice brick house on beautiful lot in the town of Blue Springs, Missouri, in the town where Earl had been employed at the Ammunition plant, then we took over a drug store for friends who were in Alaska.

We came to Sedalia to visit my sister, Julia, and family. Earl thought he better go back up to Blue Springs or rather to Grain Valley, where the drug store was, to see if everything was going o.k. On his way back, Earl was caught in holiday rush traffic, and was injured so badly that he died 3 days later, which was Dec. 1st, 1952.

Since then I have made my home here at Julia's home, building extra quarters to her home and am doing very well with my sister, Mary, caring for my every need since my eye surgery. We have a nice comfortable place and I hope someday you will find time to visit us.

I am glad you know Betty Hobbs. She is a darling. She nursed me at the time of eye surgery. She and Stella visit us occasionally. I am now nearing my 91 birthday which will be Aug. 30, 1980. I am doing very well and still hoping to see better.

Write again soon and do come if ever you can.

Love, Cousin Rose

Married: 25 Nov. 1897 to Alice Louella HANNUM, b. 31 May 1875 at Concordia, Cloud Co., Kansas, d. 11 May 1918. Her father was Jonathan Finley HANNUM, b. Guernsey Co., Ohio 23 July 1844 and d. 10 Oct. 1913. He served in the Union army, and m. Adelia Shellhamer, b. Cassopolis, Michigan in 1849 and d. 23 July 1931. She had four children.
Died: 18 Feb. 1914, Topeka, Kansas

Charles Lee TAYLOR was a Baptist minister and a farmer. He attended and graduated from William Jewell College at Liberty, Missouri.

He married Blanche ROSS, and they had one child, James Ross TAYLOR. Blanche died at the time of his birth. Charles then married Alice Louella HANNUM. They had two children, a girl and a boy.

Charles Lee TAYLOR preached at Sedalia, Missouri and at Salina, Kansas. He was also a guest speaker at a Baptist Convention in Salt Lake City, Utah.

The following are obituaries taken from the Concordia Newspaper at the time of Charles Lee's death:

"Rev. Taylor Dead. Charles L. Taylor, who was born in Kentucky April 14, 1859, died at Topeka, this morning, Wednesday Feb. 18, 1914. While yet a young man he moved to Missouri with his parents and eight brothers. His school career closed with his graduation from William Jewell College, at Liberty, Mo. He was ordained a minister of the Baptist church, June 23, 1892, and for twenty years thereafter held successful pastorates in Missouri and Kansas. He was married to Miss Blanche Ross, a sister of the present State Superintendent of Public Instruction of Kansas, at McLouth, Kansas, April 10, 1895. He came to Concordia as pastor of the First Baptist church in 1896, and in the fall of that year his wife died, leaving an infant son ten days old. About the year 1898 he was again married in this city to Miss Alice Hannum and to this union two children were born, John, age seven and Adelia, aged three years. He was taken very ill about a year ago with a mental nervousness that made it necessary to take him to the State Hospital at Topeka last May, where he grew gradually worse until the end came this morning. In the last letter he was able to write home, he penned these words: "Who seeks for Heaven alone to save his soul, may keep the path but will not reach the goal. While he who walks in Love may wander far, yet God will bring him where the blessings are."

He was a member of the Modern Woodmen of America. His son, Ross, will accompany the remains from Topeka to this city."

The following obituary was published in another local paper:

"C. L. Taylor Dead. Was receiving treatment at the State Hospital. Ordained a Baptist Minister in 1892 - as a Bright Man, Hard Worker - Kind Father and Husband. The news of the death of Chas. L. Taylor, at the State Hospital in Topeka, this morning, found friends and relatives here unprepared, although it was known that Mr. Taylor was failing from day to day. He has never improved since going to the State Hospital, and death came as a relief from his sufferings.

The funeral will be held from the home of his widow, at 325 West Sixth Street, on Friday morning at 10 o'clock and burial will be in Pleasant Hill cemetery. The body will arrive from Topeka tomorrow over the Santa Fe.

Mr. Taylor was born in Kentucky, April 14, 1859, and when a young man went to Missouri where he graduated from the William Jewell college. He was ordained as a minister in the Baptist church on June 23, 1892, and came to Concordia as minister of the Baptist church here in 1896. Mr. Taylor was married to Miss Blanche Ross on April 10, 1895, and she died soon after they moved to Concordia. Mr. Taylor was a brilliant man in the pulpit and in addition to a scholarly mind, he possessed an eloquence of speech which made his sermons a drawing card.

In 1898 he was married to Miss Alice Hannum, youngest daughter of the late J. F. Hannum, and to this union were born two children, one boy and one girl, who are left with the mother to mourn the death of a kind and loving father. Mr. Taylor left the ministry several years ago and returned to Concordia and farmed one of the Hannum farms, south of town. He worked hard from morning to night and this was probably the cause of his breakdown last year. In his home life Mr. Taylor found his greatest happiness and his widow and children have the memory of many happy days together which neither time nor death can dim."

The following is an obituary published at Concordia at the death of Alice Hannum Taylor.

"Alice L. Taylor. Alice Hannum Taylor was born in Cloud County, May 31, 1875 and died Saturday evening, May 11, 1918 at her home on West Sixth Street at the age of forty three years. She was a graduate of the Concordia High School and also of the Kansas State Normal. She was married to Chas. L. Taylor in 1897, who died in February 1914. Two children, John Charles, age 11, and Adelia, age 8, who survive their mother, were born to Mr. and Mrs. Taylor. Mrs. Taylor is survived by her mother, Mrs. Adelia Hannum, two sisters, Mrs. F. W. Daugherty, of Hubbell, Nebraska and Mrs. George Rigby of this city, and one brother, Frank Hannum. The funeral was held this afternoon at the house on West Sixth, with Rev. Smith of the Presbyterian church officiating. Mrs. Taylor was a patient and cheerful sufferer during her long illness, and was not able to thank each and everyone of her friends who remembered her during her illness, so she wrote this card of thanks to them:

So many of my dear friends have been so kind and have lavished so many flowers on me that I could not thank them all personally, so I take this way of thanking them. The beautiful words, the kind acts, the fragrant masses of flowers I will take with me into eternity.

The following is a letter from James Ross TAYLOR to his half-sister Adelia Baab GREENE:

"Dear Sister Adelia. It was a delight and surprise to hear from you and of your brother, John, after over fifty years. I do not know how we lost contact. We know nothing of my father's people, and I never saw him but twice - once in Eldorado, Kansas when I was five and had pneumonia, and the time I visited you on the farm in Concordia. I remember you as a pretty little girl with deep brown eyes.

I went to K.U. and the war came and Katherine and I got married (3-13-17). After four major battles, home safely and Katherine helped me to finish my A. B. degree at K.U. To Federal Reserve Bank at Kansas City as Director of Business Research, School of Law (four years at night school).

We came to California in 1937 and became engaged in wholesale florist business, retiring in 1961. We play a little bridge and help Katherine direct two bridge clubs, Deuville Country Club and Enemo Women's Club.

Katherine was a fine concert pianist and played the Chautauqua Circuit while I was overseas.

Very sincerely,

Ross and Katherine"

Betty Jo and Bill live on a 165 acre farm, 35 miles southeast of Kansas City and they spend most of their time hauling milk. Betty said: "Since we have been married we haven't missed a day of hauling into Kansas City, - that includes Christmas Day and all Sundays and holidays - I think we're even more consistent than the postman, in fact I think we are "work-a-holics."

Bill also raises polled herefords for a hobby, as he loves fooling with the cattle. Betty Jo keeps books for the hauling operation, and part time works as an Interior Decorator.

The trucks Bill Hobbs hauls milk in today are a far cry from the vehicle he used in 1933 to make his milk runs. Back then, he took the seats out of his Ford Model A and hauled milk for neighboring dairymen to the highway. There he'd meet a truck from the Sealtest Dairy in Kansas City. Hobbs made this trip twice daily since Model A Fords didn't come with refrigeration units.

In 1934, Hobbs bought a truck to haul the milk. But milk wasn't the only thing he hauled in his new truck. When he met the Sealtest truck in the morning, he'd leave the empty cans on the highway, put down the folding seats he'd installed in the truck bed, and pick up a load of school children and take them to school. "Only time I had a back haul," he said.

Milk hauling remained a "twice a day" occupation until 1948, when milk coolers were installed on dairy farms. This change ended a 10 year period of hauling directly to Kansas City. . .two trips a day.

Hobbs started hauling his route in 1958 and now operates three farm pickup trucks and pumps over into a trailer at his transfer station on his farm, 35 miles southeast of Kansas City.

Looking back over the years, Hobbs estimates he has hauled over a billion pounds of milk and he adds, "That's alot of squirts!"

Mid-America salutes Bill Hobbs for his many years of faithful service hauling milk for dairymen. Without haulers like Hobbs, the task of producing and marketing milk certainly would be more difficult. Our sincere thanks to all haulers for a job well done.

VI. Joseph Linn TAYLOR
Born: 12 Aug. 1871, Henderson, Henderson Co., Kentucky
Died: 26 Sept. 1875

VII. Robert Aubrey TAYLOR
Born: 15 Dec. 1873, Henderson, Henderson Co., Kentucky
Married: 29 May 1902, West Butte, Montana, by Henry Cake TAYLOR, (Aubrey's brother) a licensed, ordained Baptist Minister, to Beulah Belle JENNINGS, b. 15 Feb. 1879, Burkesville, Kentucky, d. 27 Oct. 1977, Elma, Washington
Died: 17 Dec. 1908, Troy, Montana, Buried Troy, Montana

Robert Aubrey TAYLOR was born in Henderson, Henderson Co., Kentucky. He moved to Clinton, Henry Co., Missouri about 1874 with his family. Since his father died when Aubrey was about 5 years old (or a little less), Aubrey probably did not attend school any further than the sixth or seventh grade. As is shown at other places in this history, Robert Aubrey's mother probably raised him until she died on 15 Mar. 1886. At that time Aubrey was about 13 years old.

Like William Archer TAYLOR, his brother, there is no record of who raised Robert Aubrey. It is thought that he was raised by his two aunts, Jennie and Nannie KEYSER, sisters of his mother. It is certain that Aubrey was on his own at a very young age, and that he worked at farm labor and other labor jobs until he was married at the age of 28 years.

Sometime previous to his 28th birthday, he had migrated to western Montana where he married Beulah Belle JENNINGS, 29 May 1902 at West Butte, Montana. They were married by his brother, Henry Cake TAYLOR, an ordained Baptist minister.

He owned or homesteaded a farm at Troy, Montana. However, his children were born at West Butte, Shelby, Kalispell and Troy, Montana.

He was killed by his youngest brother, Leland Burner TAYLOR, in a hunting accident when mistaken for a deer and shot. After Robert Aubrey was killed, 17 Dec. 1908, Beulah TAYLOR moved to Elma, Washington. Here she and her children made their home with Henry TAYLOR, a brother of Aubrey's, just younger than Aubrey. Henry was a bachelor, and he remained a bachelor throughout his life.

My dear Beulah,

You have decided that I am a poor correspondent, I am sure, and I am almost persuaded that you are right to think so .. but circumstances which I might have controlled .. but did not .. have caused my delay in answering your good letter received a long time ago.

I may have told you about the nice little garden that I put in all by myself and how proud I was that I succeeded so well.. and just as the corn was large enough for roasting ears and just as I was in the midst of house cleaning .. had some furniture in the middle of the floor and I down on all four mopping up, when a neighbor called to me that a cow was in my garden eating my corn.

I had to walk half a mile to get the man who owned the cow to come and fix the fence to keep them out. There were three or four of them standing ready to jump in and devour my little garden. I felt sometime as if my heart would break. After we got the fence fixed I went on with my house cleaning .. for I had heard the Gander relatives were coming to make a visit and I thought it would never do for them to come and find the house in such a messy plight (and right there is where I made my mistake). If I had let the house go for the day, it would have been much better for me. As it was the relatives did not come and so the summer has passed and I was so broken down that I had to stop nearly everything. I could have controlled it had I used proper judgment.

Nannie has been home very little this summer .. so the principle part of the work has rested on my shoulders. The girls have been in school a month now when the weather is good they go home every Friday evening and come back on Sunday. (Evelyn Pearson says that she thinks the girls referred to are Virginia Newton and Fannie Browning Keyser). Before I forget I wanted to send Henry Taylor word, he must write shorter letters to the ladies or else put enough postage on to carry them through. Some of them may not be pleased to get letters out of the post office.

James Taylor and Mary Isabell Keyser were married Feb. 5, 1857 in New Franklin, Howard Co., Missouri by Elder Thomas Gaines of the Reform Church. Sister Mary's birthday is Nov. 25 and she was 17 years old in Nov. and married the next Feb., and Brother James was 19 years old. I don't know when his birthday was .. neither the month or the year. Sister Mary was about 46 when she died. Leland was born Aug. 26, 1878 and his father died Feb. 1878 .. don't know what day. So you see that Leland was born about six months after his father died. Joseph Linn Taylor was born Aug. 12, 1871 in Henderson Co. and we think that he was about four or five when he died .. and not more than six years old. Robert Aubrey was born Monday, Dec. 15, 1873 in Henderson Co., Kentucky. Henry Cake Taylor was born 26 May 1875 about six miles east of Clinton, Henry Co., Missouri. James and Jennie, twin children of James and Mary Taylor were born July 1877 about six miles west of Calhoun, Henry Co., Missouri and lived only a few days. Leland Burner was the last.

I have intended for quite a while to write some of the items I have picked up while I was in Virginia regarding the 'History of the Keyser Family'. The book was written in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, August 1888 by three Keyser brothers, Charles S. Keyser, Attorney at Law, Peter Dirk Keyser, M. D., and Romaine Keyser, Germantown, Pennsylvania .. so the Taylor boys may know something of their ancestry on their Mother's side.

When William Penn visited Holland and Germany promulgating his doctrine of religious freedom, thought to be in antogonism to the forms of the established churches, he invited all to join him in his settlement in the new country.

Accepting his ideas, Francis Danut Pastorious of Frankfurt, Germany organized a company for taking up land and forming a settlement of Germantown, now part of the city of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The Mennonites of Holland and the lower Rhine of Germany joined with him, and among those who came was Dirk Keyser of Amsterdam. He was a manufacturer and dealer of all kinds of silk goods, and a man of promise, but desiring to workship God in all freedom, he came with his son Peter Dirik Keyser in 1688.

There are many descendants of the family throughout the country and Mexico. In commemoration of the arrival here a big centennial reunion of these descendants will be held in Germantown, formerly second ward, Philadelphia in the old Mennonite Church on or near the original ground of said Dirik Keyser, on the 10th day of October at 10 a.m. being according to the present mode of chronilogical reckoning, the 200th anniversary of the day on which he came to this place. It will be a Social Family gathering on the grounds where our ancestor is buried, and where he built his domicile in the wilderness of the New World. Sketches of the family history will be read; the old family Bible and such relics as can be obtained will be exhibited. A cordial invitation is extended to all descendants of the family to be present and bring everything pertaining that they have in their possession that will throw light on the history of the family, or indicate its progress. Can you be present on the occasion with any connection of the family? An early answer will greatly oblige the undersigned, Charles S. Keyser, Peter Direk Keyser, and Romain Keyser.

I have always thought that I would copy this in ink to send to the Taylor boys .. but they can copy it themselves. (Evelyn Pearson says it was written on rough scratch paper and she had a hard time deciphering it after all of these years).

Keanard Keyser was a Mass Priest in Bavaria in the early part of the sixteenth century; a man of learning or what passed as such in the Monisteries of those days to which the church "The Church" consignes such lives .. he had already perished while Meno Simons was still remaining in their dark shadows. He early recognized the tendencies and became himself a part of the movement of that age.

He accepted the writings of Swingle and Luther, and went to Wittenburg and there conversed with the Doctors, partook with them of the Lord's Supper, joined himself to the separated cross bearing church of the Ana Baptists in 1525 he returned to Bavaria, spreading the work of the Gospel with great zeal and power. The end came, however as it does to all of us in one form or another, in whom the higher truth of the advancing age has it's first manifestations. He denied the power, he refused the obedience to the church of which he was a priest duly accredited, he put aside mystery and obscurity of the Latin tongue, and went amongst the people telling them in their own tongue .. the language of the country, what they should do to be saved. The power of the Church was yet great, and it answered such leadership with beatings and drownings and burning and quartering, strangling, and flaying .. modes of arguments suitable to the ignorant and evil intentions of the masters of that age, but he did not therefore cease from his labors and so surely came to his end. He was taken to Saharding in Bavaria by the Bishop of Passau and by other Priests and Capulators of the Church and condemed to be burned alive. On his trial he repeatedly refused to speak the language of the tyranny of the time .. the Roman language; he would answer them only in the German tongue, the language, the peoples tongue.

So you see that Keanard Keyser was a martyr. This is the first time that I have copied this .. hope the boys will prize it as I do. I would be glad if they would copy it and send it to Charlie. I would have done this time but happen to run out of paper and ink.

The first Mother Keyser we have history of, was from Bavaria, somewhere near the Rhine in Germany. You will see that we are of German descent and I am proud of my lineage for they are a grand people. I read this history when I was in Virginia and found it very interesting indeed. The book cost $5. I said there were 1000 relatives at the reunion and they had a great meeting. How I would have liked to have been there.

Now the boys have a history from a way back. I like to know what I spring from. I have heard my father say, "There is as much in blood of people as blood in stock". And I verily believe it. There are some very interesting items that I could write .. but have this too lengthy all ready and I am sure you are all tired and want to be excused .. so with a great deal of love for all of you in the enjoyment of good health, and also hoping to hear from you again soon, I will bring this scribble to a close. We have been making chilisauce and canning tomatoes. Kisses to the little ones. You must not forget me, if you do come to your father's to spend the winter.

Lovingly your old aunty,
Jennie Keyser

The following is a copy of a letter written by Charles Lee TAYLOR to Beulah TAYLOR at the death of her husband, Aubrey TAYLOR, who was a brother of Charles.

Concordia, Jan. 3, 1909

Mrs. Beulah Taylor
Troy, Montana

Dear Sister:

Your sad letter of the 19th telling of Aubrey's death did not reach us until the 29th of Dec.

It seems strange that such things must happen. We are unable to tell why it is so, but in the wisdom of God it is so ordained.

While it darkens life and saddens the heart, yet it lifts the mind from the perishable things of earth to the kingdom of God and things Eternal. No doubt in my mind but what you and your children will have a greater interest in heaven than ever before.

Life at best is but a vapor, brings nothing but sorrow and disappointment which makes it seem long. But God would have us place our affections on Eternal things which alone can give anchor to the soul in such times as these.

Beulah you have always been a courageous woman, brave to meet the wilds of the west, standing firm and unwavering in the midst of it all. I feel assured that even though now your darkest days are upon you, that you will still be brave and win out in the end.

Your family duties are doubled, your bread-earner is gone. Your home is dark. Yet God cares for the widows and orphans, and will provide for you and yours as he has done for thousands, ye, thousands of thousands before you. Look up and be brave and wait and see the salvation of God.

If there is anything that we can do in our feeble way to lighten your burden, or to make life more pleasant, do not hesitate to call upon us.

Write us soon and give us your plans as for the future. And what you have to do with. Keep us posted as we are more than anxious for your best interest. Where are the boys and what are they doing?

Is it so you can stay together and help each other? I would advise as far as possible to carry out the plans that you and Aubrey had already laid. There is no use trying to run from sorrow of this kind. We must only make the best of it. Distance does not lessen the pain.

Did you prove up on your claims and get a deed for it? I am only asking these questions that I may know how you are situated.

Kiss all the babies for me. This is the first I knew I had a names sake in the family. Three of them are old enough to miss their father, poor little tots.

Love to all,
C. L. Taylor"

Children of Robert A. TAYLOR and Beulah B. JENNINGS, 4, listed below:

A. Lula Evelyn TAYLOR
Born: 25 Feb. 1903, West Butte, Montana
Married: 23 June 1925, Aberdeen, Washington to Hugh Leath PEARSON, b. 14 Jan. 1892, married by Rev. R. B. Shorin.

Sometime after Evelyn and "Lee" were married, Lee bought a small grocery store in Aberdeen, Washington. They owned and operated this store until Leath went to work for the City of Aberdeen, operating a draw bridge over the Willapa River. This job Leath "Lee" kept until he retired. He died 27 July 1964 at Aberdeen, Washington. Evelyn operated the store for some time after Lee went to work on the draw bridge.

After Lee died, Evelyn then went to work for the Aberdeen City Schools as a Librarian. This position she kept until she retired. She now lives at the Marine View retirement home in Seattle, Washington (1980).

Hugh Leath PEARSON was the son of Judge John Colvert PEARSON and Amanda Katherine SIDDENS. Lee was the middle child of fifteen children.

Evelyn Taylor PEARSON wrote: "Elma was a logging town when we came in 1909, but now the approximately 200 people are either retired or working in Aberdeen or Olympia, living conservatively and quietly, enjoying the good consolidated school and several churches that serve them.

My husband's family made up one of the first six families in Aberdeen, his father helped plat the town and was it's first judge. One of his brothers was first doctor, another was first druggist and Mother Pearson was clerk for many years for the new school board -- 4th and 5th generation PEARSON children still attend those schools, but only 4 of the original 15 children born to the Pearson's still live. I never knew the father, but dearly loved my mother-in-law, a beautiful lady.

Patt (Evelyn's daughter) wants the story of how they crossed the country by train, steam ship, stage coach, spring wagon, and finally by row boat to reach Aberdeen. Mother Pearson came alone with 3 children, the youngest not yet 3 months to join her husband in a new land. That must have been love. She came from Indiana to San Francisco, up coast to Portland on "Gypsie Queen" ship, across Columbia in smaller boat to catch stage to Olympia, then spring wagon to Montesano, 10 miles away. The row boat served from there in May 1883".

NOTE: That letter was written several years ago and in 1980 the population of Elma had risen to around 3000.

Geraldine Bernice Lemna FENNER:

"Mary and Leo LEMNA, married 1 Jan. 1926 and lived in Aberdeen, Washington area for 10 years; Forks, Washington, 2 years; and Tacoma, Washington the rest of the time until their deaths.

We all stood along the only main street in Forks in 1937-38 and watched President Roosevelt go by in his big touring car.

Mom traded our outgrown clothes with the Indians for their baskets. Mary Jane's (her sister) son, Steve, has a big Indian collection started from these. The Indian squaws would come each fall to pick the apple crop from our trees, claiming it was still their land. Mom didn't argue with them. I can remember hiding behind lace curtains and wishing they would go away.

We girls couldn't have had more wonderful parents. We were very fortunate and miss them so much."

Children of Mary V. TAYLOR and Leo D. LEMNA, 3, listed below:

1. Mary Jane LEMNA
   Born: 26 Feb. 1928, Aberdeen, Washington

Married: 12 July 1953, at parent's home in Tacoma, Washington to Samuel Clyde FENNER, s. of Samuel Clyde FENNER and Edna Mae FARTHING

The following information was given to us by Geraldine Lemna FENNER about her family:

"I was a telephone operator when I met Sam. After we were married in 1953, Sam had to go over seas for nine months. He was a 1st Class Quartermaster in the Navy and the Korean War was just over. I moved to Tacoma to wait for him.

We spent the next six years in the Seattle area. I was busy having babies and Sam was working and going through Seattle Pacific College.

In 1964 we moved to the Des Moines Area (Washington) and have been in this same house for 14 years. Sam has worked at the Boeing Company for 25 years. I was a homemaker all those years, but had many day care children, until the past few years. I now spend a great deal of my time working for Children's Orthopedic Hospital through the guilds.

As a family we have enjoyed camping, fishing, clamming, etc. Now that the children are grown, Sam and I love to travel. We go to little towns and hunt out their museums and cemetaries. Love to go to small fairs around the area.

Sam is a sports nut. Plays and watches. I sew, knit, quilt, etc. All of Sam's family is in Elizabethtown, Tennessee and we fly back there as often as we are able. All of the family play an instrument and enjoy music."

C. Henry Charles TAYLOR
Born: 28 July 1906, Kalispel, Montana
Married: 7 July 1934 to Maxine SCOTT, b. May 1914, Divorced
Married: 23 Aug. 1958, Elma, Washington to Marjorie Bolington MARION, b. 26 June 1900. She had a daughter and grandchildren. Marjorie's parents: JohnBOLINGTON and Jennie D. PRICKETT

Henry "Hank" was graduated from Elma High School, Elma, Washington in 1924, and from the Seattle Art Institute in 1930. During his life he was an accomplished artist. Although he did some pencil sketch and a great deal of water paint, his most outstanding paintings were done in oil. He was partial to western scenes. Some of his best pictures sold for several thousand dollars. During the 1940's he did the annual publication bulletin for Ford Motor Company for one year.

Although it was a struggle for him to get through the early 1930's and 1940's, it was very rewarding for him, satisfactorily and financially in his later years. He lived practically all of his life in Elma, Washington, but spent much of his time at Troy, Montana.

He was in Display and Advertising in General Merchandising outlets in Washington, Oregon, California and Nevada. He was Display Director for Boeing Airplant Company, Seattle, Washington from 1944-1947. He has done historic illustrations in California and Montana since 1947.

The following is a copy of a newspaper report published at Aberdeen, Washington, June 8, 1980 concerning Henry C. TAYLOR:

"A SPECIAL ART evening to honor a very special artist, HANK TAYLOR, is set for 7:30 p.m. Saturday at the Montesano gallery which the Grays Harbor Art League has renamed in honor of the renowned Western artist who makes his home in Elma. Hank, in addition to turning out scores of award-winning paintings of Indians and life in the Old West, has been a mentor and friend to dozens of local artists - who chose this way to honor him. Many of his paintings have been loaned by their owners for this special display ..."

Hank Taylor of Elma, known throughout the region for his Old West paintings produced in the past 50 years, will be honored at a reception Saturday at the former Gallery One in Montesano—which has just been retitled the Hank Taylor Gallery in his honor. Hosts for the evening reception are members of the Grays Harbor Art League, gallery sponsors.

Married: 23 Apr. 1966, Elma, Washington to Charity Cooksey VILLINES, Elma, Washington, dau. of Theo and Lina COOKSEY

Robert Jennings TAYLOR, at a rather young age started working in a mortuary in Elma, Washington. He showed promise as a future mortician. He started funeral work in 1926, at Elma, Washington, and started his own mortuary in Forks, Washington in 1932. In 1941 he sold his business at the Forks and bought a Mortuary in Auburn, Washington. He served twice as President of King County (Seattle Area) Funeral Directors.

He also owned a rather large motel in Auburn which he operated for several years in Auburn before he sold it. Later both Robert and June went to work for Boeing Aircraft in Seattle. They worked for Boeing until June died and Robert retired.

Since his marriage to Charity, they have spent part of the time in California and Arizona, but have returned to Olympia, Washington now to make their home.

IX. Henry Cake TAYLOR
Born: 26 May 1875, Clinton, Henry Co., Missouri
Died: 20 Oct. 1944, Elma, Washington

Henry C. TAYLOR was raised mostly by his two spinster aunts, Jennie and Nannie KEYSER. He attended William Jewel College and at one time held the Missouri State College record for the one mile run.

He went to Elma, Washington to work in the logging camps. After his brother, Aubrey, was killed in 1908, Henry sent for his brother's widow, Beulah Belle Jennings TAYLOR and her four children to come to Elma and make their home with him.

Beulah took her children and went to Elma. Here she kept house for Henry. He continued to work for the logging company in some capacity until he died 20 Oct. 1944.

The author of this book, Thomas A. TAYLOR, visited Henry and Beulah in the winter of 1930-31 while he was attending the University of Washington at Seattle. Thomas A. was teaching school at Woodland, Washington in October 1944 and attended the funeral of Henry Cake TAYLOR at Elma, Washington 20 Oct. 1944. He is buried in the cemetery at Elma, Washington.

He was never married. He was a faithful member of the Baptist Church at Elma, Washington

X and XI. James TAYLOR and Jennie TAYLOR
Born: July 1877. They were twins and died at birth.

XII. Leland Burner TAYLOR
Born: 26 Aug. 1878, Clinton, Henry Co., Missouri
Married: 14 May 1911 to Mary Atlanta McMURTREY, b. 13 July 1885
Died: 1955, Troy, Montana. Buried on north shore of Milnor Lake, Lincoln Co., Montana, south of Troy, Montana

Leland Burner TAYLOR was born in Clinton, Henry Co., Missouri about six months after his father died. Prior to his birth, there had been twins born July 1877 to his parents. There was a boy, James and a girl, Jenny, and both died at birth.

His mother still had two children at home, William and Aubrey. Her son, Henry Cake, had already gone to live with their two spinster aunts and Leland Burner also was taken to be raised by these spinster aunts. They lived at Fayette, Howard Co., Missouri.

As Henry and Leland became old enough, they attended elementary school at Fayette. Both of these boys attended William Jewel College. Leland studied toward an elementary teaching certificate and graduated. He taught school for a short time at a one room country school in Missouri. He then went to Montana where he taught school for many years, retiring in 1948.

He married Mary McMURTREY at Missoula, Montana on 14 May 1911. She was the daughter of John Erasmus McMURTREY and Elizabeth Ann BYRD. Mary is also a retired country school teacher, having retired in 1955.

Leland homesteaded a quarter section of land near Troy, Montana. Here he and Mary lived until about 1933.

After Leland died, Mary M. TAYLOR married Kyle JONES, in 1957 at Missoula, Montana. He also was a teacher and a graduate of Montana State College, Bozeman, (name later changed to Montana State University.) He died.

Mary then married George D. CARLSON in Missoula in 1973. He died about March 1976.

When I (Thomas A. TAYLOR) was attending the University of Idaho at Moscow, Idaho, I met Ben TAYLOR. He is the second son of Leland Burner TAYLOR and Mary McMURTREY. Ben was on the University of Montana track team. Montana University and Idaho University held a dual meet and Ben came to Moscow. I only met him for a few minutes.

Later, when I was at Utah State University at Logan, Utah, I, along with four other forestry students at Utah State attended a Foresters Conclave at the University of Montana. At one of the dances during that trip I met Hallie, Ben's sister who was enrolled at the University of Montana. Again this was only for a few minutes.

Over forty years later we resumed our contact with Ben and other members of Leland's family via correspondence, and we received a letter in June 1980 from Ben, who at that time was a retired Colonel in the Air Force, living in Albuquerque, New Mexico, inviting us to a Leland TAYLOR family reunion, to be held at Troy, Montana July 2, 1980. We decided to go.

We knew Leland had passed away in 1955 and we knew that Harold had been missing in action since World War II in 1945. The others we knew little about.

Tombstone near Troy, Montana

We arrived in Troy on July 1, and set about to find some of the family. After considerable searching we located the old homestead and took some pictures but it was the next morning before we located any of the family.

That day we met Tom Corn and Gladys TAYLOR from Ekalaka, Montana; Dorothy Taylor ALBERTSON was also there. Her husband had not come with her from Chico, California because of illness. That was about 9 a.m. About 10:30 a.m. Ben and Martha TAYLOR arrived from Albuquerque, New Mexico, and very soon after that Winton and Hallie Weydemeyer came from Fortine, Montana.

It was lunch time and everybody went in to Troy. Tom and Ben had gone to pick up Aunt Mary (95 years old) and everyone got to the elementary school in Troy at about the same time. So we met Milton and Natalie MANICKE and Atlanta and Forrest MANICKE. Aunt Mary was there and at 95 years, I must say she was beautiful.

We talked to them (as many as we could) until about 2:00 p.m. at which time we departed for Spokane, Washington.

On Friday, the 4th of July we went to Olympia, Washington and picked up Robert "Bob" and Charity TAYLOR, and took them to Elma, Washington to the home of Henry "Hank" and Marjorie TAYLOR. Hank and Bob are Aubrey TAYLOR's sons. We visited until about 4:30 p.m. and drove back to Olympia. We bid them farewell and went to Kelso, Washington for the night.

On the morning of July 5, 1980 we went into Portland, Oregon. Here we went to the home of Joseph E. and Helen KEYSER. Joe is a grandson of Joseph Linn KEYSER who was a brother of Mary Isabell KEYSER (my grandmother). Joe has possession of the old Jacob KEYSER Bible. I held that Bible and read the writing of my Great Grandfather Jacob KEYSER and Great Grandmother Susan Francis BURNER. We also saw and handled a beautiful counterpane that was carded, spun, dyed and woven by Susan Francis BURNER before her marriage to Jacob KEYSER.

We left Portland about 5:00 p.m. and drove to the Dalles, Oregon. On the sixth we drove to Nampa, Idaho and returned to Logan on July 7, 1980 after 2400 miles, 18 relatives, 12 good friends and a look at Mt. St. Helens Volcano and ash.

Children of Leland B. TAYLOR and Mary McMURTREY, 7, listed below:

A. Tom Corn TAYLOR
Born: 9 Mar. 1912, Dunkirk, Montana
Married: 3 July 1936, Mott, North Dakota to Gladys WILLKOM, dau. of John WILLKOM and Alice SWEANY.

"I, Tom C. TAYLOR, was born 9 Mar. 1912 in a Great Northern section foreman's home in Dunkirk, Montana, where my mother was attended by a physician whom it later was found was unlicensed to practice in Montana at the time. He consequently neglected to register my birth, and it was not until about 30 years later that my mother was able to obtain a birth certificate. Also born to my parents were six younger brothers and sisters, all of whom have been persons of integrity and industry and have achieved some success in life.

The university granted me a bachelor's degree in Journalism in 1934. An acquaintance invited me to participate in a partnership in publishing a weekly newspaper "The Columbia Falls Review" the summer I was graduated. This lasted a year and a half after which time I was employed on newspapers in Spokane, Washington, Havre, Montana and Mott, North Dakota. While in North Dakota in 1936, Gladys Willkom, a native of the place, became Mrs. Tom Taylor, and we left soon after to return to Montana. For 10 years the Whitefish, Montana Pilot, a daily and later a bi-weekly was my employer. In 1946 we purchased the Ekalaka Eagle, and have raised two children. We have been active in all phases of community affairs.

Offices held include Charter presidency of Ekalaka Lions Club, a term as president of the Ekalaka Volunteer Fire Department, Carter County Chamber of Commerce, Carter County Geological Society, Past Master Ekalaka Lodge 120 A.F. & A.M., Treasurer, Church of Christ Congregational, church deacon and church trustee. I have also held offices for many years in the Montana Press Association, including a term as president in 1975-76, and still serve on the Hall of Fame Committee of the organization."

3. Bryson TAYLOR
Born: 29 Jan. 1941, Whitefish, Montana
Married: Bonnie REUM, dau. of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton REUM of St. Ignatius, Montana

Bryson was an athlete of local note during his high school years, also playing Legion baseball for the neighboring city of Miles City. During one season he pitched for the Miles City Junior Legion against the famed Dave McNally, later of the Baltimore Orioles, losing a 3-2 pitching duel. Later he pitched for the State University freshmen, taking a 1-0 victory against the Missoula Timberjacks and Jim Kaat, still a big league player.

He was granted a degree in Journalism from the Montana School of Journalism and went to work for the Great Falls Tribune as a general assignment reporter, then a sportswriter, then as sports editor of the Great Falls Leader, an afternoon daily, then back to an editorial job on the Great Falls Tribune. For the last several years he has been layout editor for the Fresno, California Bee.

E. Harold Aubrey TAYLOR
Born: 26 Nov. 1916
Married: 1941 to Georgia _____.
Died: Missing in action during World War II, since 1945

Harold Aubrey left the University of Montana as a junior in the School of Forestry to operate camps for the Forest Service and later to work as a carpenter and sawmill owner at Anchorage. While employed at building the airbase at Anchorage he was sometimes in the presence of General H. H. Arnold. So impressed was he with the general's efficiency that he resigned his job and went to Texas where he was able to enlist in the Air Cadets.

Upon graduation as a navigator he was assigned to instruction of navigation for Martin Marauder crews until late in the war. He went overseas as a first lieutenant, and was assigned to the Fifteenth Air Force in Italy. In what is believed to be the longest B-17 raid in the war, he was with the mission which destroyed a ball-bearing factory in Ruhland, Germany. He was missing in action after this raid and was presumed dead.

One week prior to him being listed missing in action, he navigated his bomber back from a bombing mission after all instruments on the plane had been shot out by Russian planes. The Russians believed the plane had been stolen by the Germans. Harold's widow was presented the posthumous award of the President's Medal for outstanding service to his country.

He left a widow, two step-daughters and an infant son, Leland Oscar TAYLOR.

CHAPTER III

WILLIAM M. TAYLOR

Born: 1806, Georgia
Father: James "Old Corn" TAYLOR
Mother: Mary MANN
Married: 26 July 1826, Cooper Co., Missouri to Susan Kavannaugh BRISCOE
Died: Cooper Co., Missouri, Buried in the Briscoe Cemetery at Boonville, Missouri

William M. TAYLOR was a farmer. He was brought to Missouri in 1812 when his family James "Old Corn" TAYLOR and Mary MANN moved to Missouri from Georgia. They settled at New Madrid, Missouri.

There was a terrible earthquake in New Madrid, Missouri Dec. 1811. The quake continued through January 1812. It was so devastating that it changed the channel of the Missouri River. At that time James TAYLOR moved his family to Taylor Springs (named for James TAYLOR). This was in 1817, near Ottersville, Cooper Co., Missouri.

Another reference to the earthquake of December 1811 and January 1812 is found in the Bicentennial Almanac - Two Hundred Years of America by Calvin D. Linton, Ph.D., page 69. "An earthquake at New Madrid, Missouri caused the Mississippi River to flow backwards for a time and results in huge floods. Reelfoot Lake in Tennessee was formed by the overflow. The lake still exists."

William M. TAYLOR was a Royal Arch Mason.

SUSANNAH (SUSAN) BRISCOE

Born: 14 Oct. 1810, Richmond, Madison Co., Kentucky
Father: Andrew Logan BRISCOE
Mother: Ann KAVANNAUGH
Married: 26 July 1826 to William M. TAYLOR
Died: 5 July 1865
(Proof of dates: Salt Lake Genealogical Library, source Chatham Read, Pilot Grove, Missouri and Belle Woolery, Sedalia, Missouri)

Susannah Kavannaugh BRISCOE was a daughter of Andrew Logan BRISCOE who fought in the War of 1812. Colonel BRISCOE was a son of William BRISCOE who was a Captain in the Revolutionary War.

She is buried in the Briscoe Cemetery which is three miles south of Boonville, Missouri. The inscription on her tombstone reads:

Susan Kavannaugh Briscoe
Daughter of Andrew Briscoe
In memory of Susan
Wife of William M. Taylor
Died July 5, 1865, age 55
She was a member of the Baptist Church for 25 years
When asked about death she said, "I am not afraid to trust my Lord"

On a flat stone over the grave it reads:

Susan
A Royal Arch Mason

Children of William M. TAYLOR and Susan K. BRISCOE. (Source: 1850 Census records, Cooper Co., Missouri)

Sarah (Sally) 15, female, born Missouri
James Archer, 13, male, born Missouri
Thomas, 11, male, born Missouri
Nancy, 9, female, born Missouri
Charles, 4, male, born Missouri
Anna, 2, female, born Missouri

The following is another record found of the children of William M. TAYLOR and Susan Kavannaugh BRISCOE:

Andrew Taylor, b. abt. 1833
Sally (Sarah) Taylor, b. abt. 1835
James Archer Taylor, b. abt. 1837
Thomas Taylor, b. abt. 1839
Nancy Taylor, b. abt. 1841
Charles Taylor, b. abt. 1846
Anna Taylor, b. 1848
Lane Taylor
Ellen Taylor

I, Thomas A. Taylor (co-author of this book) well remember that about 1912 Uncle Andrew and Uncle Tom used to visit us in Missouri. I believe that at that time Uncle Andrew was living with Uncle Tom. I remember that Uncle Tom was a tall man with a long white beard. He was a farmer near Calhoun, Missouri.

They, Andrew and Thomas, were both quite old when I was a very young child. I never knew Sally, my Grandfather James Archer, Nancy, Charles, or Anna.

The story is told that Uncle Andrew was very active in the Colorado gold rush. Supposedly he filed a claim on a "diggins" near Trinidad, Colorado. When he was away from his "diggins" one day, another man "jumped" his claim. Upon his return, Andrew killed the man with a pick. He then quit the gold field and returned to Missouri.

It was this killing that brought on the nickname of "Deg" which evidentally meant devil. That nickname followed Uncle Andrew to his grave. He was never married and spent the remainder of his life with relatives in Missouri.

Here I must point out a record which may be erroneous. Andrew TAYLOR was the oldest son of William M. TAYLOR. Andrew was not born until 1833. This was seven years after William M. TAYLOR and Susan Kavannaugh BRISCOE were married. My questions are: 1. Did they not have a child for seven years after they were married? 2. Were there other children between 1826 and 1833 who did not live? and 3. Is there an error in dates of birth or marriage?

"One seed at a time and the garden grows
One drop at a time and the river flows
One word at a time and the book is read
One stroke at a time and the paint is spread -
One chip at a time and the statue's unveiled
One step at a time and the mountain is scaled
One thing at a time and that done well
Is the only sure way to succeed and excel -
You can write, you can paint, you can sculpt or climb
You can do it by taking one step at a time."

JAMES (OLD CORN) TAYLOR

Born: 24 Feb. 1763, Georgia
Father: James TAYLOR
Mother: Elizabeth BARRIE (widow)
Married: May 1785, Georgetown, South Dakota to Mary MANN
Died: 1 May 1846, Ottersville, Cooper Co., Missouri
(Source: Census in Missouri, and the inscription on his tombstone)

MARY MANN
(Wife of James "Old Corn" TAYLOR)

Born: 2 Mar. 1773, Georgia
Father: John MANN
Died: 1 May 1838, Ottersville, Missouri

She was a Baptist for 45 years.

James TAYLOR had a Certificate of Land in the Deed Book, Coopers County, Missouri 9, page 264, showing land granted by the land office Franklin Territory on 17 May 1819. Total price for the quarter section was $576.00.

There is a story connected with James "Old Corn" TAYLOR which may or may not have some validity. According to a book on Cooper County written by Melton, he told of "Old Corn" James TAYLOR who migrated into Clear Creek Township in 1817 from Georgia with a host of slaves and many mules. He set up a large plantation. He hoarded his grain, but then in the lean years he was generous in passing it out to deserving folks. He did not care for lazy folks or dudes. He hated to spend money and had the most run down farm equipment in the area. He had three sons: William, John and James, and three daughters: Nancy, Mary and Priscilla.

This area was the Boonlick Settlement started by the sons of Daniel Boone in 1807 in what was Howard and Cooper County, Missouri.

In the book "Passports Issued by the Governor of Georgia 1809" researched and written by Mary G. Bryan, Director of Georgia Department of Archives, Washington D.C. 1961, it states that a "passport was issued through the Creek Nations of Indians and that it be prepared for James TAYLOR, John LOTT Sr., William WILLIAMS and Samuel NEWTON and their families which was presented and signed by the Governor on Saturday, November 7, 1807 (page 286 for reference).

Children of James "Old Corn" TAYLOR and Mary MANN. (This from the Census of 1850, Cooper Co., Missouri and the will of James TAYLOR)

Nancy TAYLOR, b. Georgia (1791) age 59 in 1850, m. FORSYTHE
Mary TAYLOR, b. Georgia (1802) age 48 in 1850, m. Jordon O'BRIEN

Priscilla TAYLOR, b. Georgia (1804) age 46 in 1850, m. DICKSON (DIXON)
William M. TAYLOR, b. Georgia (1806) age 44 in 1850
John TAYLOR, b. Georgia
James L. TAYLOR, b. Georgia

This will was made in 1847, Cooper County, Missouri.

There were several deeds in the Cooper County Court House showing transfer of land, transfer of slaves, and other legal documents from James TAYLOR Sr. One was to his daughter Priscilla "Kitchens" (the Census of 1850 shows that Priscilla Taylor married "Dixon"), and one was to William M. TAYLOR. Another record shows that Priscilla TAYLOR married "Dickson". This courthouse is in Boonville, Missouri and has very old records.

Also in the same courthouse is a list of epitaths from tombstones that were collected by the Senior Citizens of Cooper County, and placed in the County Clerks office. The Senior Citizens especially research for records from small family cemeteries and were especially helpful.

"No amount of success and wealth in business, can compensate for failure in the home."

JAMES TAYLOR AND ELIZABETH BARRIE

We have a record of a James TAYLOR, father of James "Old Corn" TAYLOR. He lived in Georgia, married Elizabeth BARRIE, who was a widow. We have been unable to locate any further information concerning this generation of TAYLORS.

However, there is a land deed in records of a Georgia transaction showing that James TAYLOR was the son of James TAYLOR and Elizabeth BARRIE, widow. It further shows that James TAYLOR and Elizabeth BARRIE deeded land to their son James TAYLOR and wife, Mary MANN.

Since this deed was recorded in the Georgia records and since that same James TAYLOR and Mary MANN have been proven to be the parents of William M. TAYLOR, we feel no further proof of this sequence of events is necessary.

James TAYLOR who married Mary MANN was known as James "Old Corn" TAYLOR.

CHAPTER IV

ROBERT CROSS OWENS

Born: 11 Sept. 1840, Clinton Co., Missouri
Father: John Burns OWENS
Mother: Nancy THORP
Married: 14 Oct. 1869 to Mary Elizabeth GEORGE (by Isaac GOFF, minister)
Died: 13 Nov. 1931, Old Soldier's Home, Higginsville, Missouri
Buried: Old Soldier's Cemetery, Higginsville, Lafayette Co., Missouri

Robert Cross OWENS enlisted in the confederate army, 8 Dec. 1861 at Osceola, St. Clair Co., Missouri. He served until 30 Apr. 1862 and was released. He then re-enlisted July 1862. He was taken prisoner of war, 8 Aug. 1863 at Vicksburg, Mississippi.

He was captured 4 July 1863 and released on Oath, 3 Jan. 1865. The Oath showed his place of residence as Davies Co., Missouri. (Proof: We have a copy of his military records from General Services Administration, Washington, D. C.)

He was a Quaker and reportedly his family came from the British Isles with William Penn and were Pennsylvania Dutch. The name CROSS could be a family name, altho we have not been able to establish that fact at this time.

Robert Cross OWENS moved to northern Missouri near Smithville, as he had a sister living near Smithville by the name of Mrs. Conrad AUL. He died 13 Nov. 1931 at the Old Soldier's Home at Higginsville, Missouri, after having spent several of his last remaining years at that home.

The following is a newspaper article taken from the Henry Co., Missouri Scrapbook by Kay Mills, Vol. 1, page 860, Daily Democrat, Clinton, Missouri, Feb. 1932.

"Passed Away

R. C. Owens, a confederate soldier, passed away Friday night at the Old Soldier's Home at Higginsville, where he had made his home for the past two years. He was 91 years, two months and two days old.

Deceased was born September 11, 1840 at Clinton Co., Missouri. In 1861 he enlisted in the Confederate Army and served under Sterling Price. In 1868 he moved to Henry County and this had been his home until two years ago when he went to the Old Soldiers Home. In 1869 he married Miss Mary E. George and to this union nine children were born, five of whom are living. They are: T. B. Owens, Chicago; Charles H. Owens, Topeka, Kansas; George Owens, Mountain Grove and Mesdames Nancy E. Taylor, Iowa and Joe Johnson, Clinton.

Mr. Owens owned an 80 acre farm six miles south of Calhoun and there is where he and his wife spent many happy years together, working and making a home for their children. Several years ago he sold this farm to Harry Bell who lives there now.

Mr. Owens was a stone mason by trade, but also farmed on a small scale. In 1869 he joined the Baptist Church and four years after was ordained as a deacon. He lived the life of a faithful, consistent Christian and was held in highest esteem by everyone. He was prominent in all the affairs of the day and was a leading Democrat in East Henry County. Everywhere he went he carried a ray of sunshine, which reached everyone.

He was dependable and always ready to do his share in everything. It was said by someone at Higginsville that he was the "Prince of the Home". He also had a brilliant and alert mind and when friends visited him at Higginsville he would ask about certain roads, bridges or about different people and things that he had not forgotten. It can be said of him that his was a life well lived and that he was ready when the Master called for him to come to a higher throne.

Funeral services were conducted Monday morning in the Chapel at the home by Rev. Alonzo Patison. The casket was draped with the Confederate flag. The burial was in the home cemetery.

Besides his five children, Mr. Owens is survived by one brother, John Brooks Owens, Maysville, Missouri; thirty-two grandchildren, sixteen great grandchildren, a nephew, Carter Canan, other relatives and a host of friends. Among those attending the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Carter Canan and her sister, Mrs. Morton,Tom Parks, Fred and Everett Johnson, Frank Sands, wife and son, John B. Owens, his two sons and their wives, and a daughter and her husband; Mrs. G. W. Russell, Mrs. Geo. Bilbruck, Miss Ida Myrtle Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Johnson and son, Mr. Leo Fellhauer and son; Rev. Charles Owens, Topeka, George Owens, Mountain Grove and others."

The following is an article taken from the newspaper of Maysville, Missouri:

"ROBERT C. OWENS

Word reaches here that Robert C. Owens passed away at the Confederate Home at Higginsville last Friday, November 13. He was a brother of John B. Owens of Maysville and had visited here at different times. We have received the following sketch of his life:

Robert C. Owens was born in Clinton County, Missouri, September 11, 1840 and died at the Confederate Home, November 13, 1931, being at the time of his death 91 years, 2 months and 2 days of age.

"Uncle Bob," as he was affectionately known here, entered the Confederate Army in 1861, returning to Missouri under parole in 1865, and settling in Henry County in 1868, where he resided until entering the Confederate Home on August 24, 1929.

Uncle Bob united with the Baptist Church in August, 1868, and four years later was ordained a deacon. He was married October 14, 1869 to Miss Mary E. George and to this union were born nine children, five of whom survive, as follows: Mrs. Ellen Taylor of Iowa; Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson, Calhoun, Missouri; Thomas of Chicago, Illinois; Charles of Topeka, Kansas; and George of Mountain Grove, Missouri. His wife died February 23, 1923.

Uncle Bob is also survived by one brother, John B. Owens of Maysville, Mo., 32 grandchildren, 15 great grandchildren and many other relatives; and his friends were numbered by his acquaintances.

He was a man of strong mind and character, possessed with that great faculty of making and holding friends, and since coming to the Confederate Home he has demonstrated that ability on numerous occasions, and his passing will be felt by all of his comrades and those connected with the institution, as well as by his relatives.

Funeral services were held November 16 at 10 o'clock a.m. conducted by Rev. Patterson of Higginsville, who used as his text II Corinthians, 5th chapter and first verse, after which the remains were laid to rest in the beautiful cemetery at the Confederate Home."

MARY ELIZABETH GEORGE
(Wife of Robert Cross OWENS)

Born: 10 Mar. 1846, Henry Co., Missouri
Father: John L. GEORGE
Mother: Mary E. BRITTON
Married: 14 Oct. 1869 to Robert Cross OWENS, by Isaac Goff, Minister
Died: 21 Feb. 1923, Calhoun, Henry Co., Missouri
Buried: Old Combs Cemetery, six miles south of Calhoun, Missouri

Mary Elizabeth was the only child of John L. GEORGE and Mary E. BRITTON. They were married 30 Nov. 1843, and Mary Elizabeth was born 10 Mar. 1846.

William C.George was appointed administrator of the estate of John L. GEORGE, dec'd. 13 Feb. 1849. John L. GEORGE died intestate, at some time prior to 13 Feb. 1849.

The court records at Clinton, Henry Co., Missouri show that Elizabeth BRITTON files for summons to issue against Isaac GOFF to appear to show cause why a guardian should not be appointed to take charge of Mary E. GEORGE, infant daughter of John L. GEORGE, deceased, May Term 1851, page 318, Book B.

The records also show that Isaac GOFF was appointed guardian of Mary Elizabeth GEORGE, minor heir of John L. GEORGE deceased, 23 Nov. 1852. William C. GEORGE was appointed guardian of Mary Elizabeth GEORGE minor heir of John L. GEORGE, deceased, Feb. Term. 1853.

The Henry County Missouri Census for 1850, #28, page 4 gives this information:

Britton, Thomas, age 42, farmer, male, born Virginia
Elizabeth, age 44, female, born Virginia
Thomas W. age 22, male, born Virginia
Martha E. age 19, female, born Virginia
Sarah F. age 17, female, born Virginia
Verinda C. age 10, female, born Missouri
Lilas W. age 8, male, born Missouri

We believe that Thomas BRITTON and Elizabeth BRITTON were also the parents of Mary E. BRITTON who was probably (at that census) about 24 or 25 years old. She might even have been deceased by this time, as there were court records of a guardian being appointed for her minor daughter, Mary Elizabeth GEORGE, in the February Term of 1849 Court.

We further believe she was married to John L. GEORGE when she was 17 or 18 years old. This would have meant that she was born about 1825 and was (or would have been) 24 or 25 years old at the 1850 census, and was not mentioned in the 1850 census because she was married in 1843 and died before 1850. The 1840 Census records do not show names of children living within the home, but only head of households.

We have done extensive research and have visited Calhoun and Clinton, Henry Co., Missouri, and have spent several days at the court house there, have visited known relatives, cemeteries, etc. but have not been able to prove the above, but to the best of our information collected, we feel it safe to assume that the above is correct.

Funeral of J. A. Owens

"Funeral services for J. A. Owens who was injured in a railroad yard here Saturday and died at St. Mary's Hospital Sunday morning, were held from the Christian Church at 2 o'clock Wednesday in charge of Rev. F. H. H. Tubbs. A quartet A. O. Rees, Elwood Jones, Mrs. Art Nelson and Mrs. Elwood Jones, sang three hymns, two of which were favorites of the deceased.

Pallbearers were members of the Odd Fellows Lodge which conducted the burial service at Greenwood Cemetery.

The following is an obituary of the late Mr. Owens.

John A. Owens, son of Robert C. and Mary E. Owens was born near Calhoun, Missouri, February 22, 1872; died at St. Mary's Hospital, Kansas City, Missouri, December 23, 1923, age 51 years, 10 months and one day.

He grew to young manhood and went from there to Camden County, where he was united in marriage with Miss Susie Russell on Sept. 16th, 1908. To this union seven children were born, William Robert, age 14; Lea, age 12; Oral Rolland, age 10; Russell Overton age 8; Rex age 5, Johnny, age 2; and Kirdie who died in infancy.

About five years ago he moved his family to Council Grove, Kansas where he resided until his death.

At the age of 19 years he was converted and united with the Baptist Church of which he remained a faithful and constant member until a few years ago when he united with the Christian Church of Council Grove of which he was a faithful member at the time of his death.

He was also a member of Lodge No. 43 IOOF in the membership of which he was held in highest esteem.

He was kindly in disposition, honest in his business relations, exemplary in his conduct and sought to fulfill the scriptural injunction that "He who would have friends must himself be friendly."

In his untimely death his employers have lost a faithful servant, the neighborhood a kindly neighbor, the church a faithful member, and the family a loving husband, father, son and brother.

He leaves behind to mourn their loss his wife Susan Owens, six children; four brothers; Tom, of Chicago, Ill.; Charles of Emporia, Kansas; Claude of LaCross, Kansas and George of Clinton; three sisters, Mrs. Ellen Taylor of Rozel, Kansas; Mrs. Lizzie Johnson of Clinton; and Mrs. Docsie Edmundson of Windsor, Mo. His father R. C. Owens, Clinton, Mo., mother-in-law Mrs. S. E. Russell and sister-in-law Mrs. Blanche Curnutt all of Council Grove, and a host of friends.

Married: 21 Apr. 1909 to Louella C. SMITH at her parent's home near Rush Center, Kansas, b. 2 Mar. 1886 near Rush Center, Kansas, d. 12 Aug. 1959 at LaCrosse, Kansas
Died: 3 Apr. 1926, age 41 years, 1 month and 6 days
Buried: LaCrosse, Kansas

Louella Smith OWENS was married after Claude's death, Mar. 1929 to Charles CROCK, b. 22 Mar. 1876, d. 20 June 1941, and Louella Owens CROCK later married 30 Nov. 1946 at Great Bend, Kansas to Jacob WILHELM, b. 1 Nov. 1887 and is still living (1980).

Robert Claude came to Kansas in 1906 where he was married 21 Apr. 1909 to Miss Louella SMITH. They were members of the Baptist Church and late in life he was a member of the Christian Church of LaCrosse, Kansas.

The following is a copy of the obituary of Robert Claude OWENS:

"Robert Claude Owens was born near Calhoun, Missouri, Feb. 27, 1885 and died at LaCrosse, Kansas, April 3, 1926, age 41 years 1 month and six days, coming to Kansas in the year 1906, where he resided ever since. On April 21, 1909 he was united in marriage to Miss Louella Smith near Rush Center, Kansas. To this union two children were born, Myrtle and Earl both of whom, with their mother survived him.

In his boyhood days he was converted and united with the Baptist Church near Calhoun, Missouri, of which he remained a faithful member until about two years ago when he united with the Christian Church of LaCrosse, Kansas of which he was a faithful and consistent member until his death.

He was a good citizen and neighbor, a kind husband and father and a friend to everyone he met, and will be missed by everyone who knew him.

He leaves to mourn his loss, his wife Louella Owens, a daughter Myrtle, a son Earl all of the home address; his father R. C. Owens and a sister Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson of Clinton, Missouri; three brothers, Thomas Owens of Chicago, Illinois; George Owens of Missouri and Charles H. Owens of Gypsum, Kansas, and a sister Mrs. Ellen Taylor of Iowa, a number of nieces and nephews and a host of friends. His mother and a brother John preceeded him to his heavenly home.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at the Christian Church, conducted by Rev. A. L. Brandstetter, owing to the illness of the pastor, Rev. Bryant. Interment was made in the LaCrosse Cemetery. Pittman and Pittman were the undertakers in charge."

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our appreciation to our many friends for the many acts of kindness and words of sympathy expressed during the last illness and death of our dear one. We also wish to thank Rev. A. L. Brandstetter for officiating at the funeral service, and also do we wish to thank those who so thoughtfully sent flowers.

CHAPTER V

JOHN BURNS OWENS

Born: 8 Oct. 1808, Tennessee
Father: Nicholas OWENS
Mother: Mary MARRS
Married: 12 Aug. 1834 to Nancy THORP
Died: 27 Aug. 1845. He was thrown from a horse and killed.

NANCY THORP

Born: 14 Mar. 1817, Madison Co., Kentucky
Father: Zachariah THORP
Mother: Mourning (Morning) HARRIS
Married: 12 Aug. 1834 to John Burns OWENS
Married: after the death of John B. Owens, 11 May 1851 to John SHEELER
Died: 1 Sept. 1866, age 49 years old

The following is an exerpt from the Genealogical Notes from the Liberty Trubune 1858-1868, Vol. 13, 977.816 Vah SLGL. entitled "Old Men of Clay County in 1870"

"ZACHARIAH THORP. I was born in Madison Co., Ky., Jan. 22, 1809. Moved to Howard Co., Mo., in 1818 and to Clay County in 1824. Served in the Black Hawk War in 1832 under Col. Shubael Allen; and in 1833 served as a United States Mounted Ranger. Been a member of old Baptist church since 1854, and have been a Democrat all of my life. Disfranchised."

The following information came from a group of articles taken from the Maysville, Missouri newspapers, and sent to us by Mrs. Leta THORNTON.

"HISTORICAL SKETCHES OF DEKALB COUNTY CITIZENS. Life History of Older of the Citizens of DeKalb County, Presenting the Life and Experiences of the Pioneers of an Earlier Day. by John B. Owens.

Nicholas Owens grandfather of John B. Owens, on his father's side came to Missouri from Tennessee in 1819 and settled in Clay County, where Liberty is now located. He later purchased a large tract of land five miles north of Smithville where the family lived for many years. Typically southern were these Kentuckians, and they kept their slaves until they were liberated by the emancipation proclamation.

One family of slaves never left the old Owens homestead and lived with the Owens family until their death.

Nicholas OWENS married Mary MARRS, also a native of Tennessee and they lived on the farm near Smithville until their deaths.

On the maternal side of the house, the grandfather, Zachariah Thorp lived and died in Madison County Kentucky, twelve miles from Richmond, and the grandmother, Mourning Harris was also of Madison County, Kentucky. Therefore, on both sides of the house, John B. Owens is southern bred.

John B. (Burns) Owens, the father of the present John B. (Brooks) Owens came to Clay county from Tennessee with his parents, when very young and lived with them near Smithville on the Owens farm until he married Nancy Thorp. They lived on a farm near Smithville where seven children were born, John B. (Brooks) was the youngest of seven and never saw his father, who was thrown from a horse and killed before John B. was born in 1845. He thinks he should be a prophet, being the seventh son and never saw his father.

He (John Brooks) was born on a farm in the very southwest corner of Clinton county, where three counties corner, just 30 steps from Clay county and 100 yards from Platte county, two miles from Ridgeley and five miles from Smithville. Sometime after the death of his father his mother Nancy Owens married John Sheeler and the family lived near Ridgeley in Platte county where the boy John attended his first school for three months, the teacher being Wm. Riggs, father of Z.T. Riggs.

John B. came with the Sheeler family from the farm near Smithville to a farm near old Pattonsburg. They moved across the country in wagons and the trails which served as roads were hard to follow. The first night out, the family stayed on the I. I. Kibbey farm near Stewartsville.

The following day, in the year 1854 they came through Maysville and the only house on the trail was the Abram Barger home, now the Grant Harman farm. Maysville itself had very few homes and only a few small frame store buildings.

Later the Sheeler family moved to Pattonsburg and ran a hotel until the Civil War broke out and then John Sheeler joined the rebel army. In Pattonsburg Mr. Owens went to school one term of three months and this with the three months at Ridgeley constitutes his only schooling.

His teacher was Joseph Snow, later of Stewartsville. When Mr. Snow was on his deathbed, Uncle John went to visit him and found him using the old school bell at his bedside, which he as a teacher had used in the school room at Pattonsburg when John was a little boy.

When John Sheeler went to war he left behind him a wife and two small children. John B. Owens, then about fourteen years of age worked and took care of them. The first month he worked for Wm. Culver at Plattsburg, the father of Romulus Culver, a St. Joseph attorney. For this manual labor he received the sum of $5, which he turned over to his mother. His next job was with Sam Snapp at Stewartsville and here he got $20 a month in greenbacks, or "cheap money." Uncle John says, after the war the Government issued money "good for all debts, public and private, except duties on imports."

John Sheeler was shot through the thigh at the battle of Wilson Creek, near Springfield, Mo., but recovered from his wounds and returned to his family who had moved from Pattonsburg back to the old neighborhood near Smithville.

He and his wife later moved to Leavenworth City, where they both passed away shortly after the war.

After the war John B. (Brooks) Owens tried his hand at herding cattle on the Kansas plains on the Indian reservation near Pottawatomie, Kansas. He finally drifted back to Missouri and became a trader in cows and sheep. He covered the territory all the way from the Osage river in St. Clair county to Grandriver near Pattonsburg. Sheep cost from $3 to $4 per head and cows from 3 to $3\frac{1}{2}$ cents a pound. He drove this stock to the market in Kansas City which consisted of an old scale lot at the old Southern Hotel on Fifth and Main Streets.

Mr. Owens also drove a hack from Smithville to Kansas City daily, crossing the river on a ferry at the foot of Main and Walnut streets. One day he arrived in Kansas City with his load of passengers just in time to partake of the excitement which followed the robbing of the ticket office at the gates of the old Kansas City Fair grounds of $25,000, which was laid at the door of the James boys.

John B. Owens and companion, Ning Letton were also in Kansas City when the word came of the robbery of a bank at Northfield, Minn. Ning Letton had been a companion of the James boys after the war and was said to know their gang well. The two boys were taken to the police station and shown pictures of two of the robbers who had escaped after the holdup. One had been shot through the chest and the picture showed him with blood streaming from the wound. Ning Letton identified him as Clel Miller and the other as a man named Chadrick. No pictures of the James or Younger boys was in the gallery, as they had escaped in the gunfire that followed the attempted robbery. Harry Miller, brother of Clel, was well known to John Owens, as he often came to Smithville when John was the constable there for four years.

While in Smithville John lived with his uncle Cross Owens and there every night young Mid Jones made his stop while carrying the mail from Smithville to Osborn via Plattsburg, horseback, and the boys who became acquainted in those stormy days were lifelong friends.

In 1877 John B. Owens came to Gentry county Mo., and married Ethleen Best, daughter of Boone Best at the old Best homestead, near McFall. The Bests settled in Gentry county as early as 1839. Louis Best, father of Arthur Best of Pattonsburg, who is the father of Mrs. R. R. Reynolds is a brother of Mrs. Owens.

John B. Owens and wife moved to Smithville and lived just across Smith Fork of Platte river, where the old grist and saw mill was located. In 1879 they moved back to Daviess county and lived one year and in 1880 moved to the farm of 160 acres in DeKalb county five miles northeast of Fairport that John had purchased for $1100.

This was a raw prairie farm without a stick of improvements, but John B. and wife with their customary thrift and industry soon had the fences built and had erected their home.

Here they lived for many years as close neighbors to Ahira Manring, a later candidate for Governor of Missouri on the Greenback ticket. Jap and Tom Hendrix, Conley Smith, Jno. Bohannon, Gus Stout, Joe Rainey, Al Lincoln and Joe Berry were also the neighbors of those early days.

On this farm the Owens children were born and reared. They are: Nannie, now Mrs. John Ed Campbell, A. Boone Owens, who was born about 1880, John B. Jr., Robert C. and Clay L. Owens, the youngest son, who is in the railroad business in California.

John B. Owens and wife purchased a residence property in the west part of Maysville and moved here in 1908 where they still live.

Before moving to Maysville he divided 200 acres of land between the children, retaining an eighty acre tract for themselves. Thus John B. Owens established the Owens family tree in DeKalb and surrounding counties and he and his posterity have kept the family honor unstained through all the years. He is 86 years of age, drives his own car and has no use whatever for glasses." Article written in 1894.

Born: 29 Feb. 1852, Platte, Missouri
Married: 18 June 1871 to E. D. Canan, d. 29 July 1921
Died: prior to Nov. 1931

The following is the obituary of Ella Sheeler CANAN:

"Mrs. E. D. CANAN Died. At the home of her son, C. C. Canan, on North Washington Street, Saturday afternoon at 2:25. She had been in failing health for many months and had had several light strokes of paralysis, but was able to be up and about until about two weeks previous to her death when the fatal stroke came.

Her two children were devoted to her and both wanted her to live in their own homes but she always maintained that a woman was happier in her own home and with her own things so she lived in the house on West Green street, where she raised a happy family. It was filled with the memories of the devotion of her husband and the merry ring of laughter of her children from the time of childish prattle until their courting days, the time of parties of their youth because the hospitality of the Canan home was always known far and wide. Well does the writer remember many happy hours in this home, which was always in order with things in readiness for the homecoming of her children and the entertainment of her and their friends.

She was a devout member of the Baptist church, putting into every day living the Master's teaching, always aiding those more helpless than herself. She was regular in the attendance of the church services and of Sunday school and the Ladies Bible class. She surrounded herself with friends as she was a member of several quilting clubs and gave to those members the charm of her life -- sunshine and thoughtfulness of others. They in turn brightened her last days on earth. While many women are lonely at nearly fourscore years, she filled her life with interest and doing. The writer never attended a preaching service in the morning at the Baptist church and did not find her in her pew.

Ella Sheeler was born in Platte county, Mo., February 29, 1852, and was united in marriage with E. D. Canan, June 18, 1871. Four children were given to this union, two of whom survive -- C. C. Canan on North Washington Street, where she was taken after she took so ill; Mrs. May Nichols, who teaches in Cincinnati, Ohio; and two grandsons, Paul and Marion Nichols of Cincinnati. She also leaves two brothers, R. C. Owens, Higginsville, Mo; and John Owens, Maysville, Mo.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. R. Blythe at the Baptist church Monday morning. She was laid by the side of her husband, who died July 29, 1921.

The pallbearers were: Leo Fellhauer, Eugene Brandenburg, J. B. Redford, Walter L. Griffith, Fred Johnson, John P. Cecil."

NICHOLAS OWENS

Born: 19 July 1835
Father: John Burns OWENS
Mother: Nancy THORP
Married: 11 Mar. 1858 to Mary Ann O'KEEFE, at Pattonsburg, Missouri by Rev. Sims
Died: 6 Apr. 1908, Fruita, Colorado

The following is an obituary from the Maysville, Missouri newspaper concerning the death of Nicholas OWENS.

"NICHOLAS OWENS. The news of the death of our well known pioneer citizen of the Valley came to us Monday, as a shock, barbed with pain and sorrow. When this paper last came to you, the deceased was upon the streets greeting his friends with a happy "Good Morning," as was his wont each day as he made the Telegram office a visit. Today all that was mortal of our friend and townsman is at rest in our silent city.

Nicholas Owens was born in Clay County, Missouri, July 19th, 1835, died at Fruita, Colo., April 6th, 1908, 72 years, 8 months and 17 days.

In early life he became a member of the Baptist church at his old home in Missouri of which he remained a good and consistent member during his lifetime.

Deceased was married to Mary Ann O'Keefe in Davis county, Missouri 11 March 1858. To this union was born twelve children, five of whom have departed to the spirit world. Seven children, Bart and Richard Owens of Dragon, Utah, Mrs. Bettie A. Corp, of Canon City, Colo., John T. Owens of Yates Center, Kansas, Wallace Owens of Livingstone, Alberta, Canada, Henry Owens of Pampa, Washington, Zacharias Owens, in Montana, and the aged widow remain to mourn the sudden loss of a kind husband and father.

Mr. Owens, with his family came to Colorado in 1874 and settled in Fremont county on White River and came to Fruita, Mesa county over eighteen years ago. Served in the Union Army, during the Civil War, in Company M, the 8th Regiment Provisional Enrollment, Missouri Militia.

Mr. Owens, was also constable in Fruita several years and held several other offices of note during his life in Fruita.

The funeral was held from the Baptist Church conducted by the pastor, Rev. H. L. Chapin, Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock. A large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends were in attendance. Also the G.A.R. of Fruita and Grand Junction, assisted by the drum corps of Grand Junction, held special services over the remains of their departed friend and comrade."

The military records of Nicholas OWENS at the General Services

Administration, Washington D.C. show:

That Nicholas Owens enlisted July 6, 1863 and served as a private in Co. M. 4 Reg't. Mo. Prov. En. Mil., and was discharged at Chillicothe, Missouri, Nov. 22, 1863. He served under Captain Napoleon B. Brown, Commanding Company and Colonel John B. Hale Commanding Regiment. At the time of his discharge, 22 Nov. 1863, he was totally unable to earn a support by manual labor by reason of Heart and Lung disease.

On Sept. 17, 1980 Tom and Edna Taylor went to Fruita, Colorado in search of information concerning the Nicholas OWENS family. We knew Nicholas OWENS had married Mary Ann O'KEEFE and that he died at Fruita, Colorado 6 Apr. 1908.

We went to the cemetery at Fruita, Colorado. There the sexton helped us to find the grave and tombstone of Nicholas OWENS. Beside his tombstone was the grave and tombstone of Mary A., his wife. Very close to these two stones was a stone bearing the inscription Emma OWENS, giving the date of her birth and death. From this we noted that Emma was only 20 years old when she died. We have no record of who Emma was, but presume she was one of his children, as he had five children who died rather young. The inscription on her stone said: Emma Owens, died Oct. 30, 1890, aged 20 yrs, 11 months, 7 days.

The sexton then told us of another plot on the other side of the cemetery where Barton OWENS was buried. We went to it and learned that there was a double stone there, with Bart on the left side, and the right side was uninscribed. It was intended for his wife, but we do not know whether or not she was buried there and no one had the inscription made on the stone.

Also not far from their grave was still another tombstone bearing the name of Oscar Barton OWENS, son of Mr. and Mrs. Barton Owens, born 1906, died 1918. At Rest.

We then started to search for someone who had known the family. Some aged person who had been a citizen of Fruita for a long time who could give us some information about them. After a great deal of searching we were directed to "Shorty" Gross. "Shorty" was an old cowboy 84 years old. He lived in a camping trailer located in a mobilhome area. He still wore riding boots and hanging near the door was a cowboy hat. Shorty was tall, erect, clean shaven and surprisingly clear of mind. He spoke clearly and deliberately.

Quickly Shorty informed us that he had worked as a range rider for many years for "Bart" OWENS. He gave us the name of Bart's wife and all his children, and even told us in a case or two of who the children married and where they had lived.

Shorty well remembered John Timothy "Armless John" OWENS. He had often seen him ride, but he was far more anxious to talk about Bart.

Bart OWENS built an extensive herd of cattle. In those days the range was open, free and unproven. Bart's cattle were scattered from Fruita to Dragon, Utah and east to Meeker, Colorado. He established a camp 32 miles west of Meeker. At one time Bart OWENS was supposedly the largest tax payer in Rio Blanco County (County Seat, Meeker). Rio Blanco is the Spanish interpretation for "White River". We could have talked all night to Shorty, but we had to leave in the interest of time.

D. John Timothy OWENS
Born: 28 Oct. 1865
Married: Matilda FRY, b. 1875, d. 3 July 1931
Died: Mar. 1918

John Timothy OWENS was born without arms, and was known throughout his life as "Armless John". He became very proficient with his feet, and the following information was contained in a letter from his granddaughter Doris E. BEAVENS to Leta THORNTON who was kind enough to furnish us with the information:

"..... I am working hard to collect history of the Owen's especially about my armless grandfather. Though in the process try to learn origin, family branches, etc. .....the Maysville newspaper put a small ad in the wanted or classified section, about the last of February. I have heard from a few persons, tho I am sure there are many old timers still around that part of the area that would recall armless grandfather, and remembers his accomplishments .... I have had other requests more than information, although I received quite an editorial in Colorado, where mother was born. The newspaper published my quest in it's entirety, while Maysville editor just published the information wanted in classified. I have received a number of letters from that area .....

A few weeks ago I received one of the Colorado papers which had put a large picture of grandfather on the front page, showing how he held a rifle, and writing that he was a great man in that area in the late 1800s, early 1900s. I received a copy of the picture, the original will be in the Grand Junction Museum, and promise of a negative and other pictures copied, and negatives, one from Price, Utah, and I have heard from one woman in Nevada, that gave some history, since Wallace, one of grandfather's brothers married a relative. He died in Washington. Seems he had about seven brothers and one or two sisters.....most of the letters from that area of the country were informative .... Great Grandfather Nicholas Owens, and Great Grandmother Mary O'Keefe Owens were highly respected and the letters told of how grandfather worked right along with his brothers in a huge garden his parents raised, as they had a large hotel, livery stable and that all were musicians, playing for many occasions as a group ..... my grandfather they say has never been forgotten, and his name is still mentioned often because of his fame."

The following article was published in the newspaper at Fruita, Colorado, Thursday, April 19, 1973.

"ARMLESS MAN OVERCAME HANDICAP. Eds. Note: Two weeks ago Mrs. Doris E. Beavens of Kansas City, Missouri wrote for information about her grandfather, John Owens, an early-day settler in Fruita and an armless wonder. Mrs. Anna Peck gave us permission to use the above photo that she found among her mother's pictures. On the photo was the following descriptive message:

John Owens was an early day man of Fruita. In the late 1890s and early 1900s he was looked upon as a great man to have overcome being born without arms. He had a stub, or finger, protruding from his shoulders. He wore toeless socks and "kick on and off" shoes. He used his toes to accomplish about anything a normal man could do.

He could drive a four horse team, harness them, saddle a horse, ride with the best of them in a round-up, do whip tricks, and played the fiddle for dances. He would put the fiddle on a block of wood on the floor, lie down beside it, "finger" it with the toes of his left foot, holding the bow and playing with the toes of his right foot. He was a good rifle man and belonged to a shooting club. The picture shows the position he took.

He was hired by a showman for exhibition purposes but found show life too strict with discipline measures, and he missed the freedom he had enjoyed at Fruita."

Doris Beavens stated: "My mother loved her father, Armless John so much, she always said, he will never be forgotten, because other than Jesus our Savior, to her, he was the finest man ever born here on earth."

The following is information received from Leta Thornton: "John Timothy Owens came to Missouri with his wife and children, Dora, Ethel and John from Yates Center, Kansas. They were engaged in a traveling musical show. They attended carnivals, picnics, fairs and various activities around the country in a wagon which advertised their music. John played the fiddle, his wife, Tillie, the mandolin, and their eldest daughter, Dora, the guitar and sang. Armless John, as he was called, was a talented man. He was very agile with the use of his feet, such as playing the violin, writing, driving a team of horses, opening a door and he also made wooden racks for holding plates, cup and saucers which he sold to help support his family. The family lies buried in the Hopewell cemetery north east of Maysville, Missouri."

ELIZABETH OWENS

Born: 5 May 1839, Clinton, Missouri
Father: John Burns OWENS
Mother: Nancy THORP
Married: Addison POWELL in 1858, d. 30 Mar. 1873
Married: 1 Feb. 1880 to Conrad AUL
Died: 17 Apr. 1910. Buried in Goss Cemetery, Smithville, Missouri

"Obituary. Mrs. Elizabeth Aul, nee Owens, was born in the southwest corner of Clinton county, Mo., on May 15th 1839. She grew up here until about 12 years old, when she moved with her mother to Davis county, where she grew to womanhood. She was married in 1858 to Addison Powell. Of this union 8 children were born; the two oldest died in infancy. Jimmy, a little boy of five years was kicked to death by a horse. Five children survive her: John A. Powell of Kansas City, Thos. E. Powell, who lives out West, Chas. Powell of Rushville; Ida Skaggs of Leavenworth county, Kansas and Nannie Hamner of Smithville. Addison Powell died Mar. 30, 1873.

On Feb. 1, 1880 she was married to Conrad Aul; of this union two children were born: little Maime, the first born only lived a few days; Mary Elizabeth Aker, the wife of Carl Aker, the other daughter with her husband survive her. She died April 17, 1910 and was laid to rest in the Goss Cemetery after funeral services by Rev. J. S. Cossairt, pastor of the Smithville Baptist church, at her home. A concourse of friends attended her funeral. All her living children were here during her sickness and funeral except Thomas Ed Powell.

Why do we mourn departing friends or shake at death's alarm: Tis but a call that Jesus sends to call us to his arms. She was a member of the Smithville Baptist church for over a century."

The following is a report written by Elizabeth OWENS' second husband Addison POWELL concerning a trip they took to the Ozarks:

"Feeling the need of relaxation, after a year of the hardest work I ever did, wife and I planned a trip. In order to make it enjoyable we decided to go visiting. On the 10th of August we started, six of us, wife and I, two mares and two colts -- telling it Mark Twain style, one of them a mule -- but more of the mule hereafter. We hitched to a covered wagon and went west, by way of Platte City; I had the usual luck there -- hard to get hay for the team, and I thought for a while we would have to tie up without water for the horses. After trying several places for water, we finally went to a house back from the road, where there was a tank of water. I called at the yard fence and a man came out. I told him what I wanted and he said I could get water if the team was not diseased, but I must not let them drink out of the tank, but must water from a bucket, and go outside to camp. I agreed to all this. I asked him where the tank was and he said it was not far out west. It was good dark by this time -- I went ahead and my wife drove the team; she could not see me, but I would answer her, so she kept in touch with me.

I finally found the tank, watered the team and drove out into the road and stopped for the night.

We arose early in the morning and drove to Leavenworth, arriving at 6 a.m. We only had the mosquitoes to fight and let the team walk. With a palm leaf fan, wife kept the mosquitoes off, occasionally one would settle down and picking it off with the fingers was the only resource.

We went to Wm. Skaggs' for a visit, seven miles west of town, stayed two days, then went to Jarbalo, to see Uncle Edley Powell. He is 84 years old, but we found him busy. He runs a private stable and lives with a niece. We also made a short visit with Mrs. Redman a sister of Uncle Edley's. We stayed there for one day and night then started for Olathe, which we reached in one and one-half days travel. We stopped there two nights and one day with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Giffard. We then went to Paola, about 26 miles to visit D. H. Aul and family. We stopped three days and four nights there. We then struck out for Clinton to visit Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Canan and son. This was a long drive, 75 miles. After one day and night we went up to Robert C. Owens' 12 miles distant, (a brother of the widow). We stayed there 2 nights and one day.

The general character of the country we had passed over to this time had been very much alike, some near the river being more rolling, but the land rich and very productive. After we passed Clinton there was quite a change. The land was not as rich.

We had quite an exciting episode while at Mr. Owen's. The mule mentioned above, got into trouble. Mr. Owens had a well out in the field, which was not used much (he had a pond in pasture for his stock). We went to the well to water the team. The flies were very bad, and the weeds had grown up around the well. The mule was knocking the flies off with the weeds, made a rush and went head first into the well. The well was about 18 feet deep, 12 feet of water, and six feet to water. The well was not wide, but the mule turned and came up headfirst -- how to get it out was the question. It would get its hind feet into the wall and raise its head out of the water, then fall back and go under. It did this several times; Mr. Owens pulled the wall away some 18 inches on the lower side, and when she came up caught hold of one ear. I took one of the tie ropes and slipped around her neck, this enabled us to keep her head above water. By calling two men at the house to help us, we lifted her out. I supposed she would cause us to have to stop over a while, but mule like, it did not appear to injure her in any way, except a few places where the hair was rubbed off.

The team was losing flesh rapidly and we were now nearing a rough country. We concluded to leave the wagon and go on in a buggy, that George Owens kindly loaned us. From there we went southeast to Warsaw, Benton Co. There was a marked change in a few miles, in many ways. The land was underlaid with a hard pan subsoil, and the farther south the more rock. There were several other things that I noticed. About the Benton county line, the wide track wagons took the roads (as many of the younger people here never did see a wide track wagon), I will state that the wheels are 6 inches farther apart than the wagons we use here, where wagons of this kind are used exclusively, any narrow track vehicle runs bad.

Another thing I noticed was the largest part of the gates were hung without hinges, many using slip gates when not satisfied with these, some are set on a stone with a hole in it to keep the bottom in place, the top fastened in various ways -- old style fashion. As we neared Warsaw the wire fencing also grew less, rail fences taking their places. We also found the rail fences put up in old style worm fences, to be the fence after that, all the way as far as we went. At Warsaw we crossed the Osage river on a suspension bridge. Here there was a radical change. The roads were gravelly line macadamized roads, and horses have to be shod to be used, even in plowing. Here we struck another pest we did not have on the waybill. Swarms of large black horse flies settled on the team, 100 at a time would not be exaggerating it. I never saw anything like it. I would kill them by the dozen with the lines, then when they were so bad I could not stand to see them cover the team, I would get out and kill what I could, I repeatedly knocked off 5 at a time with one stroke of the hand.

We went through the eastern part of Hickory county, near Cross Timbers we struck a rolling prairie, some 5 miles wide, and I was told it was about 30 miles long north and south. At Cross Timbers we went east into the southwestern part of Camden Co. Here we found people living old style sure enough. The country grows rougher. The Niangua river is one of the most crooked rivers in America and the country is very rough. We found the buggy more load than we wanted. No one that has never tried it can have any conception of it.

We stopped one day and two nights with Wm. Taylor and family, 60 miles from Mr. Owens', then went east to the southeast part of the county, for about 24 miles; it took two days to travel this 24 miles. On the second day we reached R. D. Kelleys. The country there is not so rough. While here I went to Lebonon, the county seat of Laclede Co. The country here was not so rough, but stony as the other. We stayed here three nights and two days, then started home.

We went east of our down route -- went north through Linn Creek, the county seat of Camden Co. Then due north to Versailles; here we turned west to Cole Camp, 22 miles from Versailles. I passed over this 22 miles in 1859. The country looked natural. Few houses were here then and some of these still remain, their architecture shows this. From here we came back to R. C. Owens', stayed 2 days and three nights, left the buggy, hitched to our wagon and came to Kansas City by way of Holden, where we visited our old neighbor, Frank Bernard. He is very comfortably situated and we spent the evening and night with him. Monday morning we started for Kansas City, hunted up John Powell, between Independence and Kansas City and visited a day and two nights, then came home, being out 34 days.

There are a few things that I have not mentioned. Guide boards at the forks of the cross-roads is one subject. The law (?) says they shall be kept up -- and should. People that have never traveled in a wagon know not what a convenience guide boards are. There was scarcely a day that we did not take the wrong road, sometimes being in such a place that there was no chance to inquire for miles after getting on the wrong road. Another subject I wish to mention is the hospitality of the people. The man that loaned his neighbor his saddle and rode to town bare back, is not one bit more accommodating than the man that will take in a stranger, give up his bed and sleep on a bed made on the floor -- people do this almost universally in the Ozarks. While we had the buggy we had to stop at houses -- we were out seven nights and were only refused once in the time. The amount of the charges was not the motive, as the charges were very low in all cases. However people may differ down there. One thing they are agreed upon, that is in the destruction of the timber. The young timber must be burned every year. To kill the young timber, the grown timber is being ruthlessly destroyed. The tiemakers are on the lookout for tie timber, if they have no land of their own, they are sure to be on the lookout for Government or non-resident land to get ties on. They only use the best of white oak and taking only the best of the tree. Many of the trees would make good gate posts but little use is made of them. Generally they lie and rot where they fall. Some enterprising men cut off part of the top and fall it around, so as to invite fire, when the woods get on fire, to burn them up. There is practically but little timber used.

About the government land. The question is often asked, Is there any Government land there? Yes, there is some there yet, but a man that has any get up would not have it. It is too poor to raise anything on. An Irishman, who had homesteaded 160 acres, on being asked about homesteading, replied: "I'll tell you how it is. You pay $14.00 to file on a piece of land. The Government bets you 160 acres of land that you will leave it or starve to death before five years are out." That is about the size of it.

One more subject, the price of land. Land is low, but I presume it sells for about all it is worth. From Leavenworth to Clinton land drops from $100 to $50 per acre. From Clinton east to Benton county from $40 to $50 per acre, and from there to Warsaw $30 to $40 per acre. Farther south to $10 and down to $3 per acre and some less. I saw more abandoned farms while on the trip than in all my past travels. Some had been abandoned for years, others not so long, and some had growing gardens, just vacated. There are reasons for this. The land is naturally thin and there appears to be but little care for anything. My opinion is that the land has been cropped to death. I noticed occasionally, an old settled place that was occupied and looked prosperous. These places had fruit and shade trees in the yard, and a marked desire to make life a little more pleasant. Many of these places showed by their architecture that the houses were built before the war. I take it that those people who cared for their yards, also cared for their farm land. As this is already to long I will come to a close.

Respectfully

C. AUL"

CHAPTER VIII

JOHN BROOKS OWENS

Born: 16 Oct. 1845, Clinton Co., Missouri
Father: John Burns OWENS
Mother: Nancy THORP
Married: 22 Feb. 1877 to Ethleen BEST, b. 13 Apr. 1858, Daviess Co., Missouri, dau. of Howard Boone BEST and Rebecca McCAMMON. d. 3 Apr. 1941, age 82 years 11 months and 21 days, just two days before her husband passed away.
Died: 5 Apr. 1941, Maysville, Missouri, aged 95 years, 5 mo., 20 days.

The following is an obituary taken from the Maysville Newspaper at the time of their deaths:

"John B. Owens Dies in Two Days After Wife's Death. Double Funeral for Pioneer Couple Held in Maysville at the Baptist Church Sunday Afternoon. John B. Owens and his wife had traveled together over life's pathway for more than 64 years. Companions in life they also became companions in their departure from this life. The Herald last Thursday carried the news of the sudden death of Mrs. Owens early Thursday morning. Her aged husband, frail at the time of her death, was unable to withstand the joint strain upon his vitality caused by his own illness and the shock that came to him as a result of her death. After she died he rapidly declined, and he passed away at 1:30 o'clock Saturday morning, less than 48 hours following her death. And thus pass from this life and this community's activities two of its pioneer figures who have side by side lived and wrought in Northwest Missouri many years and have been pioneer figures in its manifold activities.

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Baptist Church in Maysville. They were conducted by William J. Heriford, minister of the Baptist Church at Kansas City, Kansas, who was assisted by Homer Brown, minister of the Baptist Church at Berlin, Mo.

During the services a quartette, composed of Mrs. F. L. Canfield, Mrs. I. H. Bloom, Oscar McConnel and Earnest Clough sang "Rock of Ages: and "In the Sweet By and By," accompanied on the piano by Miss Evelyn McConnell. Mrs. Canfield also sang a solo, "Abide With Me".

Following the church services Masonic burial ceremonies were conducted at the cemetery at Berlin, Missouri by officers and members of Parrott Lodge No. 308, A. F. & A. M. of Maysville, of which Mr. Owens had long been a faithful member.

The pallbearers were former friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Owens. They were: Clyde Carson, P. C. Heubner, Morris McCrea, O. S. Morrow, Charles Eierdanz, all of Berlin; John W. Riggs, Clyde McClure, Floyd Bromley, all of Weatherby; Finley McClure, J. R. Hancock, Clay Moorman and Worth Lincoln, all of Maysville. Burial was in the Berlin cemetery.

The following account of the lives of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Owens has been received by the Herald for publication:

Ethleen Best Owens, daughter of Howard Boone and Rebecca McCammon Best, was born in Daviess County, Missouri, April 13th, 1858; passed away April 3rd 1941, at the home of her son, R. C. Owens, where she had gone for a short visit, being 82 years, 11 months and 21 days of age at the time of her death.

She was converted at the Berlin Baptist Church under the preaching of Rev. D. C. Campbell and united with the Church October 1888 and lived a true Christian life and faithful to the Church and attended as long as health permitted.

She gave her life in the service of her family and home and spent her declining years in caring for her aged husband.

John Brooks Owens, son of John B. and Nancy Thorp Owens was born in Clinton County, Missouri, October 16th, 1845 and passed away at his home in Maysville, April 5th, 1941, aged 95 years, 5 months and 20 days.

He was united in marriage to Ethleen Best February 22, 1877, Missouri and spent most of his married life in DeKalb County moving to Maysville in 1908, where he spent the remainder of his life.

He united with the Berlin Baptist Church in 1888. He was made a deacon of that Church about 1890 and was a deacon and member of that Church at the time of his death, although he was unable to attend much of late years.

He became a member of the Masonic Order at Smithville, Missouri May 16th, 1874 and was a member almost 66 years.

To the marriage of John B. Owens and Ethleen Best Owens were born the following children: Mrs. John E. Campbell, Maysville, Missouri; A. B. Owens, Maysville, Missouri; John B. Owens Jr., King City, Mo.: R. C. Owens, Maysville, Mo.; and C. L. Owens, who passed away January 11, 1935.

They leave the following to mourn their passing; one daughter, three sons, eleven grandchildren, nine great grandchildren, a number of nieces and nephews, three sister-in-laws and a host of friends.

They each were the last of their families to pass away.

They were a very devoted couple and her going was the immediate cause of his death. They walked the Pathway of Life side by side for more than 64 years and are now walking side by side on the other Shore."

"Funeral SERVICES TODAY FOR JOHN ED CAMPBELL. John Edward Campbell, son of D. C. Campbell and Mary Marsh Campbell, was born near Berlin, Mo., August 27, 1874, and lived there until moving to Maysville several years ago. He passed away Tuesday morning, January 5, 1960 at his home in Maysville.

He was united in marriage to Nannie R. Owens, November 12, 1896. He united with the Berlin Baptist Church in October 1888, and has been a member of the church over 71 years. He transferred his membership to the Maysville Baptist Church when they moved to Maysville and remained a faithful member until his death. He had been a member of the board of directors of the Fairport Bank for many years and was president of the bank at the time of his death.

Mr. Campbell is survived by his wife, Mrs. Nannie Campbell, of the home; a nephew, Lawrence Owens, whom Mr. and Mrs. Campbell reared from babyhood and loved him as their own; one brother, Albert Campbell, King City; and a number of nieces and nephews; great nieces and nephews, other relatives and a host of friends.

Funeral services are being held this Thursday afteroon at the Maysville Baptist Church, with the Rev. John W. Dowdy and the Rev. William J. Heriford officiating. Mrs. Leon Jennings accompanied by Mrs. Loren Clay, will sing two songs, "Abide With Me" and "Amazing Grace".

Interment will be in the Berlin Cemetery under the direction of the Bram Funeral Service."

"RITES WEDNESDAY FOR MRS. CAMPBELL. Mrs. Nannie R. Campbell passed away at the Cameron Community Hospital on February 18, 1968 from a broken hip, sustained on Jan. 24. Mrs. Campbell was 90 years, 1 month and 2 days old at the time of her passing.

Funeral services were held at the Maysville Baptist Church at 2 p.m. Wednesday, February 21. Rev. William J. Heriford and Rev. George Goudie officiated at the services. Rev. George Goudie accompanied by Mrs. Leon Jennings, sang "Amazing Grace" and "My Home Sweet Home". Burial was in the Berlin Cemetery, under the direction of the Bram Funeral Home.

Nannie Rebecca Owens, the only daughter of John Brooks Owens and Ethleen Best Owens was born in Daviess County, Mo., January 16, 1878. She moved with her parents to DeKalb County in January 1879, where she grew to womanhood.

At her parents' home she was married to John Edward Campbell Nov. 12, 1896 and spent the rest of her life in DeKalb County, with the exception of the first two years of married life which were spent in Gentry and Daviess counties. Mr. Campbell passed away Jan. 5, 1960.

She and her husband established their home 2 miles northeast of Fairport where they lived until they retired and moved to Maysville in 1946.

In 1907 they took a nephew, Lawrence Edward Owens, into their home to raise and always cherished and loved him as their own.

Mrs. Campbell united with the Mount Moriah Baptist Church at Berlin in 1890 where she remained a member until uniting with the Maysville Baptist Church in 1948.

Three bothers preceded her in death, Alfred Boone Owens, Robert Cross Owens, and Clay Louis Owens.

Survivors are one brother, John B. Owens, Jr., King City, Mo.; two sisters-in-law, Mrs. R. C. Owens, Maysville, and Mrs. D. C. Campbell, Kansas City; also one brother-in-law, O. C. McKnight, Greeley, Colo; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Owens, Maysville and many more nephews and nieces whom she loved so much.

Funeral services for A. B. (Boone) Owens were held at two-thirty o'clock Friday afternoon, September 9 at the Maysville Baptist Church, conducted by the minister, the Rev. Vernon D. Maxted. Two songs, "Beyond the Sunset" and "I Won't Have to Cross Jordan Alone", were sung by Harland Ginn, with his mother, Mrs. Kessler Ginn at the piano.

Pallbearers were the nephews, J. B. Owens, J. W. Owens, Lawrence Owens, Leslie McCrea, Stanley McCrea and Kermit Wright. Burial was in Oaklawn Cemetery with the Masonic Lodge in charge of the graveside service.

The following obituary was read at the services: Alfred Boone Owens, oldest son of John B. and Ethleen Best Owens, was born March 26, 1879 near Fairport, Missouri. He departed this life at 3:30 Wednesday morning, September 7, 1949 in the Missouri Methodist Hospital, St. Joseph after an illness of less than two weeks, aged 70 years, 5 months and 11 days.

He was united in marriage to Ona Belle McCrea on November 8, 1899. To this union four children were born: Lillian, now Mrs. Bert Bradford, Cameron, Missouri; Luther Owens, Maysville; Loren Owens, Yakima, Washington and Leta, now Mrs. Louin Thornton, Maysville.

He was preceded in death by his father and mother and one brother, Clay L. Owens.

He was converted and united with the Berlin Baptist Church when a young man. He was an active member of the Masonic Lodge for thirty-three years.

Mr. Owens spent his entire life as a farmer and stockman and specialized in raising purebred livestock. He took great pride and was widely known throughout Missouri and surrounding states for his high quality Hampshire sheep and Angus cattle.

He became seriously ill almost two weeks ago and was taken to the hospital where the best of care failed to relieve his intense suffering.

Besides his wife and children, he is further survived by four grandchildren: Mrs. Doris Owen of Maysville, Tommy and Don Thornton also of Maysville; Anna Jean Owens, Yakima, Washington; one great grandson, Ronnie J. Owen; one sister, Mrs. J. E. Campbell, Maysville; two brothers, J. B. Owens, King City, Missouri and R. C. Owens, Maysville; several nieces and nephews and a host of other relatives and friends."

"MRS. A. B. OWENS DIED DECEMBER 23. Passed Away At Her Farm Near Maysville Saturday Following Long Illness. Funeral services for Mrs. A. B. Owens, who passed away Saturday, December 23, were held at two o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the Maysville Baptist Church, conducted by the minister, the Rev. Vernon D. Maxted. During the services two songs, "Beyond the Sunset" and "I Won't Have to Cross Jordan Alone" were sung by Miss Frances Whiteaker, with Harland Ginn at the piano. Pallbearers were nephews, Leslie McCrea, Stanley McCrea, Kermit Wright, Lawrence Owens, J. W. Owens, and J. B. Owens. Burial was in Oaklawn cemetery.

Ona Belle McCrea, daughter of the late Virgil and Izora Renner McCrea, was born near Fairport, Missouri November 11,1874, and departed this life December 23, 1950 at the age of 76 years, 1 month and 12 days.

She was united in marriage to Alfred Boone Owens, November 8, 1899. They established their home on a farm north of Fairport and were engaged in farming all their married life.

To this union four children were born, Mrs. Lillian Bradford, Luther Owens and Mrs. Leta Thornton, all of Maysville and Loren Owens, Yakima, Washington.

When a young woman she gave her life to Christ and united with the Methodist Church at Winslow.

Mrs. Owens was a home-loving person, happy when her family was near her and always interested in their welfare.

Her husband preceded her in death September 7, 1949 and after his death she and a daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bradford, maintained a home together.

She had been in failing health for several years and on November 1 suffered a paralytic stroke. Although everything possible was done for her she grew steadily worse day by day until the end.

She was preceded in death by her parents and two brothers, Robert and Marvin McCrea.

Besides her four children she is also survived by four grandchildren, Mrs. John Howard Owen, Tommy and Don Thornton of Maysville, and Anna Jean Owens, Yakima, Washington and one great-grandson, Ronnie J. Owen, Maysville.

She is further survived by two sisters, Mrs. E. R. Edwards, Cave-N-Rock, Illinois; Miss Nellie McCrea, Maysville; and five brothers, Orville, Allen, Ralph and Frank McCrea, all of Maysville, and Raymond McCrea, Kansas City, Missouri; several nieces and nephews and a host of relatives and friends."

Louin and Leta Thornton at their farm home 1980

Robert Earl Owens

At the present time they have a 480 acre farm near Maysville, Missouri and have raised registered Angus cattle for about 45 years.

The following is a letter we received from Louin Thornton dated Sept. 18, 1980:

"Dear Tom: I just filled out one of your "Record of Vital Statistics" forms on your distant cousin, Leta Inez (Owens) Thornton. Pretty dry reading without some light on her character and who would be better qualified to shine that light than I, her high school sweetheart back in 1924, and her husband since June 5, 1932?

I had graduated from Mo. University Agr. College in '29 and was teaching Vocational Ag. in Adrian H.S. '29 to '34, and she was teaching in DeKalb Co. rural schools. The Co. Supt. of schools accused me of taking his best rural teacher. Although that ended her formal teaching career, she is still a teacher at heart and to the many 4-H girls she has led in sewing and other projects she was an inspiring leader of sewing skills.

To my Voc. Ag. students during the earlier years of our marriage she was an occasional substitute for me and they soon found that "she knew what it was about" and they respected her teaching.

During the nine years we were at Norborne our F.F.A. Chapter had the top livestock exhibits at the State Fair and she and one or two of the student's mothers accompanied us and managed camp and cooked for as many as 25 boys during the week.

There was one notable exception to this - Aug. 20, 1941 the day the Governor of Mo. awarded the Norborne Chapter Trophy she was too busy - a 10 lb. baby boy was born. We named him Don Alfred Thornton.

Tommy Wayne, born May 28, 1936, was past five years old and was already accompanying me on project visitations.

Leta took an active part in community and social affairs and belonged to the Monday Club, Eastern Stars and P.E.O.

In the meantime we had purchased a 200 a. farm adjoining her father (Boone Owens) at Maysville and had started our registered Hampshire sheep flock and reg. Angus cattle. We added a 240 a. in 1943 and decided to devote full time to farming so resigned from Norborne H.S. and moved to Maysville.

Maysville H.S. had lost their ag. teacher and the Supt. asked me to teach for the duration of the war and until ag.

teachers were available (3 yrs).

When the war was over and the Veterans On Farm Training program was established I was asked to organize and teach a class for another 9 years.

Tommy and Don both attended grade and high school at Maysville and were active 4-H and FFA members and showed Hampshire sheep and Angus steers at local fairs and livestock shows.

Tommy graduated from Mo. Univ. Ag. College and was commissioned a Lieutenant in the Army in '58. He had married Dixie Howell, his high school sweetheart and they spent the next 21 years in service, including two tours of duty in Germany as a pilot of the smaller planes and two tours in Viet Nam as a helicopter pilot where he was awarded the Purple Heart, Distinguished Flying Cross, Bronze Star Medal, and Air Medal with 39 Oak Leaf Clusters. He retired Jan. '80 as Lieutenant Colonel and came back to his farm which he had purchased from his grandfather Thornton's heirs and has just completed a new home.

Anna Janeese, born Sept. 16, 1959 at Enterprise, Ala. attended Jr. College in Florida and Mo. Western State College at St. Joseph, Mo., and is now working and living at St. Joseph, Mo.

Philip James born Apr. 24, 1965 at Lawton, Ok. attended grade schools at Springfield, Mo. and Enterprize, Ala., and entered Maysville High School in the fall of '79 where he made the high honor roll and was elected president of the sophomore class for this fall. He also won the DeKalb Co. Demonstration placque at the 4-H achievement day and demonstrated at the Mo. State Fair in Aug. '80.

During his senior year in Maysville High, Don developed an exhibit on Solar Energy which won regional honors at the Science Fair at St. Joseph Jr. College and won him and his teacher a trip to Hartford, Conn. for National competition.

He entered M.U. that fall and took Engineering. He married Virginia Duebbert Sept. 14, 1963 and upon graduation they moved to Independence, Mo. and he took a job with Vendo until he got an opportunity to go with Gen. Electric to work as a designing engineer on jet motors for the big planes in Cincinnatti, O.

Cynthia Louise born Aug. 22, 1964 and Mary Elizabeth born May 14, '66 were nearing school age when Don surprised his training supervisor who was giving a pep talk on goals asked him what he wanted to be in 5 years. Don told him he had given it some thought and concluded that he wanted to own a farm, be his own boss, give his daughters the same kind of opportunity he had had to breathe clean air, develop skills and have responsibilities and grow up as a family. He was tired of the "Rat Race", bumper-to-bumper traffic, Union Labor that limited his designs in the plant by requiring several different men work on jobs that he could do himself. Most of his designs were developed in his own basement work shop unhampered by outside interference.

To make a long story shorter, he has his farm, (formerly owned by his grandfather Owens) Virginia and the girls enjoy training and showing horses, winning trophies, developing and showing Angus cattle, F-H activities, livestock judging, high school band, etc. (Mary just won high individual honors in the Mo. State Fair livestock judging contest and high point ind. on swine - Aug. '80). It would take a page of your book to enumerate their accomplishments in the past 3 years including Donna, born Oct. 28, 1976.

Back to Leta - To our many friends in the Angus business over the past 44 years she is recognized as my working partner and constant companion at sales, shows, association meetings and anywhere Angus enthusiasts meet.

To her P.E.O. sisters she is the pillar of stability and dependability.

To her paint classes she is an artist of rare ability.

To her family she can do anything she sets her mind to and we all Love her.

Louin"

Died: 13 Jan. 1955, buried Oak Lawn Cemetery, Maysville, Missouri

"ROBERT C. OWENS SERVICES SUNDAY. Funeral services were held Sunday January 16 at the First Baptist Church in Maysville for Robert C. Owens, who passed away at the home of his son J. W. Owens here Thursday. Services were conducted by the Rev. Harland Ginn, of Excelsior Springs, assisted by Rev. Wm. Heriford, local pastor ... The Pallbearers were J. B. Owens, Bert Bradford, Luther Owens, Raymond Dale Gawatz, Leroy Schreiber and Norman Conner. Interment was in the Oak Lawn cemetery under direction of the Pilcher funeral home of Maysville.

Robert Cross Owens, son of John Brooks and Ethleen Best Owens, was born January 1, 1883 near Fairport, Mo. He departed this life Thurs. evening, Jan. 13, 1955, aged 72 years and 12 days.

On March 15, 1924 he was united in marriage to Mathilda Catherine Schreiber. To this union one son, John William was born. Besides his wife and son he is also survived by one daughter, Mrs. Ethleen Riddle of Kansas City, Mo, by a previous marriage. He is further survived by one granddaughter, Martha Louise Riddle, and two grandsons, Estel William and Wayne Lee Owens; one sister Mrs. John Ed Campbell, Maysville; one brother John B. Owens, Jr., of King City, several nieces and nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents and two brothers, Boone and Clay Owens.

Mr. Owens spent most of his life as a farmer in DeKalb county. About ten years ago he suffered cerebral thrombosis and had been in frail health since. Two days before his death he went to the home of his son and daughter-in-law in Maysville and while his condition was thought to be serious at that time, he became alarmingly worse only three hours before his death.

He united with the Hopewell Baptist Church in 1942.

He was a member of the Masonic lodge here for 49 years, and had served his lodge as master in 1924. He attended meetings as regularly as his health permitted.

Mr. Owens was a devoted husband and father and was always willing to help those in need regardless of his own burdens and chores. His ways will always be missed by those who loved him."

"CLAY OWENS DROWNS IN COLORADO RIVER. Loses His Life in Hunting Accident. Son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Owens of this City went West 13 Years Ago and Entered employ of Santa Fe R.R.

A telegram was received Sunday morning by Boone Owens, northeast of Maysville, bearing the sad news of the death of Clay Owens, his brother. The telegram was from Mrs. Ethel Owens, wife of Clay and stated that Mr. Owens had met his death by drawning in the Colorado river near Needles, California, while on a hunting trip, that the body has not yet been recovered and a letter with more details would follow.

Clay Owens was forty-four years of age, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Owens of this city. His father is nearing 90 years of age and his mother nearing 80 and this is the first break in the family circle.

He was born on the old Owens homestead four miles northeast of Fairport, December 26, 1890, and lived there until grown. He married Miss Irma Sweat of Pattonsburg and moved to Daviess county. Four children were born of this union and still survive him.

He had been a farmer in DeKalb and Daviess counties until he went west 13 years ago and entered the employ of the Santa Fe Railroad company as fireman. He held that position at the time of his death. He married again after going to California, and the family home is at Needles.

He is a member of the Masonic Order. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ethel Owens, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Owens of this city, one sister, Mrs. John E. Campbell and three brothers, A. B. Owens, J. B. Owens Jr., and R. C. Owens all of this county.

His last visit here occurred in 1933. He was unable to attend the Best family reunion held here last year, but Mrs. Owens came from California in October to attend this annual affair."

"BODY OF CLAY OWENS IS FOUND IN WESTERN RIVER. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Owens Have a Letter Bearing News of the Discovery. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Owens of Maysville have a letter from California giving them the information that the body of their son Clay Owens has been found. It will be recalled that some weeks ago word came here that Clay had drowned while out fishing, and that his body had not been recovered. Following is the letter received a few days ago by the parents here:

Needles, Calif., April 10, 1935

Three months ago I wrote to you about your son's death, and now I am writing again about the same thing.

Last Sunday morning, April 7th,at Parker, a gang of men were going to work and, as they were crossing the river bridge, saw a body rolling with the current. They let four men stop to recover it and they had to go two miles down the river before they were successful. By the switch key among his other keys, he was identified as Clay Owens. They wired Mrs. Owens and by that time it was eleven o'clock.

It was absolutely impossible to do anything but bury him immediately. There is an undertaker at Parker and he arrived here at one o'clock with the body. Mr. Hull, the man that was with him when he drowned and Mr. Nettleton, who hunted with him, identified his clothes. His watch was stopped at 9:22 which is probabbly the time of his death. The keys and watch is all they took. The law forbade them bringing the body inside the city limits, so they started his grave right away and buried him before the funeral services. It was seven o'clock by the time the funeral services began. There was a large attendance, in fact nearly everyone in town who knew him, and that was a lot of people.

The services were in charge of the Masons and it was strictly Masonic.

The grave was banked with green pepper boughs and there were lots of flowers.

They made quite a large mound and it was covered with wreaths of roses, stocks, nasturtiums, daisies and every kind of flowers in bloom this time of the year, and they all came from Needles. Really it was remarkable to have such a nice funeral in so short a time. The cemetery here is on the east side of town and this time of the year is covered with a purple wild flower. Clay's grave is near the front. In the last few years, water has been piped to the cemetery and trees have been started, so really it is a nice cemetery and well kept. That was the only thing that could be done with his body. Of course this has been another hard shock, but I really believe Mrs. Owens is going to feel better now that she knows where he is, and we hope you folks will too. It is very unusual to find a body in this river. It has been three months and Parker is eighty miles from Needles by way of the river. It was just a chance that those men saw him as they crossed the bridge.

Mrs. Owens is not very well; she is awful nervous and has been trying to write since Sunday, but she just cannot, so I offered to do it for her.

CHAPTER IX

THE GEORGE FAMILY

The history of our line of Georges is extremely confusing. We have proven several bits of information to be true and we have proven several of the legendary stories to be completely inaccurate. The area between the truths and the inaccuracies have been exceedingly difficult to give any appreciable credence.

We feel that the information we are including in this book is relatively accurate, as far as our research has been able to prove.

JOHN L. GOERGE

Born: abt. 1823 to 1825, Lincoln Co., Kentucky
Married: 30 Nov. 1843 to Mary E. BRITTON, Henry Co., Missouri
Died: abt. 1848-1849, Henry Co., Missouri
Buried: The old Combs Cemetery, Calhoun, Missouri
Children of John L. GEORGE and Mary E. BRITTON, 1, listed below:

I. Mary Elizabeth GEORGE
Born: 10 Mar. 1846, Henry Co., Missouri
Married: 14 Oct. 1869 to Robert Cross OWENS
Died: 21 Feb. 1923, Calhoun, Henry Co., Missouri
Buried: Old Combs Cemetery, Calhoun, Missouri
Children of Mary E. GEORGE and Robert Cross OWENS, listed in the Chapter with the OWENS family.

John L. GEORGE was an aggressive young man. In his possession was a great deal of property both personal and real. However, it is shown by the probate record at the time of his death, that he owed many debts and actually owned very little debt free.

He died at a very young age and his probate was under the direction of his father, William C. GEORGE as Administrator. This information is proven by records from "Henry County, Missouri, Abstract of Wills and Administrations 1835-1865" which states as follows: "John George, Died intestate. Adm: William C. George appt. 13 Feb. 1849. Sec: John Goff and Henry Banta, pages 157, 227, 292, 328, 146."

Another record from the same source as above: "Isaac Goff, appt. gdn. of Mary E. George, minor heir of John George, dec., 23 Nov. 1852. Sec: Cornelius East, p. 145".

From the source listed above: "William C. George appt. gdn. of Mary Elizabeth George, minor heir of John George, Dec. Feb. Term 1853. Sec: E. C. George and Benjn. Putnam, page 57".

Still another quote from the same source: "Elizabeth Britton files for a summons to issue against Isaac Goff to appear to show cause why a guardian should not be appointed to take charge of Mary E. George, infant dau. of John George, dec. May Term 1851, page 318, Book B.

We found in the 1850 Census Records of Henry Co., Missouri that Mary Elizabeth GEORGE was living with Isaac GOFF and Elizabeth George GOFF, and that she was 4 years old at that time.

We also found her living with the GOFFS on the 1860 Census of Henry Co., Missouri and listed her age then as 14 years old.

The 1870 Census records did not show her living with the GOFFS at that time, as she was married to Robert Cross OWENS 14 Oct. 1869.

These records appear to be conclusive proof that John L. GEORGE was the father of Mary Elizabeth GEORGE, who at that time was an infant daughter of John L. GEORGE, who was deceased.

We have a copy of the death certificate from the State of Missouri for Mary Elizabeth George OWENS, showing that her father was John L. GEORGE, born in Kentucky, and her mother was Mary E. BRITTON, born in Virginia.

In another court action as late as 1896, Feb. Term of Probate Court for the estate of William C. GEORGE, we read: "Estate of Wm. C. GEORGE, W. G. George, Administrator, vs. Estate of John L. George .....Tns 42 - R 24 which said land, Estate of Wm. C. George, said John L. George, being his son...."

From the statement previous, we see that in court, Wm. C. GEORGE was referred to as the father of John L. GEORGE.

Although we know that there were two William G. GEORGES, one was a son of William C. GEORGE and Eliza COLLINS. By the census of 1850 of Henry County, Missouri, we read:

|---|---|---|---|
| William C. George | 42 | M. | Va. |
| Delia | 29 | F. | Va. |
| Jane M. | 9 | F. | Mo. |
| John L. | 8 | M. | Mo. |
| Sidney | 5 | F. | Mo. |
| William G. | 3 | M. | Mo. |
| John George | 87 | M. | Va. |

This Delia was undoubtedly Adelia HOPKINS whom William C. GEORGE married 29 Nov. 1849, Henry County, Missouri, after Eliza COLLINS died 20 Aug. 1847 leaving four children: Jane, John, Sidney and William G to be raised. Adelia HOPKINS became the step-mother of these four children.

The John GEORGE at the bottom of the 1850 Census record was the father of William C. GEORGE then making his home with William C. GEORGE.

It is also very interesting to note that William C. GEORGE named his first, and only son by his first marriage (wife's name uncertain) John L. GEORGE. After he was married to Eliza COLLINS he named his second child, by Eliza COLLINS, John L. GEORGE. This second John L. GEORGE was born about 1842. William's first son, John L. GEORGE, was at that time mature and away from home. In fact he was married 30 Nov. 1843 to Mary E. BRITTON.

It was the second John L. GEORGE (born to Eliza COLLINS) who later served in the Civil War.

In still another court action, we find that William GEORGE, appointed 7 Nov. 1859, guardian of Mary Jane, John, Sidney and William George, minors, Sec: Garland COLLINS and William COLLINS. There was an earlier action, dated 5 Nov. 1857 where William GEORGE was appointed guardian of Mary Jane, John, Sidney and William George, with Sec: Elberton C. George and John H. Calender.

In checking the 1850 Census Records of Henry Co., Missouri we learn that these children are the children of William C. GEORGE and Eliza COLLINS, who he married 21 Nov. 1839, and who died 20 Aug. 1847. Now it appears that he was not previously the guardian of his own children after the death of Eliza COLLINS, their mother, or if he was, why it was necessary to go through the courts to establish his legal right to their guardianship.

William C. GEORGE married Adelia HOPKINS, Nov. 29, 1849, more than two years after Eliza died. There were two children born to this marriage.

Although it has no bearing on our historical sketch, it is reasonable to believe that Garland COLLINS and William COLLINS (who were the securities for the aforestated appointment of guardianship) were brothers, or a father and a brother, of Eliza COLLINS, and that perhaps one of them was the guardian of the four children in question, prior to the above named court action.

MARY E. BRITTON

Born: abt. 1825 in Virginia
Married: 30 Nov. 1843 to John L. GEORGE, Henry Co., Missouri (Proof, copy of their marriage record from Henry County Court Records)
Died: Although we feel that she must have died in childbirth, we have no proof. She did not, however, re-appear in the records thereafter in so far as we have been able to determine in our research.

We are reasonably sure that Mary E. BRITTON was the eldest child of Thomas BRITTON and Elizabeth BRITTON, shown in the 1850 Census of Henry Co., Missouri #28, page 4, which reads:

Britton, Thomas, 42, farmer, male, born Virginia
Elizabeth, 44, female, born Virginia
Thomas W., 22, male, born Virginia
Martha E., 19, female, born Virginia
Sarah F., 17, female, born Virginia
Verenda C., 10, female, born, Missouri
Lilas W., 8, male, born Missouri

For numerous reasons we feel sure Mary E. BRITTON was the eldest child of this family and was married to John L. GEORGE on 30 Nov. 1843. This being true she would not have been listed with the family of Thomas and Elizabeth BRITTON in the 1850 Census.

A further assurance is that there is no record of any other BRITTON family having been in Henry Co., Missouri previously or at that time, and an Elizabeth BRITTON filed suit for the guardianship of Mary E. George, as reported in preceding paragraphs.

Still another reasonable sign is that Mary Elizabeth GEORGE (who married Robert Cross OWENS) named her youngest daughter Theodosia Verenda, the "Verenda" being also the name of the youngest daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth BRITTON.

Our clue as to where she fit in the BRITTON family is the fact that her marriage license and marriage was 30 Nov. 1843, at which time we think she was probably 17 years old. Had she been a year younger than Thomas W. BRITTON, she would have been only 14 years old at the time of her marriage. This is possible, but not probable.

Again let us refer to the probate records where Elizabeth BRITTON filed for a summons to issue against Isaac GOFF to appear to show cause why a guardian should not be appointed to take charge of Mary E. GEORGE, infant dau. of John GEORGE, dec. May Term 1851, page 318, Book B. We are thus assuming that the above named Elizabeth BRITTON would be the maternal grandmother of Mary E. GEORGE.

All of the afore mentioned reasonings appear to point to the following probability: Mary E. BRITTON was the eldest child of Thomas BRITTON and Elizabeth BRITTON. She was born about 1825. She was married 30 Nov. 1843. She was the mother of Mary Elizabeth GEORGE, who was born 10 Mar. 1846, and that she died at a very young age, possibly in childbirth.

It is a definite fact that William C. GEORGE was married still another time prior to his marriage to Eliza COLLINS in Missouri.

If John L. GEORGE was his son, and he was married 30 Nov.

1843, and if William C. GEORGE married Eliza COLLINS, Nov. 21, 1839, John L. GEORGE was married only 4 years after William C. GEORGE married Eliza COLLINS - hence an impossibility that John L. GEORGE was a son of Eliza COLLINS.

We have searched and researched the records of Kentucky where William C. GEORGE lived and where John L. GEORGE was born and we have been unable to find who the first wife of William C. GEORGE, mother of John L. GEORGE, was.

We do have a record of a William GEORGE marrying an Elizabeth WOODALL, in Lincoln Co., Kentucky, however this seems highly imporbable that this marriage is the one we are seeking, since Elizabeth WOODALL was a widow at the time and William C. GEORGE (who was born Sept. 25, 1806) would have been less than 14 years old at the time of this license.

Be that as it may, here is the license as it was received from the Lincoln County Clerk, Lincoln Co., Kentucky, Stanford, Kentucky: (This was the only license to marry issued to any William GEORGE in Lincoln County, Kentucky between 1820-1825)

"Know all men by these presents that we William George and John Woodall are held and firmly bound unto the commonwealth of Kentucky in the penal sum of L50 for the payment of which will and truly to be made we bond ourselves our heirs and jointly and severally firmly by their presents sealed with our seal and dated the 9th day of August 1820 whereas there is a license about to issue for a marriage intended between the above bound William George and Elizabeth Woodall, now should there be no lawful cause to obstruct said marriage then the above obligation to be void else to remain in full force and virtue.

Teste — William George (sign)
W.G. Shackleford — John Woodall (sign)"

(An exact copy, xeroxed, is in the possession of Thomas A. and Edna C. Taylor)

Whether this was the marriage we were searching for, we will probably never be sure. But the fact has to be that William C. GEORGE was the father of John L. GEORGE, who was born in Lincoln Co., Kentucky. Moreover, William C. GEORGE did live in Lincoln Co., Kentucky at that time.

I now rest my case, assured that should the above license not be the one we were searching for, I will never be able to locate the correct license.

WILLIAM CHANDLER GEORGE

Born: 25 Sept. 1806, Caroline Co., Virginia
Father: John GEORGE
Married: 9 Aug. 1820 (This may not be the marriage for which we are searching) to Elizabeth WOODALL, a widow
Children:1, listed below:

I. John L. GEORGE
Born: about 1823-1825, Lincoln Co., Kentucky

Married: 21 Nov. 1839 to Eliza COLLINS, Henry Co., Missouri, d. 20 Aug. 1847
Married: 29 Nov. 1849, Henry Co., Missouri to Adelia HOPKINS

Children of William C. GEORGE and Eliza COLLINS, 5, listed below:

I. Mary Jane George
Born: abt. 1841, Missouri

II. John L. George
Born: abt. 1842, Missouri

III. Sidney George
Born: abt. 1845, Missouri

IV. William G. George
Born: abt. 1848, Missouri

V. daughter

Children of William C. GEORGE and Adelia HOPKINS, 2, listed below:

I. Son

II. Son

The following is a copy of an article published in 1882 entitled "HISTORY OF HENRY COUNTY":

"WILLIAM C. GEORGE farmer, was born September 25, 1806, in Caroline County, Virginia. His father, John George, who was born in 1770 or 1771, in Pennsylvania, emigrated with his parents when fifteen years of age, to Madison County, Virginia. His father died when he was twenty years old. He then engaged as an overseer, and continued in that business fifteen years. He married Miss Mary J. Long, of Orange County, Virginia in 1803. They had ten children, four of whom are living. Mr. G. removed to Lincoln County, Kentucky, in 1816, and lived there until 1835, when he came to Rives County, Missouri. Mrs. George died about the year 1840, and after this her husband made his home among his children until his death in 1853.

William C. George was married November 21, 1839 to Miss Eliza Collins, of Henry County, Missouri. To them were born four children, now living. Mrs. George died August 20, 1847. November 20, 1849 he married Miss Adelia Hopkins, also of Henry County. To them were born two sons, one of whom is living. Mr. George's farm consisted of eighty acres. He added to this from time to time, until he became the owner of 620 acres. A large portion of this he has divided with his children. Although a man seventy-six years of age he is still of active habits, and slow to yield to the infirmities of age.

He and his wife, with two of his daughters and one son, are connected with the Mt. Olivet Baptist Church. His oldest son, John L. enlisted during the second year of the civil war, as private, and served in that capacity until the close of the war, participating in many battles with his company, C, Seventh Missouri Cavalry. Politically he is a Republican."

(NOTE: The above named oldest son, John L. GEORGE, had to have been the second John L. GEORGE in the family, the son of Eliza COLLINS. The John L. GEORGE, who was our great-grandfather, was deceased in 1849, according to probate records discussed previously.)

WILLIAM G. GEORGE

Born: 20 Jan. 1847, Missouri, - Springfield Township, Henry Co., Father: William Chandler GEORGE
Mother: Eliza COLLINS
Married: Rebecca STRIEBY, b. 1848, d. 1914
Died: 1 Dec. 1917

He received his education in the rural schools of the county and was a farmer for many years.

Children of William G. GEORGE and Rebecca STRIEBY, 6, listed below:

IV. Charles D. GEORGE
Born: 3 June 1869, Springfield Township, Henry Co., Missouri

(See sketch of Charles D. GEORGE which follows the listing of the children of Wm. G. GEORGE)

V. Ida J. GEORGE
Married: L. MUNDAY

VI. Lewis H. GEORGE
Born: 5 Dec. 1875, Calhoun, Henry Co., Missouri
Married: _____, b. 9 Sept. 1878, Calhoun, Missouri, d. 25 Nov. 1970, Calhoun, Missouri
Died: 14 Jan. 1957, Calhoun, Henry Co., Missouri

Children of Lewis H. GEORGE, 3, listed below:

A. Maynard L. GEORGE
Born: 26 Nov. 1901, Calhoun, Henry Co., Missouri
Married: 1 Nov. 1923, Clinton, Henry Co., Missouri to Roxie Jewell BRIGGS, dau. of Claude BRIGGS.
Married: 6 May 1967, Calhoun, Henry Co., Missouri to Mildred EAST

Maynard L. GEORGE has been closely associated with farming most of his life. He was a pioneer in that section of Missouri in the breeding of Registered Aberdeen-Angus Cattle and spent a life time at it.

He has been associated with Citizens State Bank, Calhoun, Missouri in some capacity since 1924 having been an employee for 18 years and is still on the Board of Directors

Children, 3, listed below:

1. Elizabeth Jewel GEORGE
Born: 22 Dec. 1925, Calhoun, Henry Co., Missouri

c. Heather Cochran

Great Grandchildren of Maynard L. GEORGE, 4 listed below:

a. Christi Lynn George
b. Christopher Alan George
c. Bryan Michael George
d. Laura Ann Hilton

B. E. Lorene GEORGE

C. Lewis William GEORGE

The following is a history taken from a book entitled "HENRY COUNTY HISTORY" published in about 1919:

"CHARLES D. GEORGE, one of the foremost educators of Henry County, is a native of this county and of Henry County pioneer ancestry. Mr. George, now principal of the Calhoun High School, has for many years been a teacher in the district and high schools of this State, as well as schools in New Mexico and California. He was born June 3, 1869 in Springfield township, Henry County, a son of William G. and Rebecca (Strieby) George. William G. George was born in Springfield township in February, 1847, and received his education in the rural schools of the county and was a farmer for many years. Rebecca (Strieby) George was born in 1848. William G. and Rebecca (Strieby) George were the parents of six children, as follows: The eldest died in infancy; Charles, subject of this sketch; Ida, wife of L. Munday, is deceased; Lewis, lives in Springfield township, Henry County; and two who died in infancy. William George died December 1, 1917, and his wife departed this life in 1914.

William G. George was a son of William C. and Eliza (Collins) George, the former born in West Virginia September 25, 1806, the son of John George, born in Pennsylvania in 1770, who moved to Madison County, Virginia, in 1821 and there remained the rest of his life. (Note: we have record of him having moved to Missouri and spending his last years in the home of his son, William C. George).

William C. George came to Lincoln County, Kentucky in 1816 and in 1835 came to Henry County, Missouri. He homesteaded in Springfield township and followed the life of the average pioneer farmer. November 21, 1839, he married Eliza Collins, a native of Missouri. Three sons and two daughters were born to this union. William C. George was a soldier in the Mexican War and endured all of the privations incident to the pioneer life. He was a successful farmer and stockman and at the time of his death he owned 620 acres of land.

Charles D. George was reared on the farm and received his early education in the district schools of Henry County and afterwards, in 1889, he entered the State Normal School of Warrensburg, Missouri....."

WILLIAM G. GEORGE
(Son of Elberton C. GEORGE)

Born: 30 Aug. 1857, Springfield Township, Henry Co., Missouri
Married: 27 Feb. 1882 to Sallie J. GIRDNER (widow of Dr. W. J. GIRDNER) of Davies County, Missouri. She had one daughter by her former marriage: Fanny Girdner

The following is taken from the "HISTORY OF HENRY COUNTY, 1882":

"At the age of 20 years he entered the Clinton Academy where he remained for six months. Then he was under the instruction of Prof. W. H. Stahl for two years, graduating in his twenty-second year with honors. After leaving the academy he resumed his duties as instructor and has steadily been occupied in his profession since that time. His father, Elberton C. George, a farmer and stock raiser by calling was born July 10, 1814, in Caroline County, Virginia, and emigrated from Kentucky to Henry County, Missouri about 1835. He married Miss Elizabeth Goff, of Henry Co., October 31, 1839. By this union there were five daughters and three sons, living. William George was married February 27, 1882 to Miss Sallie J. (widow of Dr. W. J. Girdner) of Davies County, Missouri.

Mrs. G. has one daughter by her former marriage, Fanny Girdner, four years of age. Mr. George is a member of the A. F. andA. M. He is also identified with the Mr. Olivet Baptist Church. His political views are democratic."

Elberton C. GEORGE was appt. May Term 1849 as gdn. for Isaac GOFF a minor, Sec: William Goff and Cornelius East, page 161. This appointment leads to the discovery that Elberton C. GEORGE was a brother to William C. GEORGE, and an uncle to John L. GEORGE.

JOHN GEORGE

Born: 1770 or 1771 in Pennsylvania
Married: 1803 to Mary J. LONG of Orange Co., Virginia. Died 1840
Died: 1853.

He emigrated with his parents, when about 15 years old, to Madison County, Virginia. This was about 1785.

Children of John GEORGE and Mary J. LONG, 10, listed below:

I. William Chandler GEORGE
Born: 25 Sept. 1806. (See section WILLIAM CHANDLER GEORGE)

II. Elberton C. GEORGE
Born: 10 July, 1814. (Refer to information above)

III to X. It is on record that John GEORGE and Mary J. LONG had ten children. We have been unable to locate or identify any of them other than William Chandler and Elberton C. GEORGE.

CHAPTER X

THE KEYSER CLAN

Origin of the Family and Meaning of the Name

Ancient European and early American records show some thirty variations in the spelling of our family name, as follows: Kaiser, Kaisar, Kaisor, Kaisur, Kaysar, Kayser, Keasur, Keisar, Keiser, Keisur, Keisser, Keysar, Keyser, Keysor, Keyzer, Kieser, Kisear, Kiser, Kisar, Kisor, Kisur, Kizer, Kizier, Kizor, Kysar, Kyser, Kysere, Kysar, Kysur and Kyzer. The 1790 census alone showed twenty variations. Many of the variations in America are no doubt a carry over of miss-spellings which are often found in various church records, legal documents, census and tax records. Probably some people, upon arrival here, adopted their own way of spelling their surname in English. Others, even of the same family, have in some instances used different spellings, or changed the spelling, making it difficult to trace their descendants as well as their ancestors.

The name Keyser is said to have been derived from the German word meaning "emperor" and, while not necessarily denoting nobility of rank, to have referred to one of noble character. Its derivation is the same as that of the name Caesar.

Probably all branches of the Family are of Germanic origin and, in many cases, of common ancestry at a remote period. Families of this name were found at early dates in Switzerland, Austria, Bavaria, Prussia, Flanders, Belgium and innumerable cities and provinces of Germany, as well as at later dates in France and England.

The Family in America

The first of this name in America are believed to be the brothers George and Thomas Keiser, who are said to have come from England (to which place they or their ancestors had probably emigrated from Germany) to this country some time before 1638, making their home in Massachusetts.

The Dutch family of Keyser is said to have descended from the Bavarian line, and was represented here in the seventeenth century by one Gerrit Keyser who made his home in Amsterdam. It was one of his grandsons, Dirck who immigrated to America in 1688 and settled in Germantown, a suburb of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This branch is probably the best known Keyser "family". Others came at various times and settled in various places.

Mary Isabell KEYSER married James Archer TAYLOR. This brought two pioneer families together. Both families were important in the formation of the nation, their state and community. They were descendants of prominent immigrants to the United States. They came as industrious, enthusiastic, tenacious people prone to conquer the untamed, virgin wilderness and change it into productive farm land, forming townships, counties and states.

They were always willing to work and fight for that which was right. Most of them were God-fearing people and many were ordained ministers.

We find their progeny occupying the land of Virginia, Kentucky, Arkansas, and Missouri in the early days. Later they have spread to every state in the union and fought in every war in which the United States was ever engaged.

JACOB KEYSER

Born: 16 Dec. 1812, Sandy Hook, Luray, Page Co., Virginia
Father: Noah KEYSER, b. 2 Jan. 1786, Shenandoah, Page Co., Virginia, m. 14 Mar. 1809 to Ann ROADS, d. Aug. 1842

SUSAN FRANCIS BURNER
(First wife of Jacob KEYSER)

Born: 9 Apr. 1815, Luray, Page Co., Virginia
Married: Jacob KEYSER, 22 Jan. 1839
Father: John Roads BURNER
Mother: Elizabeth STRICKLER
Died: 23 Mar. 1852, Boonville, Cooper Co., Missouri

Although Jacob KEYSER worked as a mercantile dealer in Cooper Co., Missouri for a while, he was a farmer first in Page Co., Virginia and then migrated to Cooper Co., Missouri. Married in 1839 south of Boonville, Missouri, near Bunceton where he continued to farm for many more years.

He did, however, move to New Franklin, Howard Co., Missouri in 1855 after he married Virginia Ann Chandler FIELDS, and he lived there until the Civil War of 1860-1864. The family then moved to Fayette, Howard Co., Missouri, where Jacob KEYSER died 17 Mar. 1895.

The following are three obituaries from local papers in Missouri at the time of the death of Jacob KEYSER:

"OCTOGENARIAN GONE. The Venerable and Respected Jacob Keyser Passes Away Sunday, March 17, at 6:15 a.m.

The number of old men dropping off, just as the coming of spring is promising the flush of renewed vigor to the greater part of humanity, was increased, Sunday, by the death of the old pioneer, Jacob Keyser. He died at his home in this city at 6:15 a.m.

He was revered and esteemed for his honesty, piety and good heart, and although ripe in years, his loss will be perceptibly felt. It seems sad and strange for him to no longer be a citizen of Fayette, and that his mortal frame should now have no location but the cemetery. But it is the way of earth. He was at least ready, and carried home the sheaves of a well-reaped harvest with him.

Jacob Keyser, born in Page county, Virginia, December 16, 1812, came to Missouri in 1836 and spent two years, but went back to Virginia, and in January 1839, was married to Miss Susan F. Burner, and returned and settled in Cooper county, 12 miles southwest of Boonville, where his first wife died in 1852.

There were eight children of this union, of whom four, John N. Keyser, Miss Nannie Keyser, Miss Jennie Keyser and Joseph Linn Keyser survive.

Mr. Keyser's second wife was the widow of John W. Fields, and after this marriage, which occurred in February 1855, he came and settled at Old Franklin, and resided in Howard county up to the time of his death. Of the six children of the second wife, five survive: Leroy C. Keyser, Edward R. Keyser, R. Emmett Keyser, Wm. A. Keyser and Mrs. Eugene Sutherland.

Mr. Keyser joined the Baptist church early, before he left Virginia, and has been one of its pillars all his life, and was deacon at the Baptist church in this place at the time he was called away from his earthly trusts. The funeral took place today at the Baptist church at 2 O'clock and was largely attended. The services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. Dr. L. H. Shuck who was assisted by Rev. J. M. Coleman, a resident minister of the Baptist church. The burial followed at the city cemetery the remains being followed to their last resting place by a large concourse of sorrowing friends."

"Gone To His Rest. Mr. Jacob Keyser, and Old and Honored Citizen, Passes Away.

In the death of Mr. Jacob Keyser, Fayette and Howard County lose one of their best christian gentlemen. His life was ever characterized by the strictest integrity and fidelity. His church loses one of its most zealous members and workers for Christ. His christian example is worthy of emulation.

Joseph Linn Keyser, son of Jacob Keyser

Mr. Keyser has been in failing health for nearly a year past. His Master called him home just at the dawn of a beautiful Sabbath day, March 17th. He was born December 16, 1812, in Page county, Va. At the age of 24 years he came to Missouri and remained about two years when he returned to Virginia and in January 1839, he was united in marriage to Miss Susan Frances Burner. He returned to Missouri and settled on a farm in Cooper County about 12 miles southwest of Boonville. Of this union were born eight children, four of whom survive, viz: John N., Misses Nannie and Jennie, and Joseph L. Keyser. Mrs. Keyser died in 1852.

In February 1855, Mr. Keyser was married to the widow of Dr. John W. Field. During the same year he came to New Franklin, this county, and engaged in the mercantile business until 1860, when he removed to a farm near that place. Of this last union six children were born, and Leroy C., Edward R., R. Emmett, Wm. A. Keyser and Mrs. J. E. Sutherland, survive. In the fall of 1869 Mr. Keyser moved to a farm near Fayette and continued to farm until 1890 when he removed to Fayette where he continued to live until his death.

In early youth Mr. Keyser was converted and joined the Baptist church and was a deacon and pillar in the church for more than 40 years. His reputation was untarnished and the world was made better by his having lived in it. The funeral occurred Monday afternoon at the Baptist church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Shuck, assisted by Rev. J. M. Coleman. The large course of friends in attendance attested the high esteem in which he was held. Peace to his ashes."

"Deacon Jacob Keyser. The Baptist of Fayette have sustained a severe loss in the death of this venerable and honored officer who for over half a century had been a faithful and useful Christian. He had been unusually active and vigorous for a man of his age until a few months ago when he was taken with his last illness. Bro. Keyser was eighty-two years old last December. He was a native of Page county, Virginia, but has been a resident of Howard county for forty years. For twenty-five years he has been a honored deacon of the Fayette Baptist church an office he filled with great acceptance to his brethren. His death occured last Sunday, March 17, 1895. Just before he breathed his last he endeavored to repeat the words of Paul in Romans 11th chapter 33, verse, "O the depth of the riches both of wisdom and knowledge of God." His funeral took place at the Baptist church, Monday, March 18th at 2 p.m. His Pastor Dr. L. H. Shuck conducted the services and delivered a fitting eulogy ..(the rest of this clipping is missing)"

The following is a copy of a letter written by Jacob KEYSER to his brother, Hampson KEYSER.

"Near Fayette-Howard Co.,
Missouri, 11th Mar. 1871

Bro. Hamp:

This leaves us in good health and plenty to eat. I would like much to have some fresh shad and some plaster of Paris to try to improve a rather poor farm I bought some 2½ miles north of Fayette, the county seat of Howard Co. Can't you ascertain the probable cost of a barrel of each? and let me know immediately. Does one of Sarah Biedler's sons still live at Alexandria. If so I will write to him. You can see from my writing that it is quite a task for me to write now. Hard work and age is beginning to tell upon me now very plainly. I would like you to get Col. Spitler to make a full statement of the Burner land sale and send it to me for the satisfaction of my children.

We have had some pretty weather in the last 10 days, but yesterday evening it began to rain and this morning the whole country is covered with snow and looks like the beginning of winter, though not very cold. Our wheat looks promising. I have one young colt, fold from yesterday morning, and I expect 2 more in about a month; have 3 young calves and have sold a cow and calf a week ago for $50.00. Pigs and lambs a fair number and "old Miss" has 13 young chickens and looking out for more soon. Would like to receive an acc't. of how our Bros. and sisters are getting along with any other information you can think of. Are you acquainted with Mr. Gideon Brown, if so where does he live and c and c? I have heard nothing from Mary I. Taylor for a long time. If you hear from her let me know. Jno., Nannie and Linn are at home. Eliza Jane has been at Col. Chas. Cullers in Cooper Co., Mo. more than a year. Present me kindly to Sister and the babes and believe me affectionately,
Write very soon.

Your Eldest Bro.,
Jacob Keyser

(Note: Sarah Biedler was his sister, who married Milton Biedler and lived in Page Co. Mary I. Taylor was his daughter and married to James Archer Taylor, Jn., Nannie, Linn and Eliza Jane were his youngest surviving children by his first wife.)

The following is information which was attached to a counterpane woven by Susan Francis Burner, and is now in the possession of Joseph E. KEYSER, Portland, Oregon, a great grandson:

"This counterpane was woven by Susan Frances Burner 1815-1852, my paternal grandmother.

She was born in Page County, Virginia and lived there until her marriage to Jacob Keyser, 1812-1895, in January 1839. Following the wedding they migrated overland to Cooper County, Missouri where they settled on a homestead near Bunceton, Missouri. My father, Joseph Linn Keyser, 1847-1934, was their fifth child.

Before their marriage in Virginia, the bride had carded and spun and dyed the wool for the woof and had had woven this counterpane.

Signed Charles Paul Kayser 1878
Portland, Oregon, Jan. 4, 1964"

The following four pages are copies of handwritten manuscripts taken from the family bible of Jacob Keyser now in the possession of Joseph E. Keyser (a great grandson) of Portland, Oregon

Children of Jacob KEYSER and Susan F. BURNER, 8, listed below:

I. Mary Isabell KEYSER

The information on Mary Isabell KEYSER is given in Chapter II with that of James Archer TAYLOR.

II. John Newton KEYSER

Born: 17 Sept. 1841, Old Palestine, near Bunceton, Cooper Co., Missouri
Married: 20 Dec. 1887 at Louisiana, Missouri at the home of friends to Ida Frank MILLER, b. 18 Feb. 1856, Mountain Green, Virginia, (the same year that commercial Baking Powder went on the market). d. 31 Jan. 1941
Died: 29 June 1912, buried Fayette City Cemetery, Fayette, Missouri

The following is information received from Ida Elizabeth HUNTER, granddaughter of John N. KEYSER:

"John N. and Ida KEYSER didn't live alone too much even though they were married almost 25 years before his death in the summer of 1912. Nannie and Jennie lived with them much of the time. So did Jacob KEYSER's second wife in her deaf and widowed old age. They sometimes had a live-in farmer's hired hand. Leland and Henry Cake TAYLOR lived with them a couple of years at least, to help the financial burdens of their parents. John and Ida KEYSER were a good example of an extended family in four or five rooms.

Ida Miller KEYSER came from a family that had had 35 or 40 slaves, counting the children, and some socio-economic standing.

Miss Nannie KEYSER was also from an old Virginia family, but a poor, plain, perfectionist school teacher. Ida wanted to get teacups with handles. Nannie wanted ones made without handles. She said the boys (Leland and Henry) would just knock them off. (I think they got the ones with handles).

Miss Jennie lacked some of the natural and acquired leadership traits of her sister, Nannie, and her sister-in-law, Ida. She had some interests of her own, though, including searching for her ancestors, the physiology of the human body and hygiene, and playing the guitar. She also read the Bible through over 80 times.

John Newton's wife, Ida MILLER, taught school a while. She attended Hollins College in the state of Virginia when it was called Hollins Institute. She taught school in the Blue Ridge Mountains, not too far from her home, for 9 years. She had some discipline problems, of course, and I have heard her say that she could hardly hear some of the pupils say their lessons for watching the lice crawl on their heads. I think these were white pupils of varying ages and finances.

John and Ida KEYSER and their family picked enough blackberries on their farm, Church View, near Fayette, to make a second trip to the World's Fair in St. Louis in 1904.

They went on the train. They met Willie BENTON from Virginia (the husband of Ida's youngest sister) and some of his children there. Movies then were called 'Magic lanterns'. There were some cars in the streets and they attracted more attention than some of the exhibits.

My mother, Fannie, 15, had the high cheekbones and brunette coloring of the BURNERS. Some indians at the fair allowed her to handle some of their exhibit articles that none of the others could. Did she have some indian? Did they feel she did?

Fannie Browning asked her mother if they could go back again to the World's Fair. Her mother said they could if they could pick enough wild blackberries in July to pay their way. They all, including Aunt Nannie, worked hard and did get enough for train and hotel fares. They went back for a few days in October 1904, financed by berries."

Children of John N. KEYSER and Ida F. MILLER, 2, listed below:

A. Fannie Browning KEYSER
Born: 28 Nov. 1888, Fayette, Missouri
Married: 30 May 1916 to John William CRESON, b. 27 July 1888 near Burton, Howard Co., Missouri. d. 8 Apr. 1967
Died: 15 May 1966, just a few days short of her 50th Wedding Anniversary

John CRESON was a man who never cared to use the name William. He even signed up for sugar rationing during World War II as "X" no middle name. CRESON is an unusual name, and not listed at all in the St. Louis phone directory. It is pronounced "Cree-sonne" with a sort of emphasis on the first and last syllables both. John was a small farmer.

Fannie Browning KEYSER was a school teacher at Higbee, Missouri. She graduated from high school at Fayette, Missouri in 1906. Between college and marriage, she taught a combination sixth and seventh grade, and finally was high school principal.

She taught every subject offered except agriculture, at one time or another. In her day, married women were all housewives. She was, even by reports from outside the family, a truly scholastically brilliant woman. She attended Howard-Payne College in Fayette, an ex-junior college for women. She graduated. Then in June 1912, she graduated from Central College, now Central Methodist College at Fayette, with a Bachelor of Arts Degree. Her major was in her beloved Chemistry. If she had been born when her grandchildren were, she would likely have been a physician, but in her day there was no place in small schools for even men chemistry teachers. Therefore, she taught about everything else.

John N. KEYSER died in the summer of 1912 before my parents ever met. I do know that he was a small, dark, moral man who wore a beard and appreciated weeds, trees, birds, etc. He couldn't help investing in patents and such schemes. (The above information was given to us by Fannie's daughter, Ida Elizabeth Hunter).

John W. CRESON and Fannie B. CRESON are buried in the Fayette Cemetery, Fayette, Missouri, as are also: John R. KEYSER, Ida Miller KEYSER, Nannie KEYSER, Jennie KEYSER, and 12 year old Virginia KEYSER, John's half-sister.

Children of John W. CRESON and Fannie B. KEYSER, 2,listed below:

1. Ida Elizabeth CRESON
   Born: 5 Oct. 1919 at Fayette, Howard Co., Missouri
   Married: 30 May 1946 to John Edward HUNTER, b. 24 Oct. 1924, Carrollton, Illinois.

   Ida Elizabeth was born on a farm which had been named Church View about 1892 or 1893 by John Newton KEYSER. She and John were married on Memorial Day and the Wedding Anniversary of John William CRESON and Fannie Browning KEYSER. Ida and John were divorced 5 Sept. 1974.

   Ida Elizabeth was a teacher and a housewife for much of her life. She is now a desk attendent for the University of Missouri. She has a B.S. Degree with a major in English and a minor in Sociology. She also has a M. S. Degree in Elementary Education.

   John Hunter was ordained to the ministry of the Southern Baptist Church 3 Apr. 1949. He did some prison preaching, and is now a guard in St. Louis. He lives in St. Louis with Vicki, his third wife, who is a native of the Phillippine Islands.

   Children of Ida E. CRESON and John E. HUNTER, 5, listed below:

   a. Abigail Florence HUNTER
      Born: 30 Jan. 1948
      Died: 31 Jan. 1948 (Born breech)

   b. John Franklin HUNTER
      Born: 11 Dec. 1950, Shawnee, Oklahoma
      Married: 29 Aug. 1970 to Sandra Earlene McGRAW, b. 1 Mar. 1947 in N. E. Arkansas. Raised in St. Louis Co.

      John F. HUNTER is a licensed minister. He preaches and does secular work. At present he is working at the State Mental Hospital at Fulton, Missouri. He was a soldier in World War II and served three years as a supply officer in Viet Nam. They live next door to Ida E. HUNTER, his mother.

He has his B.S. Degree from Columbia College in Columbia, Missouri. His wife, Sandra, is a housewife and does piano and choir work in their Church.

Children, 4, listed below:

b1. John Jeffrey Hunter, b. 30 Sept. 1972, Fort Bragg, North Carolina. He is John Hunter IV.

III. Ann "Nannie" Elizabeth KEYSER
Born: 13 Mar. 1844, Bunceton, Cooper Co., Missouri
Unmarried.
Died: 1922 at Fayette, Missouri
Buried: Fayette Cemetery, Howard Co., Missouri

The following information was given to us by Ida Elizabeth HUNTER, granddaughter of John N. KEYSER:

"Miss Nannie was a school teacher and taught Fannie Browning and Virginia at home until they were ready for about the fourth and sixth grades. She also taught them to sew, and made them pick out their stitches until they met her high standards.

I'll tell you a true anecdote of Nannie Keyser's death. Nannie, like several of the Keysers, was active in the First Baptist Church of Fayette. She went by train to the state Baptist convention in St. Louis, as a delegate. She became ill there, and died of pneumonia in October 1922.

Miss Nannie had had an embroidered white dress that she said she was going to be buried in. She had even "made it over" two or three times, so it wouldn't be so out of date. By the time her niece, Virginia Keyser Gander, got there from the next county (lo and behold) Miss Jennie -- somebody -- had her laid out in a DARK DRESS! Aunt Virginia protested. They had a local undertaker of course, and the undertaker brother, Linn of Elko, Nevada came, but Aunt Virginia was given the job of changing the dress. She said it was an unbelievably hard job, even physically, to dress that stiff corpse. (And some of the family thought the dark dress looked as good or better.) Aunt Virginia told me this the last time I went to her home, about late winter of 1968 perhaps."

IV. Eliza Jane "Jennie" KEYSER
Born: 10 Oct. 1845, Bunceton, Cooper Co., Missouri
Unmarried
Died: 1923 at Fayette, Missouri
Buried: Fayette Cemetery, Howard Co., Missouri

The following letter was written by Eliza Jane KEYSER to her brother (who must have been Emmett, a half-brother, since she mentions Joseph Linn, Ed and John in the letter).

"Fayette, Howard County, Mo.

My dear brother

Yours of the 29th received yesterday -- after cleaning house, cooking two meals and cleaning nearly a dozen pigs feet and cutting and scarring my hands 'more'n considerably' I will try to write and do the song for you.

Glad that you wrote -- if only for a song, for I think it will do us no harm, once in a while, to have a letter from each other. I suppose Nell keeps you posted on news of the day from these quarters -- so I will add only a little home news. Sterling has just made us a little visit and seems to be a very nice boy -- he joined the Baptist Church last fall and Willie too. They both speak of going to Kansas this Spring.

Johnnie seems to be getting along very well -- he talks too much about a grass widow for me. I rather wish the boys wouldn't go to that heathen country -- for they will naturally drift into the habits of the roughs of the land and will become indifferent to things of greater import, will disregard the Sabbath, etc. -- but God can make them a blessing to others no matter where they are.

Leland had a high fever for several days and I think is seriously threatened with pneumonia. He cries almost every time he has to stay from school and I believe everytime that he is tardy. He loves his books dearly and is getting along nicely in school.

We have about five dozen chickens (Plymouth Rocks) my special charge! I get some days 18 eggs -- other days 20, 22 or 24. Sold $1 worth when they were 20 cents a dozen about a month ago. They are cheap enough to eat now at 10 cents a dozen and we have commenced using them. Come over and I will give you a dozen or two for breakfast. Would that fit snugly?

Well, you do not know how freely we breathe in our little house -- though there is nothing here but the house that is unfinished and likely to be so for many years to come -- the carpenters are so slow and John will not hurry them. Haven't even a well.

Nell (her half sister) was in yesterday evening -- comes in nearly every day. Pa comes by now and then -- is looking thin, breaking fast though occasionally he walks to town.

We have a mild winter, with a cold snap or two; it is almost warm enough now to sit without a fire, it is the rarest thing that we hear from Linn.

I suppose the children have grown out of their babyhood and would be strangers to me. I wish we could see them and know them.

It is getting time for me to feed the chickens, so will close with love to all. Write whenever you feel so disposed and don't forget your Bible -- make it your guide. Try to walk every day so that others may see that Jesus in you, and pray for me. Tell Ed to write some time.

Affectionally
Sister Eliza (Eliza Jane Keyser)
(Aunt Jennie)"

The following information was submitted by Ida Elizabeth Hunter:

"This is a true anecdote about Jennie's death. After Miss Nannie's death, Miss Jennie continued to live alone in the little 3-room house at 308 North Howard St. in Fayette. She was in her 80's and had a bad heart. She was found on a cold Sunday, on the floor of her home, dead and frozen stiff. Her glasses were broken, presumably in the fall. She had some kindling in her shawl. She was getting ready to build a trash or coal fire.

Did she fall on Saturday night or Sunday morning? Nobody will ever know for sure, but those who knew her habits best, felt the indications were strongest for Saturday night. She did have her Bible, quarterly, and offering laid out for Sunday School, but this was no indication for Sunday morning, as she often did this on Saturday night.

It is ironic that on nearly every other Saturday, someone went to see her. My mother was a dutiful niece who lived in the country, but seldom missed going to see "Aunt Jennie" on Saturday when she went to town to shop. However, the weather had turned bad, and my Dad was trying to get his corn out of the field, so this one Saturday they didn't even go to Fayette.

A lady who lived in Aunt Jennie's neighborhood, a Mrs. Perkins went nearly every Saturday night to visit and talk with Aunt Jennie until bedtime. However, on this particular Saturday she did not go because it was raining so hard.

The POSSIBILITY of foul play crossed some people's minds, because Aunt Jennie had made some remarks about some women of ill-fame who lived next door.

Did she trip and fall, and lay there and suffer, and slowly freeze to death? Or did she die of a heart attack, being unconscious or dead from the first? People could only hope and speculate. Nobody could ever know just how Aunt Jennie died, and after about 56 years there aren't many left to speculate any more."

V. Joseph Linn KEYSER
Born: 11 Nov. 1847 near Bunceton, Cooper County, Missouri
Married: 30 Dec. 1875 to Margaret Ferguson YEATES, b. 9 Feb. 1858, Sturgeon Bay, Wisconsin, d. 4 May 1933, Elko, Nevada
Died: 21 April 1934, Elko, Nevada

Margaret Ferguson YEATES was the daughter of Elijah Samuel YEATES, native of Grownsgrove, near Birmingham, England, b. 19 May 1832, d. in Los Angeles, Calif., 16 Dec. 1910, and Jessie (Janet) Davidson YEATES, native of, in or near Montreal, Canada. She was of Scotch descent, b. 6 Nov. 1830, d. 20 Dec. 1908 in Los Angeles, California.

In 1864 Joseph Linn joined the Confederate Army in the Civil War. Almost immediately he was captured by Union forces and spent five months in the Rock Island Prison.

He attended William Jewell College at Liberty, Missouri from 1868 to 1869. After that he taught at a country school until the spring of 1872.

At that time he went to Denver, Colorado for a short time. Finally he went to Elko, Nevada to join his bachelor uncle, Elijah BURNER, who preceded him to Nevada. Joseph Linn arrived in Elko on 13 June 1872, and married Margaret F. YEATES, 30 Dec. 1875.

He worked at several occupations while in Elko. He was a clerk in Samuel Moser's General Merchandise Store. He worked in a lumber yard, and then became an accomplished carpenter.

He took over the Burner Ranches after the death of his uncle Elijah BURNER, and then finally he bought out the Pullman Mortuary in 1902 and kept it until 1928 at which time he sold the business to his son, John Harold KEYSER.

Joseph Linn was a member of the Masonic Lodge in good standing for more than 58 years. He served as Masonic Lodge Master for four years. He was an important figure in the development of Elko during the late 1870's and early 1920's.

The records show that many times he was elected to positions of leadership in that early developing community. Besides being a member of the Masonic Lodge for 58 years and Master of that Lodge for 4 years, he once filled a term in the City Council, he was a member of the Elko School Board, he served as secretary-treasurer of the Grange and was twice elected to head the Grange.

He built a home on the brow of the hill at 4th Street and Pine and later moved it back on the lot. He rebuilt on that same location, and finally he moved this second home to 4th Street and Juniper, facing the west, and then built (for the third time) on the location at 4th and Pine. This corner lot has a fine view of the Elko Valley and all of the business district of Elko at the present time.

One of his granddaughters, Dorothy Florence Keyser JOHNSON, wrote: "Since I am the youngest of Joseph Linn KEYSER's grandchildren, my memories are perhaps not as sharp as the other cousins, however, I did live next door for most of my childhood and after my grandmother died, my father and I lived for a short time with my grandfather in his Pine Street house. I was with him at the time of his death. The big brick house was a landmark in Elko at one time. The family story goes: Grandfather built the house big enough to house all his family when they came home... and that they did on their 50th anniversary."

On April 28 and 29, 1980 Tom and Edna TAYLOR were in Elko, Nevada. The last home Joseph Linn built at 4th and Pine was still there. It is a large brick home, beautifully landscaped. It overlooks the entire City of Elko and the entire Valley of the Humbolt River, including the Ruby and Humbolt Mountain Range. The second home which was frame, and moved to 4th Street and Juniper is also still there, and seems to be in good repair and being occupied and well tended.

The Burner Basin can also be seen from this location. Joseph Linn KEYSER truly loved Elko and that beautiful view from 4th St. and Pine.

Margaret Ferguson YEATES left Wisconsin, year 1860, coming to California via the Isthmus of Panama. After living at Folsom, and later at Newcastle, California for a few years, the family continued on into Nevada following the construction of the Central Pacific Railroad and arrived at Elko, Nevada, July 16, 1869. With the exception of about one year in Missouri (1879-80) Margaret Ferguson YEATES KEYSER lived practically all of the intervening years in Elko, Nevada, until her death in the same place, 4 May 1933.

Joseph Linn KEYSER left the proper distribution of his earthly belongings in a will under the direction of his son, Charles Paul

Died: 25 Oct. 1965, Glendale, California
Buried: Elko, Nevada

John Harold KEYSER graduated from the Elko High School. In April 1906 he went to Oakland, California and entered the service of the Southern Pacific Railroad. He was promoted regularly and finally became engineer on the regular freight line service.

In 1928 he leased (or purchased) the Keyser Mortuary from his father, Joseph Linn KEYSER, and operated that business in Elko until he retired. He died at the age of 88 years.

Ethel Edith Averilla TROWER was a daughter of Ebenezer TROWER, native of Brighton, England, b. 24 Jan. 1846, d. 28 Mar. 1909 in Oakland, California and her mother was Mary WHITTAKER, native of St. John, New Brunswick, b. 13 Sept. 1845, d. 4 Aug. 1897 in Oakland, California. Nine children were born to the TROWER-WHITTAKER marriage, dated 8 Mar. 1867, New York, New York.

B. Charles Paul KEYSER
Born: 13 Dec. 1878, Elko, Nevada
Married: 5 Aug. 1906 in Santa Cruz, California to Aimee Alice SHERMAN, b. 22 Dec. 1877, d. 18 Dec. 1948
Died: 20 Jan. 1976

Charles Paul KEYSER graduated from Elko High School in 1906. He then attended the University of Nevada at Reno for four years, and graduated with honors in 1899. While at the University he pursued a course in Civil Engineering in which his degree was granted.

When the Southern Pacific Railroad Company extended their line west from Ogden, Utah, they employed a Chief Civil Engineer by the name of Settelmeyer. The total line from Ogden, Utah to Carson City, Nevada was under the supervision of Mr. Settelmeyer.

Charles Paul KEYSER was, at that time a young man with a degree in Civil Engineering from the University of Nevada. Mr. Settelmeyer hired Charles as a Sector Boss or Crew Foreman to take charge of the most difficult sector of the survey, that area from Ogden northwest across the flat shallows of Great Salt Lake to Montello, Nevada.

Their first head camp was near the present site of Promentory Point, Utah. Their next head camp was set up at a spot known as Lucin, Utah. It is from this second camp site that the area across the Great Salt Lake got its name "The Lucin Cut-off".

Most of the survey across the lake was done from rafts and boats. Some of the deeper areas were marked with heavy weights, cables and small floating buoys, making the elevation and azimuth readings where the fill was to be made, on which the track was to be laid.

The fill was over 20 miles long and in places was 30 feet high to get above the wave action of the lake. After this work was finished, they sent him to Southern California where he surveyed the route around the Salten Sea, a sink which is the bed of an ancient marine lake 263 feet below sea level.

He was then sent to a stretch of railroad south of Sacramento, California. This was called the Sacramento Southern. He then returned to Reno and surveyed the first electric railroad in Nevada, running from Reno to Sparks, a distance of about 4 miles.

He later went to Portland, Oregon and became Administrator of the Portland, Oregon Parks System. He had a distinguished career of over forty years in the Portland Park Department, thirty-two years as Superintendent. To this day he is still praised for his foresight, dedication and initiative in administering the city's parks. He belonged to the Masons, as well as several service, social and outdoor clubs. Portland's parks were his work and hobby. He had a very active life, but did not neglect his family. Amie Alice also came from pioneer Nevada stock and was a true lady.

He was appointed the Administrator of his father's will (Joseph Linn KEYSER). In 1973 he returned to Elko and erected a monument in the small park near the Elko Museum in honor of Mr. Settelmeyer, the Chief Civil Engineer for the Southern Pacific Railroad. The inscription on the monument reads:

SETTELMEYER MERIDIAN

Children of Charles P. KEYSER and Aimee Alice SHERMAN, 1, listed

1. Joseph Elliott KEYSER
   Born: 20 Dec. 1909, Portland, Oregon
   Married: 16 Jan. 1938 to Helen LAURGAARD, Portland, Oregon, b. 11 Sept. 1910, Portland, Oregon.

Joseph E. KEYSER attended grade and high school in Portland, Oregon and graduated from the University of Oregon with a B.A. in 1934. Interestingly his father and his wife's father knew each other when Charles Paul KEYSER was Park Superintendent in Portland, Oregon and Olaf LAURGAARD was City Engineer of the City of Portland.

Joseph E. KEYSER worked in the Architectural Section as a construction analyst in the Portland office of the Federal Housing and Urban Development Agency for over twenty-five years, and retired from that job 1 July 1973.

Helen LAURGAARD KEYSER is the daughter of Olaf LAURGAARD and Goldie SHERER. Goldie SHERER was born 5 May 1889, dau. of James Edward SHERER and Mary Elizabeth ALVEY.

Olaf was a young engineer from Wisconsin at the time of his marriage in Nov. 1908, and was in charge of building Conconully Dam in the State of Washington. Upon completion of the dam, they moved to Portland, where their two children were born, Helen (1910) and Glenn (1912). They never lived in Washington again. He had a distinguished career as a civil engineer, first appearing in "Who's Who in America" in 1936.

Helen graduated from the University of Oregon with a B.A. in 1931. She has been a high school librarian since completing a fifth year of college and getting a library degree from the University of Wisconsin in 1933, except for fifteen years as a home maker during the children's early years. She retired from Multnomah County School District No. 1, Portland, in 1975.

Children of Joseph E. KEYSER and Helen LAURGAARD, 2, listed:

a. Marcia Keyser, b. 11 Apr. 1939, d. 9 Sept. 1959. She died at the start of her junior year at Oregon State University.

C. Jesse Susan KEYSER

Born: 3 May 1880, Missouri (during the one year Joseph Linn KEYSER and Margaret E. YEATES returned to Missouri)
Married: 25 Dec. 1901, Elko, Nevada to Stephen Randall STEELE, b. 9 Jan. 1876, Wells, Nevada, s. James Alexander STEELE.
Died: 6 Feb. 1937, Willits, Mendocina Co., California

Jesse returned to Nevada with her parents when just a baby and lived at Tuscarora, Nevada for a few years, and then moved to Elko, Nevada. She finished high school at Elko, Nevada.

Stephen Randall STEELE's father came to Virginia City, Nevada during the gold rush times, with three brothers from Scotland. Stephen Randall STEELE went to Corpus Christi, Texas for the Spanish American War just in time for the Armistice. He was weighed and measured and found he was only 5 feet 11 inches tall. He had always thought he was 6 feet tall. So he was very upset to learn that he was only 5 feet 11 inches tall.

Children of Jesse S. KEYSER and Stephen R. STEELE, 2, listed below:

1. Margaret STEELE

III. Robert Emmett KEYSER (twin)
Born: 24 Mar. 1858, New Franklin, Howard Co., Missouri

Married: 18 Nov. 1898 to Grace CROCKETT

The following is a letter written by Emmett KEYSER, third son of Jacob KEYSER and his second wife, Virginia A. Chandler FIELDS to his nephew Charles Paul KEYSER, Elko, Nevada, from Hayward, California July 28, 1937. It is a first hand account of how Charles Paul KEYSER came by the Jacob KEYSER Family Bible.

"Dear Paul: You will pardon my delay in ans. your very welcome letter of a few days ago. Am glad you took up the matter about the old family Bible. Some seven years ago this fall I made a visit to Elko and while there spent part of the time with your father and mother, in fact slept there every night and had breakfast with them in the a.m. Your father showed me the Bible, and all the entries he had made in it since he had it, which I was glad he had done. Otherwise it would never have been done.

Now Paul, I have come to the conclusion, since receiving your letter that it is in the best of hands and had better stay there to be made disposition of as you may think best. So don't worry about my wanting it. Was highly pleased with your description of your trip sometime ago through Va. and father's old home.

So often have I sat as a boy and hearing him recount incidents of his boyhood days, and from them have carried in my mind a picture of it all.

Am sorry that you and Amie (Paul's wife) could not visit us and flap your lips over some of our lovely apricots. Well, maybe some other time. We are truly glad Amie is improving so fast. Lorna, Linn's wife said she could get around faster than she could.

We have just finished with the cots. I am surely glad tis over as I was awful tired at night climbing ladders all day. Well, I am very poor writer and shove all of it I can off onto Grace. Am glad you contacted Ed while at Elko. Think it will make him feel better and think of something else except Elko. Some years ago I said to your Dad, 'Why don't you go to Portland and live in a nice city, you and your wife'. He said in reply, 'to far from Elko'.

Paul we all join in all best for you and yours, Em, Grace, and Olivia. I hope to hear from you again sometime.

Emmett Keyser"

The following notes were made by Charles Paul KEYSER on the envelope the above letter was mailed in:

"Emmett Keyser came out to Elko, Nevada from Fayette, Missouri about 1885 and Ed, his twin brother came not long after. Emmett operated a general utility dray in Elko for ten or a dozen years. Sold out, married Grace Crockett and they retired to an apricot orchard in Hayward, California where they spent the rest of their lives.

The Olivia he mentions was Grace's unmarried sister.

Ed busied himself as the keeper of the town cemeteries until he was past 80."

The following are items from newspapers published at Elko, Nevada 1886-1897:

5-2-1886. A brother of J. L. and Emmett Keyser arrived here from the east this morning.
2-4-1888. Emmett Keyser is having a new dray built.
2-18-1888. Emmett Keyser has purchased the draying business formerly carried on by George Dexter
5-26-1888. Miss Nellie Keyser, sister to the Keyser boys arrived from Fayette, Missouri last Sat. She will remain here all summer.

IV. Virginia Temple KEYSER
Born: 2 Jan. 1861, New Franklin, Howard Co., Missouri
Died: 21 Oct. 1872, age 8 years.

V. William Almond KEYSER

CHAPTER XI

NOAH KEYSER

Born: 2 Jan. 1786, Shenandoah, Page, Virginia
Married: 14 Mar. 1809, to Ann ROADS (RHODES)
Father: Major Andrew KEYSER
Mother: Sarah Margaret RHINEHART
Died: 7 Aug. 1842, buried Sandy Hook, Luray, Page Co., Virginia

ANN ROADS (RHODES)
(Wife of Noah KEYSER)

Born: 22 Nov. 1789, Mountain View, Luray, Page Co., Virginia
Father: Joseph ROADS (RHODES)
Mother: Magdalene HOTTLE (HUDDLE)
Died: 28 Aug. 1861, buried Sandy Hook, Luray, Page Co., Virginia

Since Noah KEYSER came from Sandy Hook, Luray, Page Co., Virginia and his father Major Andrew KEYSER also came to Sandy Hook, Luray, Page Co., Virginia, and since this part of Virginia was a farming area, it is reasonable to assume that Noah also was a farmer. Further indication for this assumption is the fact that Jacob KEYSER (son of Noah) was a farmer, first in Page Co., Virginia, and then in Cooper Co., Missouri. This is not conclusive proof that Noah KEYSER was a farmer, but it is totally an assumption.

Ann ROADS (RHODES) was the daughter of Joseph ROADS (RHODES). Ann's immediate forefathers and especially her father, Joseph, lived at Mountain View, Page Co., Virginia which is near Sandy Hook, and it is also farming country. She is buried at Sandy Hook, Virginia.

Ann was the great granddaughter of Reverand John Hans ROADS, who was killed and scalped in an Indian massacre in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia in 1764.

There seems to be very little on record concerning Noah KEYSER and Ann ROADS. This also leads us to believe that Noah was a farmer and lived somewhat of a quiet life.

Children of Noah KEYSER and Ann ROADS, 13, listed below:

I. Mary KEYSER
Born: 1810, Sandy Hook, Luray, Page Co., Virginia

ANDREW KEYSER (Major)

Born: 16 Dec. 1758, Page Co., Virginia
Father: Charles B. KEYSER Jr.
Mother: Katharine SHELLY
Married: 23 Nov. 1784 to Sarah Margaret RHINEHART Married: 8 Oct. 1820 to Elizabeth Grove STRICKLER (widow of David STRICKLER of New Market
Died: 23 Nov. 1833 of dropsy.

SARAH MARGARET RHINEHART

Born: 17 Dec. 1770
Father: Mathias RHINEHART
Married: 23 Nov. 1784 to Andrew KEYSER
Died: 2 Apr. 1820

Andrew KEYSER was a Major in the Revolutionary War (1775-1783). He first enlisted in the Continental Army in 1781 at the age of 23. He served as a Private for 18 months in the Company commanded by Captain Conway Oldham of the Regiment commanded by Colonel Richard Campbell. He fought under General Nathaniel Greene at the Battle of Cowpens, and Guilford Courthouse, Cambden, Ninety-six and Eutaw.

He lived on the old KEYSER Farm, where his father, Charles KEYSER had lived before him, and where his son Andrew KEYSER (Colonel) of the Civil War lived after him.

This was in the Massanutten Creek Area of the Shenandoah Valley, which is now Page County, Virginia.

The first of Major Andrew KEYSERS life works was as a private in the Revolutionary War from 1781 to 1782 or a time of 18 months. He was later elevated in rank and finally became a Major.

Sometime later he settled in the old Charles KEYSER home in the Shenandoah Valley and farmed. After his first wife, Sarah Margaret RHINEHART, died 2 Apr. 1820, he remarried to the widow of David STRICKLER whose maiden name was Elizabeth GROVE.

To his first marriage there were 14 children. To the second marriage there were no children born, however, Elizabeth Grove STRICKLER had a son, Adam STRICKLER, by David STRICKLER, who was raised as a step-son of Andrew KEYSER.

Other than the birth date and the death date of Sarah Margaret RHINEHART, there seems to be no further information except for the name of her father, Mathias RHINEHART. Nor do we, at this point, have any further information on his second wife, Elizabeth GROVE, other than she did have the son, Adam, and that she was first married to David STRICKLER.

The following is a portion of a letter from "VETERANS ADMINISTRATION" which we received from John Harold KEYSER Jr, and which had been part of a record of Keyser Family Genealogy compiled by his father, John Harold KEYSER, Sr. The letter was dated: Washington, D.C., Sept. 8, 1931 and signed by A. D. Hiller, Assistant to Administrator giving the following information:

"You are advised that it appears from the papers in the Revolutionary War pension claim, S. 5651, that Andrew Keyser Sr., was born December 16, 1758, place not stated. While a resident of Shenandoah County, Virginia, he enlisted in 1780, served as a private in Captain Conway Oldham's and Lieutenant Robert Jouett's Company, Colonel Richard Campbell's Virginia Regiment, in the battles of Guilford Court House, Camden, Ninety Six and Eutaw Springs, and was discharged Jan. 14, 1782, having served eighteen months, etc." Also Certificate No. 170, issued August 4, 1832, allowed Andrew Keyser a Veterans Pension of $60.00 per year."

The following information is registered in the Salt Lake [illegible]ealogical Library, Salt Lake City, Utah:

CHARLES B. KEYSER Jr.

Born: about 1702, near Stuttgart, Germany
Father: Charles B. KEYSER Sr.
Mother: Elizabeth GROSSGLOSS
Married: Katharine SHELLY, Philadelphia, Phil. Co., Pennsylvania
Died: 28 May 1778, buried near Luray, Page Co., Virginia

We were unable to locate any passport for Charles B. KEYSER into the United States. It is believed that Charles B. KEYSER came to the United States as a hired soldier by Great Britian to fight against the French and Indians. After the battle near Pittsburg, July 9, 1755 he became a butcher and was assigned to the Commissary of George Washington's Colonial forces that accompanied General Braddock's British Regulars to Fort Duquense 1755 in the French and Indian War.

He drove cattle along and slaughtered them enroute to feed the soldiers. He returned to Lancaster, Pennsylvania unscathed, and soon afterward he married Katharine SHELLY of Philadelphia. Soon after his release from the army they moved to the Massanutten area of the Shenandoah,Valley in Virginia (Source: Taylor Family History by Adelia Taylor Baab Greene).

Family tradition gives his birthplace as Wurtemburg, near Stuttgart, Germany. However, the names 'Charles Keyser' instead of 'Carl Kaiser' seems to indicate that more likely he was Dutch descent than of German.

There is a record of Charles B. KEYSER homesteading land in the Shenandoah area in 1764. He then built a large log house on the land homesteaded at that time.

CHAPTER XII

THE BURNERS

The BURNERS were a venturesome clan of people. They were attached to the TAYLOR history when Jacob KEYSER married Susan Francis BURNER.

Information concerning Susan Francis is contained in the Chapter with her husband Jacob KEYSER.

The BURNERS were a restless, fortune-hunting people, who loved pioneering, adventure and excitement.

(We obtained the following information from Forerunners.) "Miss Olive BURNER of Carthage, Illinois gave me considerable information in regard to the BURNERS, which I submit in a condensed form. She obtained her information in regard to the older members of the family from Mrs. Reuben RUFFNER, who died June 25, 1905 at the advanced age of eighty seven and who was an intimate friend of the BURNERS. She quotes Mr. RUFFNER as follows: 'Mr. Burner (the first ancestor in America) brought with him from Germany all the money he possessed, and as banks and safety vaults were unknown in those days, he .....'"

This quotation indicated the original Mr. Jacob BURNER came from Germany and purchased land in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia in 1777. She further indicates that Jacob BURNER may have been in that area much earlier than 1777. Their display of fortune is further indicated by the description of the mansions which they built.

The statement that they are restless and adventuresome is indicated by the fact that they went very early to Missouri and some were among the very early pioneers who ventured into the gold fields of Nevada, where they were influential in the development of the eastern, central part of that state.

JOHN RHODES BURNER

Born: 30 Aug. 1788, Fort Burner, Massanutten, Virginia
Father: Joseph BURNER
Mother: Mary Ann RHODES
Married: Elizabeth STRICKLER
Married: 17 Mar. 1839 to Susannah HERSHBERGER
Died: 4 Oct. 1860

The following information was obtained from the book Forerunners by Harry M. Strickler: "John R. BURNER was a fifer in the war of 1812. He and his wife went to housekeeping in the old Burner home, Fort Burner, opposite the mouth of Lick Branch ....John R. Burner afterwards moved to Massanutten on property acquired by his wife from the estate of Isaac Strickler. There was only a small cabin on this farm at the time ...They afterwards built a brick house on top of the hill above the pike..... After the marriage of their son, John A. Burner, he occupied the mansion house, and John R. Burner moved about one mile nearer the foot of the mountain where he operated a small mill and spent his last days .... John R. and his wife were members of the Old School Baptist Church, and the former took an active part and led in the singing."

John R. BURNER was a farmer for the greater part of his life.

Died: 24 Oct. 1881, Elko, Nevada
Buried: Elko, Nevada

Elijah BURNER, the 11th child and youngest son of John R. BURNER and Elizabeth STRICKLER was a restless, daring young man, who was never married. He came west about 1860 and after some time he ended up at the gold mines of Tuscarora, Nevada.

He was a man of considerable insight. He could see that in order to accumulate any wealth he would have to invest in the mines. This he did and became a large holder of mining stock in Railroad City and Tuscarora areas.

Elijah BURNER's ancestors were farmers and he was quick to see the great advantage of owning and farming in the Humbolt Valley, Nevada near his mine holdings. With this in mind, he acquired a large tract of bottom, meadow land beginning about two miles above the present site of Elko, Nevada and extending upstream along the Humbolt. This basin became known as the BURNER BASIN.

Following are some excerpts from the Elko Newspapers which are on file at the Museum in the Elko City Park. These excerpts show the many fields in which Elijah was engaged.

"Already hay has gone up to $65.00 per ton and another storm will raise it to the $100.00 mark."

"Mr. Burner, on his ranch above Elko, cut 100 ton of hay which he recently sold to Pritchard's Fast Freight Company of Palisade for $3000.00." (Elko Independent, Dec. 30, 1871)

"E. Burner, a prominent Citizen of Elko County, took the train on Monday last for a visit to his old home in the State of Virginia. He proposes during his absence to visit Council Bluffs and Muscatine, Iowa; Cooper County, Missouri and Hancock County, Illinois touching these later points first, before he goes to the old Dominion. Mr. E. Burner is largely interested in the town site of Railroad City and is also a large owner in some of the best mines in that section, and he may, during his stay east throw some of his valuable property on the market with a view of raising capital to develop some of the immense wealth that lies hidden in the bowels of the earth in that District." (Elko Independent, Dec. 30, 1871)

"Pork. Ten tons of dressed hogs belonging to Burner and Company of this place, after a 30 days trip from Omaha arrived here this week. They came through in good condition and are being sold at 10½¢ per pound." (Elko Independent Mar. 2, 1872)

"For Sale. E. Burner has about 120 head of Stock Hogs embracing the following breeds: Chester White, White Suffolk and Pola(?) China. Parties wishing to purchase will call on or address E. Burner two miles above Elko."

"E. Burner has moved his hay press down to the railroad depot and had been engaged during the past three days in boiling wool for S. Mooser. The press does its work admirably. By thus reducing the bulk, a decided saving in freight on the article is expected, about 50% we believe." (Elko Independent, July 18, 1874)

"Mr. E. Burner will keep two men at work on the Violi Virginia all winter. He left Elko on Thursday with lumber to build a house and tools and provisions for his men." (Elko Weekly Post, Dec. 7, 1878)

"E. Burner's 16-mule outfit consisting of three wagons loaded with barley arrived here last evening from Lamoille Valley." (Elko Independent, Sept. 4, 1881)

"E. Burner hurt. From Dr. Meigs, who was called to attend Elijah Burner at his ranch above town this morning we learned that he met with a painful and possibly serious accident last evening while running stock in his field the horse upon which Mr. Burner was riding, stumbled and fell, throwing his rider upon the horn of the saddle. The injury received is in the abdomen, but its extent could not be determined at the time of the doctor's visit. It is hoped, and the doctor inclines to the opinion, that with proper treatment, he will recover in the course of a few days." (Elko Independent, Oct. 16, 1881)

NOTE: It was from this fall that Elijah BURNER died on 24 Oct. 1881. He is buried in the Elko, Nevada cemetery.

Children of John R. BURNER and Susannah HERSHBERGER, 2, listed below:

I. Jacob Franklin BURNER
Born: 10 July 1840, Locust Dale, Madison, Virginia
Married: 3 Aug. 1863 to Priscilla DOVEL, Locust Dale, Madison, Virginia, dau. of Charles DOVEL and Elizabeth KOONTZ
Died: 24 Aug. 1891, Oroville, Butte Co., California

This family went to Elko, Nevada and their progeny were still in Elko when visited by Tom and Edna Taylor in April 1980.

Jacob Franklin BURNER, first son of John R. BURNER and his second wife, Susannah HERSCHBURGER, went to Elko, Nevada with his family about 1872. At that time the area around Elko was a miners paradise. Tuscorara and Railroad City were booming mining towns.

Jacob immediately went to work at the mines. He soon got ahead in the mining field and proceeded to invest in prospecting for gold and silver. He was interested in the O'Neil, Viola Virginia, Nevada May No. 1, Nevada May No. 2. Following is a report from the assay office at Virginia City Assay Office:

"Assays recently made by C. Weigard of Virginia City, of samples of ore from near the surface, gave the following gratifying results: from O'Neil Claim $66.30 in silver; Viola Virginia $114.10 in silver; Nevada May No. 1 $853.60 in silver; Nevada May No. 2, $6.40 and $20.00 in silver." (Elko Weekly Post, Dec. 7. 1878)

"J. F. Burner of this place has received from Washington lately, notice that a patent has been granted him on a new coupling for railroad cars. We did not see the patent drawings and don't know that we would have understood them if we had but here it is said that it is a great improvement on the old plans and will no doubt prove a source of revenue to the inventor." (Elko Independent May 2, 1874)

"Burner District (Burner Mining District). Several weeks ago we mentioned the location of a new mining district in the Northern portion of Elko County called after the discoverer and locater, Burners District. Since that time quite a number of claims have been taken up and recorded and the prospects are good for developing permanent and paying mines. As yet but little work has been done on any of the claims, but the assays of ore which have been made, justify the belief that the work of development will be vigorously carried forward next spring. Mr. E. Burner will keep two men at work on the Violi Virginia all winter." (Elko Weekly Post, Dec. 7, 1878)

"Professor J. F. Burner has opened a School of Fine Arts south of the Depot Hotel where penmanship, drawing and painting will be taught in a thorough and proficient manner. Old and defaced photographs enlarged to any sizes and made clear and distinct. Mr. Burner makes the painting of portraits a specialty." (Elko Weekly Independent, April 11, 1880)

"South Fork Correspondence, Dec. 26, 1883. The annual celebration this year came off at the residence of that genial host Charlie Swetland who ably seconded by his charming wife, gave his many friends the grandest entertainment our young people have had this season. Many of the sports prepared for Christmas day were postponed on account of the inclement weather which, however, did not prevent a general turnout for the dance in the evening. Ladies and gentlemen arriving from all the adjacent valleys. In their endeavors to cater to the tastes and desires of their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Swetland inaugurated an old but recently new style of dances which brought out the ladies in these parts in characters best suited to each. A few of these merit description ....."winter", Miss Viola Burner attracted more than ordinary attention in a rich suit of heavy brown velvet, elaborately trimmed in seal skin and stone marten fur. Over the whole was a sprinkle of silver powder in imitation of snow. So complete was her toilet that it actually made oneshiver to look at her. Still those soft pleasing eyes told one her heart was not cold." (Elko Weekly Independent, Jan. 13, 1884)

"Fine Work. At the Post Office Book Store can be seen a very fine piece of work from the hands of Professor J. F. Burner. It is a splendid likeness of W. T. Crane of South Fork and is a credit to the ability of Professor Burner who is an expert with pen and brush." (Free Press, March 6, 1885)

"Born in Elko, Nevada, July 9th to the wife of J. F. Burner, a daughter. (Note: This must have been Priscilla Janet Burner, though on the Genealogy sheet of Jacob Franklin Burner, submitted by Rose Burner, information given by Viola Virginia Burner (Kleckner) the birthdate is given as July 8, 1886) (Free Press July 17, 1886)

Married: Martha "Mattie" Maud CLEMONS, 10 Mar. 1892, Elko, Nevada
dau. of Munsen Lewis CLEMONS and Nancy Ellen BURK.
Died: 19 July 1959, Elko, Nevada

Frank Victor BURNER came to Nevada in 1872 with his father, Jacob Franklin BURNER, his mother and sister and brother. The BURNER family came west to join Elijah BURNER, brother of Jacob BURNER, and owner of many acres of land along the Humboldt River.

Victor BURNER became a carpenter. He liked to landscape and became interested in a nursery business. Mr. BURNER also had a flair for inventing. He had a patent on a gate invention and also invented the first hay press and baler. During the mining boom days in Elko County, he was a teamster working in the mining towns of Tuscarora, Cornicopia, and Midas, as well as others. At Lee, Nevada is where Victor and Mattie BURNER raised their family.

Children of Frank V. BURNER and Martha M. CLEMONS, 14, listed below:

1. Victor Junia Burner
Born: 14 Mar. 1893, Lee, Elko Co., Nevada
Died: 23 May 1893

2. Carroll Harry BURNER
Born: 6 Dec. 1894, Elko, Elko Co., Nevada
Married: 25 Apr. 1923, Elko, Nevada to Rose HUTCHINSON

Carroll Harry BURNER was self-employed in the draying business in Elko. He hauled and sold top soil and gravel, sold coal, wood, and moved people from State to State. He still holds his city license, as he must pay for it yearly even though he is retired.

The following are excerpts from a tribute paid to Rose H. BURNER by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Elko, Nevada:

"SPOTLIGHT. Sister Rose Burner has lived a full life, devoted to raising her 13 children and serving the Church and community of Elko.

Born in Monroe, Utah to Mary and Joseph Hutchinson, Sister Burner was one of seventeen children. The family moved to Metropolis, Nevada, when Rose was a youngster and she remembers living in tents for awhile. The Hutchinson's have a great pioneer heritage but Rose is especially proud of her father who became the first patriarch of our present day stake. After attending grammer school and her first year of high school in Metropolis, Rose came to Elko to train as a nurses aid at the hospital. It was "love at first sight," for the couple as they were soon married and have resided in the Elko area since 1922. Their marriage was later solemnized in the Salt Lake Temple.

Their union has been blessed with 13 children: Verlie Harmon, an accomplished musician of Palo Alto, Calif.; Dorothy Howerton of Menlo Park, Calif.; Harry of Elko; Edith Bogden of Elko; Gerald, a building inspector of Redwood City, Calif.; Genevieve Young of Half Moon Bay, Calif.; Victor, a Yale graduate and MD of Pasadena, Calif.; Travis of Elko; Robert of LaCanada, Calif., who is a high school teacher; George of Elko; and Harold, a policeman in Kaysville, Utah. Two other children, Carroll Lind and Donna have passed away. Many grandchildren and great grandchildren continue to come to this special family.

Sister Burner has found time with raising her large family, to develop her talents and interests. She enjoys all kinds of arts and crafts especially working with mosaics, oil painting, gardening and quilting.

An outstanding honor came to Sister Burner in 1951 when she was chosen as Elko's Mother of the Year by the Jr. Chamber of Commerce. The editorial in the Elko Free Press said of the event, "The selection of Mrs. Carroll Burner as Elko's Mother of the Year is one of the most popular in the history of the event." Along with the many tributes and telegrams sent to her, Sister Burner received a large electric waffle iron, a real luxury of the times.

Years of devoted service to the Church marks Sister Burner's life. She has served in all the auxillaries and was Stake Relief Society President from 1950-1953. She has fulfilled three Stake missions and was released from the third at our recent Stake Conference. She was assigned to labor with our Lamanite brothers and sisters in the Lee Branch for over 30 years. Her impact for good and total dedication to this calling is indescribable.

Rose Hutchinson Burner .. a sister who knows why she is here on earth and who has chosen a life of total commitment and service to her family and her Heavenly Father. She is truly a special spirit."

JOSEHH BURNER

Married: 13 Mar. 1783 to Mary or Ann RHODES
Father: Jacob BURNER
Mother: Magdalene BUMGARDNER

The information on Joseph BURNER is apparently very lacking, but we do have this information. He was a son of Jacob BURNER who lived in the Shenandoah Valley, Virginia. There is a record of only one other member of Jacob's family, a Christina BURNER.

Children of Joseph BURNER and Ann RHODES, 6, listed below:

I. John Rhodes BURNER
Born: 30 Aug. 1788
Married: Elizabeth STRICKLER

II. Jacob BURNER
Unmarried

III. Joseph BURNER
Married: Elizabeth ROGERS
No issue

IV. Mary BURNER
Married: Daniel KAUFFMAN

V. Christina BURNER
Unmarried

VI. Susan BURNER
Unmarried

According to this record there were three of this family who never married and one who had no children. (Information from Forerunners by Harry M. Strickler)

JACOB BURNER

This information is also taken from Forerunners by Harry M. Strickler. "According to the history of the Berry family, three BURNER brothers came to America shortly after 1700. Jacob settled in Shenandoah County, Virginia, John in Page, Virginia and Ulrich in the western part of the State."

Originally they came from Germany, and came to America on the ship "Francis and Elizabeth" on 30 Aug. 1743.

CHAPTER XIII

THE BRISCOE FAMILY

The BRISCOE family was a true pioneer family, hardy, resourceful, cunning and excellent business men. As far as research tells us, there was no poverty among their people and some were reported quite wealthy. It is safe to say that the majority of them were farmers, stockmen and plantation owners; however, among them were numerous doctors, attorneys, ministers, merchants, teachers and army officers.

Their Virginia plantation holdings were large, their slaves and livestock many and their cotton, tobacco and grain crops excellent.

The first of the BRISCOES to be attached to our line was Susannah (Susan) Kavannaugh BRISCOE, who was a daughter of Andrew Logan BRISCOE. She married William TAYLOR, 26 July 1826 in Cooper County, Missouri.

Due to poor communications and transportation, we find considerable family intermarriages such as cousin marrying cousin and uncles marrying their nieces. Many of the pioneers married their relatives in this manner.

ANDREW LOGAN BRISCOE

Born: 2 July 1776, Albermarle Co., Virginia
Father: Captain William BRISCOE
Mother: Elizabeth WALLACE
Married: 3 Mar. 1796 to Ann KAVANNAUGH
Died: 2 Sept. 1858 at Boonville, Cooper Co., Missouri (Source the tombstone inscriptions in the Briscoe Cemetery, 3 miles south of Boonville, Missouri)

The inscription reads:

Andrew Logan Briscoe, born 1776
Died 9/2/1858
Married 3/3/1796
Ann Kavannaugh in Madison County, Kentucky
Born 6/23/1780

ANN KAVANNAUGH
(Wife of Andrew Logan BRISCOE)

Born: 23 June 1780, Richmond, Albermarle, Virginia
Father: William KAVANNAUGH
Mother: Hannah WOODS
Married: 3 Mar. 1796 to Andrew Logan BRISCOE
Died: 25 Aug. 1858, Boonville, Cooper Co., Missouri (Bible records: 78 years 2 mo., 3 days). Tombstone - Briscoe Cemetery 3 miles south of Boonville, Missouri

Andrew Logan BRISCOE was a Colonel in the U. S. Army. He was active in the war of 1812. He was also a Lt. of a Company under Capt. Sylvanius Massie (?), Co. 8, 3rd Kentucky Vol. Militia, War of 1812 - Col. Charles Scott. (Taken from Wallace History of Geo. Sheldon Wallace)

In a court record for Grand Jury duty in Cooper County, Missouri in the July term of 1820, Andrew BRISCOE was called for duty. He did not appear. The sheriff of that county called on him, whereupon he gave his excuse. His excuse was accepted and he was released from jury duty. (Mo. p-65R, Vol. IV, pg. 49, Circuit Court minutes, pg. 126 Tenn. Nov. 1817)

CHAPTER XV

KAVANNAUGH

Genealogical research is always difficult. It is more difficult when the ties are old and the present has become so remote from the past. It seems that the research on the KAVANNAUGHS was made even more difficult by the fact that there were so many of the different lines which carried the same given names. This was especially prevalent throughout the KAVANNAUGH family, but it was intensified by the women whom they married also having the same given names.

With this understanding, we give you the following history of "The House of Kavanaughs", taken from a book by the same name compiled by Anna T. Poynter Kavanaugh:

"The earliest record of any certainty was that of Cahyr Carrach, who in accordance with our research was in Ireland. We were unable to establish any date.

His son, Donach of Clonmollen also was in Ireland, and may have migrated to Spain. This is suspected because he named his son Donald-an-Spaineach,(which interpreted means Donald the Spaniard) of Clonmellon, and while his son died in 1631, it seems that from him some derived the surname Spaine.

Donald-an-Spaineach had a son Sir Morouch Kavanaugh. Sir Mirouch and his son emigrated to France after 1690. Sir Mirouch had two sons, Philemon and Colonel Charles Kavanaugh.

Colonel Charles Kavanaugh's regiment formed the besieging force at Derry. He married Mary Kavanaugh of the Borris family.

Captain Ignatius Kavanaugh, son of Charles Cavanaugh served his regiment through the Irish war, and with his father, Colonel Charles, and his brother James, and grandfather, Sir Mirouch, being deprived of their estate in Ireland for violating the treaty of Limerick, took refuge in France.

Sir Moroch's eldest son, and second son went from France to America between 1691 and 1705. The exact date is uncertain.

Colonel Charles Kavanaugh returned to France. His son Ignatius was Captain of a Grenadier Company. He married Katherine, daughter of Andrew Browne, of Galway of the Castle McGarrett family. They had three sons, Nicholas, Andrew and Charles and were living in France in 1776.

Philemon KAVANAUGH, eldest son of Sir Moroch Kavanaugh is the ancestor of the "American Branch of the ancient family of Kavanaugh".

The names of his descendants are given here as nearly as careful research can furnish.

The first tie the TAYLORS have to the KAVANNAUGHS was when William M. TAYLOR married Susan Kavannaugh BRISCOE, who was the daughter of Andrew Logan BRISCOE and Ann KAVANNAUGH. The information on the William M. TAYLORS and the Andrew Logan BRISCOES have been completely given in previous chapters in this book.

CHAPTER XVI

THE RHODES (ROADS) FAMILY

The first connection of the RHODES or ROADS family to the TAYLOR line came when Joseph BURNER married Ann RHODES, 13 Mar. 1783.

A later marriage of Noah KEYSER who married another Ann RHODES on 14 Mar. 1809 in Page Co., Virginia. This second Ann RHODES is definitely not the same Ann RHODES that married Joseph BURNER. She was born in 1789 and married Noah KEYSER in 1809 making her only 20 years old at that time.

The RHODES" were farmers, generally speaking, however there were ministers among them.

VIII through XIII. 4 sons and 2 daughters were killed in the Indian Massacre in Massanutten, Shenandoah, Virginia in 1764.

This massacre occurred in late August in 1764 when eight renegade indians led by a villainous white man came from the mountains and down to the Shenandoah River to the home of John RHODES and Eve Albright RHODES.

John RHODES was a Methodist preacher and a farmer. The river where this massacre occurred is still called "Bloody Ford". The indians questioned several of the family concerning the whereabouts of their father's money. When they were not told where the money was kept, the indians plundered the house, and set fire to all the farm buildings including the house. Several of the bodies were burned with the buildings.

A boy, Michael, was taken prisoner and was held for three years before he was released to return home.

Undoubtedly the white man who took part in the massacre was the cause of it.

Rev. John RHODES had a secret hiding place where he kept his money and valuable papers. They were unharmed by the fire.

There were other families who were massacred about the same period of time, not far from the Massanutten Valley.

On 31 Aug. 1924 a memorial was erected in honor of Rev. John RHODES near the spot of the massacre. There was at one time a RHODES cemetery where the victims were buried near where the memorial was erected.

CHAPTER XVII

THE STRICKLERS

Elizabeth STRICKLER married John Rhodes BURNER. The date of the marriage is not known. It seems, however, that it was about 1810. She was his first wife. Through this marriage we find the tie to the KEYSERS and finally the TAYLORS.

The old stock of STRICKLERS were an intelligent and highly respectable people. Some of them held high offices, both civil and military with credit to themselves and this country.

The STRICKLERS were extremely industrious and very important in the settling of Virginia, especially the Massanutten area of the Shenandoah Valley.

The STRICKLERS were the main subject of the book "Forerunners" by Harry M. Strickler. We acknowledge the importance and repeated reference to "Forerunners" for material used in this book, and especially the information concerning the STRICKLERS.

To the marriage of John Rhodes BURNER and Elizabeth STRICKLER there were twelve children born. We find this family completely written up under the chapter on the BURNERS.

Elizabeth STRICKLER was the daughter of Isaac STRICKLER and Susan BRUBAKER.

ISAAC STRICKLER

Born: 1740, Massanutten, Page Co., Virginia
Married: 21 Feb. 1777 to Susan BRUBAKER, who was his second wife.
Died: 1 May 1817

Isaac STRICKLER had three wives. The first was a lady from Pennsylvania. There were no children by this marriage and we have been unable to find her name.

The second was Susan BRUBAKER (BREWBAKER) who had 4 children.

The third was Catherine BEAVER, a widow who he married 21 Sept. 1807 and who died 29 May 1829.

Children of Isaac STRICKLER and Susan BRUBAKER, 4, listed below:

I. Elizabeth STRICKLER
Born: 12 July 1793, Massanutten, Page Co., Virginia
Married: John Rhodes BURNER
Died: 23 Oct. 1838
Children, 12, listed in the Chapter with the BURNERS.

II. Jacob STRICKLER
Died in War of 1812

III. John STRICKLER
Born: 24 June 1790
Married: Nancy KAUFFMAN
Died: 21 Jan. 1838

IV. Nancy STRICKLER
Born: 16 July 1796
Married: 7 Apr. 1812 to John BEAVER (who was her step-brother)
Died: 18 Jan. 1852

ABRAHAM STRICKLER

Born: about 1670
Married: Mary RUFFNER (sister of Peter RUFFNER)
Died: Inventory dated 14 Apr. 1746
Father: Joseph STRICKLER
Mother: Mary MILEY

Abraham STRICKLER came to Pennsylvania about 1700 and to Virginia in 1726. He was a weaver by trade. It is said he once wove a table cloth with figures representing a plate, knife, fork and spoon inside the border at each place around the table cloth.

He was one of the early settlers of Massanutten, Page Co., Virginia.

MARY RUFFNER
(Wife of Abraham STRICKLER)

Born: Germany or Switzerland
Died: abt. 15 May 1871
Children of Abraham STRICKLER and Mary RUFFNER, 6, listed below:

I. Jacob STRICKLER
Married: Nancy KAUFFMAN
Married: Magdalene MOOMAW
Died: 1802

Jacob STRICKLER was a Mennonite Preacher.

II. Joseph STRICKLER
Born: abt. 1766
Married: 15 Mar. 1784 to Barbara GROVE

III. Benjamin STRICKLER
Married: Mary BIEDLER
Died: 1791

IV. John STRICKLER
Born: 1762
Married: Barbara BRUMBACK
Died: 1802

V. Mary STRICKLER
Married: Joseph RHODES 1st
Died: 1829

VI. Abraham STRICKLER Jr.
Born: 1765
Married: 3 Apr. 1787 to Christina BRUBAKER

VII. Isaac STRICKLER
Born: 1740, Massanutten, Page Co., Virginia
Married: Susan BRUBAKER as his #2
Died: 1 May 1817

We do find another tie-up with STRICKLERS in that Mary Elizabeth STRICKLER married Joseph RHODES I who were the parents of Joseph RHODES II. Joseph RHODES II married Magdalene HOTTEL. They were the parents of Ann RHODES who married Noah KEYSER.

This information is found in the Chapter on THE RHODES FAMILY.

At this point we leave the STRICKLERS. It appears that the lineage of relationship would be very difficult and quite uncertain. For further research into the STRICKLERS we suggest researching through "Forerunners".

"The biggest mistake in the world is the continual fear of making one."

THE RUFFNERS

Mary RUFFNER (Sister of Peter RUFFNER) married Abraham STRICKLER. Abraham and Mary were the parents of Isaac STRICKLER.

Isaac STRICKLER married (the second time) to Susan BRUBAKER. They were the parents of Elizabeth STRICKLER.

Elizabeth married John Rhodes BURNER and they were the parents of Susan Francis BURNER.

Susan Francis BURNER married Jacob KEYSER. They were the parents of Mary Isabell KEYSER.

Mary Isabell KEYSER married James Archer TAYLOR, 5 Feb. 1857. This is four generations before the tie to the TAYLORS. Again, we go back to that all important group of Massanutten, Virginia pioneers.

We have very little information on Mary RUFFNER. Her children are listed under the Chapter on the STRICKLERS.

We do have some information gained from the Book "A Short History of Page County, Virginia" by Harry M. STRICKLER:

PETER RUFFNER

Born: Hanover, Germany of Teutonic Stock about 1710. He was the 3rd son of a German baron, who owned large estates in Hanover. He spoke high Dutch language. He was a protestant, of the Martin Luther School. He attended an agricultural college. He left this college without the knowledge of his parents and came to the United States, and settled in Lancaster, Pennsylvania. He is the first Ruffner we have any information on in the United States.

Married: Mary STEIMAN, b. 1 Sept. 1714, dau. of Joseph STEIMAN. They were married in Lancaster Co., Pennsylvania. She was the daughter of a very wealthy German farmer who owned estates in the Valley of Virginia. STEIMAN gave a large body of land (located on both branches of the Hawksbill Creek) to RUFFNER.

Died: 1772 at Luray, Virginia

Children of Peter RUFFNER and Mary STEIMAN, 6, listed below:

I. Joseph RUFFNER
Married: Ann HEISTAND

II. Benjamin RUFFNER
Married: Miss BURNER
Married: Miss HEISTAND

III. Reuben RUFFNER
Married: (name missing)

IV. Peter RUFFNER
Married: Elizabeth BURNER (sister of Benjamin's wife)

V. Emanuel RUFFNER
Married: Miss GROVE

VI. Elizabeth RUFFNER
Married: Jacob STOVER

Further information concerning the RUFFNERS can be found in the book "A Short History of Page Co., Virginia"by Harry M. Strickler.

CHAPTER XVIII

THE WALLACES

Elizabeth WALLACE is the first WALLACE who had any relationship to the TAYLORS. She married Captain William BRISCOE. Their son was Andrew Logan BRISCOE, who married Ann KAVANNAUGH. They were the parents of Susan Kavannaugh BRISCOE. She married William M. TAYLOR and the pedigree charts tell the rest of the story.

The WALLACES were very active in the early day achievements of the eastern United States and especially Virginia. They were of Scottish decent and were extremely proud of their heritage.

We had researched the WALLACES for many months with great difficulty. The lineage, as far as we were concerned, started with Elizabeth WALLACE, who married William BRISCOE. Elizabeth WALLACE's father was Captain Andrew WALLACE and her mother was Margaret WOODS. Captain Andrew WALLACE's father was Peter WALLACE Sr., and his mother was Elizabeth WOOD.

At this point in our research we were completely baffled. There seemed to be nothing beyond Peter WALLACE Sr. which was certain. We then obtained a copy of the book "Woods-Wallace-Cousin Clues" by Ruth Petracek and from her book we found the answer to our failure. It is to Ruth Petracek and her book that we credit the following quoted excerpts:

"Every Wallace family, it seems, traces their lineage back to Sir William or his brother, Malcomn. Our particular Wallaces, naturally, would like to claim such a distinguished heritage.

However, the progenitor of "our Wallaces" was one Peter Wallace Sr. thought to have been born in Scotland around 1680. In due time (around 1705) we find him in Ireland where he married Elizabeth Woods.

Now as one can easily see, there is a 400 year gap between this era and the 13th century when Sir William lived.

While I cannot say that Sir William (or Malcomn) DOES NOT BELONG ON OUR FAMILY TREE, I feel that any evidence to substantiate this claim is too meager (or non existent) to even consider. As one Wallace descendant, I prefer to leave Peter's antecedents open to question."

ELIZABETH WALLACE

Born: abt. 1756, Culpepper, Albermarle, Virginia
Married: 21 Apr. 1776 to William BRISCOE
Her father: Capt. Andrew WALLACE
Her mother: Margaret WOODS

CHAPTER XIX

THE WOODS AND THE CAMPBELLS

Our research on the WOODS family dates back to the early 1600's in Ireland and Scotland. They were closely associated with the WALLACES and were repeatedly intermarried with the WALLACES. Counsins married and we find places where uncles married nieces, etc. This makes their genealogy very difficult to clarify. Any attempt to define their pedigree needs continual clarification. Hence we attempt to write a brief history of their ties after we give a complete tracing of their vital statistics.

The first tie to our lineage with the WOODS, appeared when Captain Andrew WALLACE married Margaret WOODS in Oct. 1735 in Virginia. To indicate the tangled net we are about to deal with, let me say - while Captain Andrew WALLACE'S wife was a WOODS, so also was his mother a WOODS. Now we find that the grandmother and grandfather of Captain Andrew WALLACE were also the grandfather and grandmother of his wife, Margaret WOODS.

I will now write up their vital statistics, without further attempts to explain their trails, lest when our readers read these explanations they become completely confused.

CAPTAIN ANDREW WALLACE

Born: 1711 in Ireland
Father: Peter WALLACE Sr.
Mother: Elizabeth WOODS (Sister of Michael) Married: Oct. 1735 to Margaret WOODS in Virginia

CHAPTER XX

THE HOTTELS (HUDDLES)

When Magdalene HOTTEL married Joseph RHODES II, 27 Jan. 1783, it brought together two very early families from Shenandoah Valley in Virginia.

Both Magdalene HOTTEL and Joseph RHODES II are already written up in this book. Joseph RHODES II in the Chapter on the RHODES. Magdalene HOTTEL in the same chapter, as his wife.

The tremendous entanglement of those early pioneers is intensified by the fact that there were inter-marriages and many marriages between members of the same families. This necessitates extreme caution in this research.

CHARLES HOTTEL

Born: 1722 in Europe (possibly Holland)
Married: Barbara _____, about whom we have no information. She died before 1814.
Died: We have a record of his probated will 12 Sept. 1814 in Bucks Co., Pennsylvania. So he probably died about 1812 or 1813.

Children of Charles HOTTEL and Barbara _____, 11, listed below:

I. John HOTTEL
